Great Encampment at American Lake Is Divided Into Two Opposing Forces Today—Mimic War Manoeuvres Commence.

Browns Under Colonel McDonnell Entrench to Resist Attack of Troops Commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Ghorumley.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Camp David S. Stanley, American Lake, Wash., Aug. 10.—At 7 o'clock this morning the Brown army, under command of Colonel C. E. McDonnell, took to the field and entrenched just west of Nesqueally creek, where it resisted the attack of the Blue army that departed some two and one-half hours later.

It was necessary for this advance guard to throw up entrenchments and to allow for the two and one-half hours were given by the umpires. However, only actual entrenchments counted and upon arrival at the assigned position Colonel McDonnell's troops were at once set to work with axes, picks and shovels.

The troops under command of Colonel McDonnell consist of the Third Oregon, first platoon of company E, signal corps, company B, engineers, company B, Fourth field artillery, Third infantry, first platoon of company B, hospital corps and troops C and D of the 14th cavalry.

MOVE CARS

Mayor Reddy and Mr. Hafer had on old clothes and looked like railroad men themselves. But they didn't know how in the world to run an engine. So the two men bent on moving those six cars of lumber hiked up town.

The night was dark—very dark. There were a few calls and other signals that no one understood and the engine and six cars moved. They were switched about the Southern Pacific tracks for a mile or so and then klicked upon the spur leading to the box factory.

The job had been accomplished. But this isn't the end of the story. The next morning consternation prevailed among the Southern Pacific officials in Medford. The wires between Portland and Medford were kept hot all day long.

The next morning when the Medford people arose for breakfast three black, somber-looking, dignified private cars stood on a siding. Inside numbered M. J. Buckley of Portland, general superintendent of the Harriman lines; William Holton, division engineer of the Southern Pacific; Lewis E. Fields, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific, and several other officials of more or less importance.

Early in the day some of these officials sent word to Mayor Reddy and Mr. Hafer that they would like to see them. They thought some mistake had been made. Eventually, however, the Medford men and the Southern Pacific representatives met and there was a conference that lasted half a day.

dreds of entertainments provided by the entertainment committees. The official welcoming ceremonies of Monday were carried through without a hitch and the arrival of the fleet here has been one of the happiest and most delightful events of the long cruise.

Professions of Friendship. Prime Minister Sir Joseph George Ward and Admiral Sperry were equally pleasing in their addresses and the factious and the politicians and the people of Auckland is that of brotherhood.

The city was brilliantly illuminated last night and the crowds enjoyed themselves in the gala celebration. The main feature of the program today (Tuesday) is the mayor's reception to visiting officers of the fleet and other persons of note.

The entertainment program as arranged for the remaining days of the week is as follows:—One thousand men land for an entertainment and mayoral receptions evening, state hall at Government house, the men being entertained in various halls.

Wednesday—Race meeting, after which the admirals, officers and other guests will leave for the Hotel Rialta, the great pleasure resort of New Zealand, where an elaborate Maori welcome will be given them and they will enjoy the most varied and interesting entertainments, including Maori dancing and sports.

Thursday Morning—One thousand men land and will be entertained at luncheon, afternoon, 2,500 land and attend matinee at the theatre, evening, 1,000 men attend sports and various entertainments will be provided for the officers and non-commissioned officers.

Friday—Races and football and lacrosse matches evening, the surgeons of the fleets will be entertained by the British Medical association.

The officers of the fleet are enthusiastic over the success of the long run from Honolulu to Auckland, probably the longest cruise ever made by a battleship fleet without incident. A good formation was maintained throughout the run, though the necessity of economizing on coal prevented the speed contests and tactical evolutions in which the fleet might otherwise have engaged.

All Entertainments Free. The general health of the crews is reported excellent. From 3,000 to 4,000 of the men of the fleet will be given a sight of the city of Auckland during the four days in this harbor.

At the request of Rear Admiral Sperry no liquor of any kind will be served at any of the functions arranged for the entertainment of the men here. Outdoor sports will form a prominent feature of the program, together with several indoor parties and special matinee performances at the theatre.

Transportation on the tramways is free to all of those wearing the American naval uniform and a number of places of amusement have decided to give free admission to the sailors of the fleet.

FULTON IN VANGUARD (Continued From Page One.) This law was passed by a popular vote of 69,568 for and 21,184 against the measure, by a majority of 48,384 votes.

At the same time George E. Chamberlain received 52,421 votes. Thus it was the 12,447 voters of the district who did not vote for Chamberlain did vote for the principle set out in the law, placing themselves on record as favoring the abolition of the legislature to the popular will of the people as expressed at the polls.

That Party Shook. Senator Fulton and his friends, in the senatorial campaign, are going on the theory that the 69,568 voters of the state who cast their ballots in favor of the measure to amend the constitution on the legislature, as regards the United States senatorship, did not mean what they expressed by their votes last June.

The plan is to make loyalty to party the great plea in the hope that, aided by the enthusiasm of the presidential campaign, a majority of the voters will be induced to repudiate their belief in the direct election of United States senators in order to elect Governor Chamberlain and elect Senator Fulton to the office already accorded to him by the popular vote of the people.

Death Roll of the Northwest (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Castlerock, Wash., Aug. 10.—Ira C. Conger, 81 years of age, died at his home here Friday evening. He was born in Tennessee. When about 29 years old he moved to Arkansas and a year later married Melissa O'Neill. In '62 they crossed the plains to Oregon, settling in Yamhill county, where they made their home until 1887, when they came to Coos Bay, Oregon.

About 10 years ago Mrs. Conger died. To them 10 children were born, only three of whom are now living—J. Kelly of this place, Mrs. M. M. Henderson of Portland, and Mrs. Luella Curry of Reedsport, Cal. There are 10 grandchildren living.

Mr. Conger was the pioneer merchant of Castlerock, and at the time of his death was engaged in the general merchandise business. He had been an active and consistent member of the Christian church for over 35 years, giving often and liberally to all charitable works and institutions and ever preaching the gospel of Christ by his precept, God-like life.

HOPELESS REPUBLICAN SPLIT IN TENNESSEE (United Press Leased Wire.) Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 10.—What is believed to be a hopeless split in the Republican party of Tennessee has crystallized into two state conventions this week, the one at Nashville here today. The convention is composed of the followers of the Brownlow-Austin faction. The Eastern faction will gather at Nashville Wednesday.

Both organizations declare they are entirely regular and have the authority of the respective state legislatures. Independently endorsed the nomination of Taft and Sherman. Talk in the opening session of today's convention pointed to T. A. Wright as the gubernatorial nominee.

FALLIERES' DAUGHTER WEDS WITHOUT POMP (United Press Leased Wire.) Paris, Aug. 10.—Without any public show such as marked the wedding of Alice Roosevelt, Miss Fallieres, daughter of the president of France, was married today to M. Jean Lanes, her father's private secretary, today.

The affair was extremely quiet and simple. No pomp or ceremony characterized the occasion and throughout France little public interest was taken in the event. The wedding was treated with no more enthusiasm than is accorded any similar affair in diplomatic circles.

Treasury Statement. (United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Aug. 10.—Today's treasury statement shows: Receipts, $1,912,592; expenditures, $1,620,000.

Bryan Preparing for Speechmaking (United Press Leased Wire.) Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 10.—Bryan today completed his draft of a speech to be made at Des Moines on the tariff question, August 21. He then began the preparation of his speech to be made at the notification of Kern of his nomination for the vice-presidency.

A delegation of traveling men visited the congressman at his home today and were received cordially. The Democratic candidates refused to comment on the outcome of the Illinois primaries.

FACTION'S GRAVE TAFT'S SUPPORT

Leaders Are Putting It Up to Him to Choose in West Virginia.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Hot Springs, Aug. 10.—Judge Taft found himself in the center of a state political battle for the control of the Republican party in West Virginia, when he returned today from White Sulphur Springs. He did not seem the least bit worried by it, however, and talked pleasantly with both sides.

He was accompanied on the journey here by Charles W. Swisher, regular nominee for governor of West Virginia, and George Mcintosh, representing Arnold Shriver, another Republican nominee for governor of that state.

Both will remain here until the arrival of Frank H. Hitchcock, national chairman, on Wednesday, when they will demand that he and Taft decide which candidate will have the support of the national organization.

Senator Elkins arrived today and it is said he is here in an effort to persuade the national organization to support the Swisher wing of the party. Taft and his party greatly enjoyed their trip to White Sulphur and the candidate arrived with a good health in the best of spirits and health.

FINDER OF WALLET INSISTS ON REWARD Mrs. Catherine MacFarlane, who found the wallet lost by M. M. Bloch and who suffered arrest at her investigation rather than be buffed out of the reward of $100 which he offered for its return, says that although much distressed and worried over her predicament she believes that she is in the right and seeks no reason why she should not have the reward which was offered.

Mrs. MacFarlane says that she picked up the wallet on Salmon street July 21. She carried it home, and as she was sick afterward, she did not give the matter much thought. She thought if the papers were of much value they would be advertised. August 5 she saw an advertisement for the papers and she telephoned the courthouse asking for Mr. Bloch and was told there was no one by that name there.

When the reward was offered she went over with the papers and consulted with Nathan H. Bird in the deputy sheriff's office. Mr. Bloch did not appear.

She made an appointment for 2 o'clock and went again. Mr. Bloch then saw Mr. Bloch, and judging that he was in an ugly mood and learning that he had a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. MacFarlane, he advised her to go home. She did so and soon Mr. Bloch called her up again and said he would come at once. He brought two detectives and a search warrant, which was not used. At his request Mrs. MacFarlane was arrested and is now out on bail. The case came up in Judge Van Zante's court Saturday.

Mrs. MacFarlane says that Mr. Bloch admitted under oath that he did not offer the reward in good faith, but she cannot see that that releases him from his published promise. At any rate the wallet is in the possession of her attorneys and the case which is under advisement may go to the supreme court.

NEW TRAFFIC MANAGER OF O. W. P. LINES F. D. Hunt, formerly freight agent of the Kansas City Southern in Kansas City, Mo., has been made traffic manager of the O. W. P. lines out of Portland. Mr. Hunt arrived Saturday accompanied by his family. He assumed the duties of the position this morning as the new freight department of the company is completed on the east side. Mr. Hunt will have his headquarters at First and Alder streets.

The position of traffic agent of the O. W. P. held by A. Mulcahy has been abolished. Mr. Mulcahy is all probability will act as Mr. Hunt's assistant. Hunt's department, the position of traffic manager being a new one, will have charge of all the freight traffic of the lines, and the freight tariffs, including the Portland freight station and the terminals and yards.

HARRIMAN WANTS CONCESSIONS IN DIAZ COUNTRY (United Press Leased Wire.) Mexico City, Aug. 10.—Effort is being made today to confirm a rumor to the effect that E. H. Harriman, the American railroad king, has applied for the transfer of a concession now held by the Mexican government and that action may be expected at any time.

Harriman's supposed purpose in this respect is to obtain an eastern outlet to the United States by way of the Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific railroad. It is understood that Harriman's application is now before the Mexican government and that action may be expected at any time.

The proposed extension will cross the Sierra Madre to Tonichilo, Sonora, where it will connect with the Canadian branch of the Canadian Pacific and Pacific system, which the Harriman interests are building in western Mexico.

MEN MUST NOT STAND ON FRONT PLATFORM The women have caused the men more trouble. After today men will not be allowed to ride on the front platform of the Portland streetcars. And it's all the fault of the women. Since the near stop at street corners went into effect the women have been complaining that the horrid old men interfere with their progress in getting on and off cars by standing on the front platforms with the motormen. So the new order goes into effect today. It applies to all cars except those with three compartments. The men will all be compelled to crowd together on the rear. If they like, where they can smoke to their hearts content.
