SNYDER ARRESTED FOR CONSPIRACY TO MURDER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Bishop, Cal., Aug. 6.—Peter Snyder, interested in many water power projects and reputed to be a very wealthy man, formerly of Kansas City, is today facing a serious charge, that of having conspired to cause the murder of his wife. Last Sunday Mrs. Snyder, who has a large fortune in her own name, invested in Kansas City property, was riding with her husband along a lonely road near this town when an alleged highwayman halted the pair and without further parley shot Mrs. Snyder dead.

GIBBONS' CASE NOT CONSIDERED SERIOUS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Rome, Aug. 6.—Cardinal Gibbons is improved today after an attack of intestinal trouble yesterday. He is confined to his bed, but his condition is not serious. The cardinal was 74 years old last month, but he is a remarkably well preserved man, so the physicians do not fear serious results from his illness. The American pilgrims who went to Rome with the cardinal were called at his apartments today. The pope today plecton of having plotted to kill Mrs. Snyder. Deputy sheriffs learned that the Greek was away from his camp at the time of the shooting. Snyder, it is said, had quarreled with his wife who came here a few days ago from Kansas City to meet her husband and settle certain difficulties between them which had arisen over community property. Snyder said that he had been way-laid while on his way to pay off his employees. The county officers did not seem to put much stock in the report and late yesterday afternoon ordered the arrest of Snyder and the Greek. Snyder is said to be a relative of Carey M. Snyder, who was murdered near Hillsboro, Or., about two years ago and whose father was Robert M. Snyder, the Kansas City banker and politician.

The Lawyer's Fault.

From the Houston Post.
"Well," said the lawyer for the defense to his client, "I was certainly surprised at your conviction."
"I wasn't; it was all your fault."
"All my fault? I put up a magnificent fight for you."
"Yes, an' you say 'yellin' at the jury that you demanded justice for me till they went an' give it to me."

CANNIBALS LAY SIEGE TO TOWN

Man-Eating Africans in Revolt Against Portuguese Masters.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Lisbon, Aug. 6.—The cannibal population of Portuguese Guinea is on the verge of another insurrection, according to news brought here today by a vessel from the southwest coast of Africa. The insurrectionists are demanding from the governor of the province an extensive grant of land in the interior, permission to keep their arms, exemption from the hut tax and free access to Bissau, the provincial capital. The reports indicate that Bissau is now practically in a state of siege, as the man-eaters have marshaled a threatening force outside the walls awaiting the governor's decision. It is feared the authorities finally will be forced to yield, although the governor had steadfastly stood out against the enraged natives for several weeks. Should the natives take the town, pillaging and bloodshed would inevitably result. Every preparation has been made to resist the impending onslaught of the black hordes, but the situation is admitted to be serious. Detailed reports of the rescue of European inhabitants of Bissau by the French cruiser Cassard are beginning to drift in. The town had been sorely beset by the warring natives for many days. Ammunition was running low and

OIL EXPECTED AT HUNTINGTON

Digging of Artisan Well to Result in Strike—Experts Say Conditions Are Favorable.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Huntington, Or., Aug. 6.—Russell & Wilson, well drillers from Fayette, Idaho, arrived here the first of the week with their well drilling machinery and are busy at work placing the machinery on the ground site chosen by the city for an artisan well. The site is on a hillside south of the city, about 150 feet above the level of Main street and a road has to be graded on the hillside to permit moving the machinery to the place. The contract calls for a well eight inches in diameter at the top and no less than six inches at the bottom. Deep interest is taken in the drilling, as experts have expressed the opinion that the conditions are favorable for gas or oil. Doesn't Kind of Rare Earth. In almost the geographical center of Texas is a remarkable mound known as Banger's hill, from which are obtained more than a dozen kinds of rare earth, metal, minerals, including some needed in electric lights, the supply of which is growing exceedingly scarce.

FARMERS WATCH TICKER'S TAPE

Thousands Are Changing Hands at Seat of Umatilla's Wheat Empire.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Aug. 6.—Not since the halcyon days of the twenties has the wheat market in Pendleton and Umatilla county taken on such activity as when the price dumped to 60 cents this week. The offices of the grain buying companies which watch the rising tide of the price, and many thrilling situations have been witnessed in the local market. In a crowd of eight farmers congregated at a local wheat dealer's office today over 25,000 bushels of wheat was represented, and at one time when wheat was at 75 cents the eight men had practically decided to sell. However, they agreed to wait until next morning when wheat sold at 60 cents. By holding over until morning the total sum of $1,500 or $121 each was realized above the sum which would have been received had they sold the evening before. This experience stirred other farmers to action, and now the grain offices are attended by large numbers of farmers who expect to make big profits by holding for further advances in the price. About 60,000,000 bushels (of 155 pounds each) of wheat flour are consumed annually in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WAGON OVERTURNS ON CLIFF'S EDGE

Portland Man Sustains a Broken Shoulder by Being Dashed Down Twenty-Five-Foot Precipice.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Aug. 6.—Jake Berger of Eugene and Herbert (Stub) Anderson, a salmon man of Portland, were seriously injured about 30 miles east of Eugene yesterday by their wagon tipping over and falling down a steep precipice. Berger suffered a broken leg and a broken arm, while Anderson got off with a broken shoulder. In company with Edna Pickard of Portland and Tom Linn and Andy Taylor of Eugene started from here Tuesday on a hunting trip up the Middle Fork of the Willamette river. They expected to go as far as Hill's ranch, which is about 40 miles from here. When they came to the grade at Dead Horse, about 15 miles above Lowell, the horses became frightened at something and plunged to one side of the road. The wagon was overturned at the edge of the cliff and the occupants precipitated 25 or 30 feet below. Linn, Taylor and Pickard escaped with bruises and scratches. Mrs. Bartle and Scalfs were telephoned for and they left late yesterday afternoon to attend the injured men. Berger and Anderson will be brought to Eugene. They are expected this afternoon.

SAYS WIDOW ALLEN HYPNOTIZED HIM

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Oakland, Cal., Aug. 6.—Lambert Van Laak, an aged and wealthy San Francisco capitalist, who is being sued for breach of promise by Mrs. Lydia Earle Allen, a comely widow, won the first round of his court battle today, securing in the superior court a judgment ousting Mrs. Allen from his Alameda home. Mrs. Allen claimed she had been given to her the suit for breach of promise, in which Mrs. Allen is demanding $15,000, is yet to be heard. Mr. Van Laak denies ever asking the widow to marry him, but says that at a summer resort she exercised a sort of hypnotic influence over him.

PERSONAL

J. R. Casey, postmaster at Ashland, is in the city for the purpose of attending the postmasters' convention. Mrs. L. H. Wilson and daughter, Miss Annette Wilson, who left Portland last November intending to take up their permanent residence at Los Angeles, have returned to Portland, and are about to make their home here. For making the postmaster's office stand up to the great fire, the city is being honored by placing a new post office building on the corner of Third and Commercial streets in honor of the postmaster's service.

BOXCAR ROBBED BY WEARY WILLIES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Huntington, Or., Aug. 6.—A car of general merchandise was pilfered in
