Experience teaches the good that there are wicked people and the wicked that there are good people. — Fr Joseph Roux.

THE REAL TRAITOR.

THE Oregonian has much to say of the "treachery" of Republicans to their party. Of course such charges are silly and puerile.

But let us take for a moment the view point of our discontented contemporary. What shall be said of the "treachery" of the Oregonian?

But if the Oregonian were asked whether it could influence 762 out of the 120,000 votes in Oregon, doubtless it would reply in the affirmative.

Not so with the Oregonian. It is the constant exponent of the idea that the first and greatest obligation of every Republican voter is to his party.

A BACK-ACTING INJUNCTION.

JUDGE EMORY SPEER a federal judge in Georgia, decided last week a freight-rate case of considerable importance.

concerned, and then deny the right of those who are wronged to be heard, on the ground that the defendants are non-residents.

FULTON'S FOLLY.

MR. CAKE was not nominated by Democratic votes. Mr. Fulton was not defeated by Democratic votes.

OUT OF ITS OWN MOUTH.

IN ITS issue of April 23, 1906, soon after the first primary election held in Oregon, the Oregonian commended the new system and approved the results.

There is but one honest thing for Statement No. 1 members of the legislature to do with reference to the election of United States senator, and every one of them knows it.

Yesterday the types made The Journal say, "Governor Hughes is a party worker in New York," whereas the "copy" read: "Governor Hughes is a party wrecker."

and there was no factional fight against Withycombe at all. It was just a "fair, square" choice.

For months past it has been scolding, reviling, denouncing, trying in a sort of blind rage to tear down everything it had commended.

STREET SPRINKLING.

ONE OF THE needs of the times is something that will obviate the use of water for street sprinkling, at least in the expensive and unsatisfactory way it is used now.

When Harriman gets all the railroads in the United States, it will be easier for him to handle the railroad question.

Through his public confession, one man who says that he is or was a Democrat and registered and voted as a Republican last April.

Oregon Sidelights.

Oil prospects in Malheur look bright, says The Gazette.

Enterprise is to have a summer picnic and admits will be allowed to attend.

McMinnville Telephone Register: More business is done here now at this time of the year than has been done for several years.

On April 24, 1906, the Oregonian said: "We shall not say that the people in all cases have gotten better candidates through the new primaries."

La Grande observer: This has been the year of years to test. Little rain and exceedingly hot weather.

A man named Adam Person was found dead in a field near La Grande.

Indications are that this section will receive a veritable wave of eastern homeseekers this summer and fall.

So far, the amount of Senator Bourne's contribution to the Republican campaign fund in Oregon has not been announced.

Small Change.

At this writing Mr. Cake is still chairman. This after-the-election publicity looks suspicious. Fine August weather for either working or sleeping.

Tax the Speculator.

From the Pendleton East Oregonian. The attention of Assessor C. P. Strain of Umatilla county, and of the assessors of other eastern counties, is called to the fact that timber land which cost the entryman but $2.50 per acre is being sold at from $1,500 to $3,000.

President Will Keep Trying.

From the Detroit News. Of course President Roosevelt has directed that the case against the Pullman company, reviewed by the United States court of appeals, be at once pushed to a trial.

Must Stand by Their Guns.

From the Mount Scott Tribune. The fact is becoming clear that there is going to be a hot fight made at the coming session of the Oregon state legislature to defeat the expressed will of the people.

Chairman Cake.

From the Pendleton Tribune. While the political situation in Oregon resembles that which confronted an old squaw who had spilled her milk.

This Date in History.

1588—The Spanish Armada becalmed before Dunkirk. 1792—Joseph Rdman Drake, poet, born. 1807—Trial of Fulton's steamboat "Demosthenes" made.

SHIPMENTS MAY BE COMBINED TO MAKE CARLOADS.

From the American Lumberman. A decision which will be interesting to many shippers, and which may be of decided advantage to them, was given out by the United States commerce commission this week.

The Right Sort of Talk.

From the Eugene Guard. There has been for years, talk of a railroad from Eugene to the mouth of the Willamette river, and nothing tangible has resulted from the discussion.

Powell Clayton's Birthday.

Powell Clayton, leader of the Republican party in Arkansas, was born in Bethel, Pa., August 7, 1833 and was educated at the Bristol academy in Pennsylvania.

Chicken With Macaroni.

ONE chicken, four ounces of macaroni, one pint of boiling stock or water, one shallot or small onion, one blade of mace, yolks of two eggs.

The Daily Menu.

BREAKFAST: Red Raspberries, French With Cream, Coffee. LUNCHEON: Chicken With Macaroni, Salad, Egg and Lettuce, Banana With Cream.

An Awful Possibility.

From the Pendleton Tribune. In the year of our Lord, 1906, there seems no possibility of the election of Bryan, though nobody knows anybody over about politics.

The REAL FEMINE Preserving of Fruit. Departure of Agriculture Bulletin. Canning and preserving are made with varying proportions of water and sugar.

One pint sugar and 1 gill water, strap 40 degrees density, use for preserved strawberries and cherries. One pint sugar and 3 gills water, strap 28 degrees density.

Our Sidewalk Manners.

WOMEN are lacking, says a recent critic in sidewalk manners. The fact that men are lacking similarly, even if in a less degree, is no excuse.

Must Stand by Their Guns.

From the Mount Scott Tribune. The fact is becoming clear that there is going to be a hot fight made at the coming session of the Oregon state legislature to defeat the expressed will of the people.
