CHIEF FORESTER ARRIVES TONIGHT

John O'Grady, supreme chief ranger of the Foresters, arrived in Salem today and will arrive in Portland this evening. He will be escorted to the Rose City by Grand Chief Ranger A. L. Brown, A. R. Dalgity, grand secretary, and John Eckland, grand treasurer.

Elaborate arrangements have been made for the entertainment of the highest official in Foresters' and the two days' convention will be replete with events that will mark the affair as the banner occasion in the history of the local order. Visitors will be here from several states and will assist in the entertainment of the distinguished visitor.

Mr. O'Grady will be taken to the Portland hotel upon his arrival and tomorrow will spend the day meeting local and state officials of the order as well as the members. Tomorrow night a monster street parade of 2,200 Foresters will form at Seventh and Morrison streets and march to the armory, where Mr. O'Grady will speak. The Foresters are trying to make the occasion of their chief officer's visit a noteworthy one and have invited the public to attend the meeting tomorrow night.

ETHEL ROOSEVELT IS SEVENTEEN TODAY

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Oyster Bay, L. I., Aug. 10.—Scores of beautiful presents and as many letters of congratulation poured in at Sagamore Hill today for Miss Ethel Roosevelt in honor of her seventeenth birthday. Not only has the event been remembered by her school friends and the members of her family, but admirers from all parts of the country have showered her with manifestations of their interest.

Although Ethel still retains much of her girlish enthusiasm, she is rapidly growing into charming womanhood. Her intellectual attainments are much above the average for a girl of her age and in many ways she is said to resemble her illustrious father.

She will not actively enter Washington society for several years but it is probable she will take a prominent place in the White House functions this winter, owing to the fact that it is the last season her father will spend there.

HAZERS SOON WILL KNOW THEIR FATE

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, Aug. 10.—Secretary of War Wright announced today that he would render his final decision in the case of the eight hazers at West Point this afternoon or tomorrow.

It is not known what will be done with the cadets accused of hazing, but it is generally expected that they will suffer a milder punishment than expulsion.

CHEAP INSURANCE DID NOT HOLD TEN MEN

Bailiff Riley of the municipal court strained his voice this morning calling the names of 10 men. The 10 had been drunk Saturday night. Each had put up $2 to insure his presence in court today, but the insurance wasn't high enough—at any rate the 10, who were of course arrested at different hours and in different places, kept carefully away from the courtroom. The city is richer by $20.

STANDARD OIL CASE PETITION PREPARED

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Chicago, Aug. 10.—A preliminary draft of the petition for rehearing of the famous Standard Oil case, in which Judge Landis imposed a fine of $29,240,000 was completed today and sent by United States District Attorney Sims to Washington, where it will be passed upon by Attorney-General Bonaparte. It will be filed for hearing on August 21.

RARE RELIC.

Only One Known to Exist of Six Medallions Made for Lafayette.

Mrs. F. Luis Mora of this city owns a Washington relic which, so far as is known, is the only one of its kind in existence. It is one of six medallions, which were made to order for General Lafayette.

Before Lafayette took leave of the officers of his staff, says the Circle, he had these medallions made in Paris and presented them to the six officers immediately under him. The five others have disappeared and may have been destroyed.

The one in Mrs. Mora's possession is made of cut glass bound by a heavy rim of solid gold, to which is attached a gold ring by which it may be suspended. Between the two layers of glass is a beautifully modeled head of Washington in pinster, silvered.

On the reverse is the inscription, "Desprez, Rue des Recolets No. 2, a Paris Wasington." Note the omission of the letter "h" in Washington.

The medallion came into Mrs. Mora's possession through her great-grandfather, Lewis Comptom, to whom it was presented soon after the Revolutionary war.

WEATHER REPORT

The low pressure area that began to move eastward from northern California Sunday morning, now extends as a trough from southern Idaho through Wyoming and thence northeastward into Saskatchewan where the lowest barometer readings prevail. The barometric pressure is below normal over the entire country except in western Washington and southern Nevada. Rains have fallen in southern California, Arizona, Utah, western Colorado and northern New Mexico, also along the Atlantic coast from New York southward, and in the middle upper Mississippi valley, northern Illinois and lower Michigan. It is slightly cooler this morning over Washington, Oregon and California, but warmer in western Montana, Idaho and Nevada. The temperature, however, is slightly below the seasonal average over the entire country, except in the last mentioned states and Colorado.
