SALE CLOSSES SATURDAY NIGHT

Until Then Finest $250 Pianos Will Be Sold at $128, and Others at $142, $194 and $218, Worth at Least Double.

All on Terms of Five Dollars Down and One Dollar a Week—Only Three More Days on These Terms.

Today and Friday and Saturday you can have the piano sent home on payment of five dollars cash and the balance on terms of only One Dollar a Week—but you must come before closing time Saturday night...

We are hearing the wailing up of a great sale. A sale that has given a hundred people the opportunity of securing pianos at such unusual low prices that they will never feel the cost of paying it has brought our monthly average every four or five months and we are satisfied, and besides, we know we have made a hundred more people selling at low prices and every statement of our announcements carried out to the letter, and many called merely out of curiosity, thinking it impossible for us to give such remarkable reductions on reliable pianos and accept such unheard-of terms as a Dollar a Week. They were soon convinced that Elers Piano house meant every word published.

The sale has been a decided success from the very beginning, and the last three days will exceed in sales those who have bought are sending their friends.

No sale could be a sustained success, first, if the pianos were not right, and next, if the prices were not right, and just at this time of the year, if the terms were not right, the next year or so, it will pay you largely to look at this stock over, and the earlier you come the better the choice—this afternoon, if possible, Elers Piano store, 322 Washington St., Cor. Park (5th).

There is no lowering of quality with the prices you get the same honest, reliable pianos well sold in sales. You get them for less than usual because we were overstocked on account of dull times during the extreme hot weather in July.

We're nearing the end of this great Dollar a Week Sale now—only two more days besides today, and that means there is no time for delay.

From now until the closing hour every available salesman will be busy assisting eager buyers in selecting bargains. If you need a piano or intend to buy one inside the next year or so, it will pay you largely to look at this stock over, and the earlier you come the better the choice—this afternoon, if possible, Elers Piano store, 322 Washington St., Cor. Park (5th).

DECLARES PUBLIC BATHS A CITRUS FRUIT

That the city was handed a lemon when the public baths were presented to the municipality was the declaration of Councilman Kellner yesterday when the matter of appropriating more money for the baths came up.

It was finally decided to grant the park board an additional $500 for the bath in a poor condition but the city is confronted with a serious problem in finding a site suitable for the amusement resort.
