Summer Visitors at the Seashore.

NORTH BEACH, Wash., Aug. 15.—The week past has been one of the events since the last. The most important feature of the week was the excursion which went to the life saving station on Tuesday. Several hundred persons from all parts of the beach assembled at the Long Beach life saving station and were shown through the buildings. After listening to an explanation of the working of the surf boat and various parts of the government's life saving apparatus, the excursionists went down on the sand and watched the crew go through their drill. A thrilling feature of the exhibition, to the work done with the surf boat. The little craft is launched in the breakers, rowed out to sea and capsized. She is quickly righted, self bailed and comes in over the breakers. After the drill the observatory and quarters of the crew were visited. In the possession of the station there are souvenirs of all of the unfortunate vessels which have come ashore on North Beach. Each has its history and the collection never fails to get its share of attention.

During the week there have been a number of parties which have gone to the North Head lighthouse. A number of persons have taken horseback rides to the cranberry marsh and the automobiles have been busy carrying parties to the wrecks and various points of interest on the 20 miles of sand beach.

The week has had the usual number of bonfires and one in particular at Long Beach, which was the largest built here for years. The great pile of driftwood was built by a number of industrious young men and their many friends enjoyed the evening watching it burn.

The dances both at Sylvian hall and Parsons' hall have been popular. There were two very pretty dancing parties in the ballroom at the Hotel Breakers during the week and one at Sunset hotel. A bowling tournament is in progress between Long Beach and Seaview and also a series of baseball games.

Social Gatherings.

A number of young people from Long Beach went over to Chinook on a hayrack party last week. In the party were Mrs. H. W. Dewey, Mrs. J. F. Coates, Mrs. Vergil Taylor, Miss Agnes Baker, Miss Kate Krall, W. Lloyd T. Hoffer, F. E. Lovejoy, F. M. Metzger and William Huggins.

The tennis tournaments at the Breakers will begin on Monday and last a week. Players from all over the Pacific northwest will take part.

One of the most enjoyable dancing parties of the season was given last week at the Sunset hotel. After the dancing there was a short program. Punch was served by Hazel Eutriken and Tot Gooley. Those present were Miss Pauline Poria, Miss Gly Poria, Miss Lou Flood, Hazel Koontz, Lina Ross, Dorothy Povey, Agnes Lorger, Anita O'Brien, Louise O'Brien, Mary Billings, Virlena Ambrose, Elaine Gooley, Achsah Paget, Marguerite Egbert, Irene O'Brien, Irma McLaren, La Myra Ford, Carrie Shilt, Mrs. R. Kirkley, Mrs. Charles Bellington, Mrs. C. Ford, Mrs. J. E. Povey, Mrs. E. M. Holden, Mrs. C. O. McLaren, Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. P. K. Egbert, Mrs. Pras, Mrs. S. A. Morgan, Mrs. E. A. Myers, Albert Krause, Leo Krause, Charles Bellington, Eben McFarland, Percy K. Egbert, Dr. E. A. Myers, Jack Hinds, Earl O'Malley, Gorden Brown, Ray Kennedy, Guy L. King, Louis Klumpp and Jack Callahan.

The following congenial guests from the Driftwood went on the excursion train, which runs every Tuesday to the life-saving station: Mrs. A. Anderson, Miss G. Missoul and Miss Lillian Dyer.

On Friday a merry party composed of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hayes, Miss H. Stampher and E. Dowling went driving along the beach to Ocean Park. The surf made it impossible for them to return the same way, so they came back by the road. Mrs. Stampher later entertained the same guests at 500, with Mrs. Ed Dorr and Miss Jean Dorr.

Last Friday a merry party of young people chaperoned by Mrs. C. L. Mostick went in a large touring car to Ilwaco. From there they walked to the North Head lighthouse. A picnic lunch was eaten on an elevation overlooking the sea. Those participating were Mrs. T. M. Paterson, Misses Winnetta Carson, Wilma Fiske, Cora, Maud and Emma Mastick, Messrs. Howard Charlton, Harold Howes and Louis E. Paterson.

The guests at Salt Air hotel enjoyed a bonfire Monday night. After an evening of frolic on the beach a candy pull at the hotel followed.

SEASIDE NOTES AND PERSONAL MENTION

SEASIDE, Or., Aug. 15.—Clear, sunny skies, cool ocean breezes and perfect beach weather have brought thousands to this resort. On Saturday and Sunday night there was not a spare bed in Seaside. Every cottage was crowded with the week end visitors and the hotels were full. On Sunday over 250 persons had dinner at the Moore hotel and Jackley Hall and Sargent's Seaside House had proportionate crowds on Saturday night especially in the colonial hotel. There is activity along the beach in every line of amusement and there is not a visitor who does not enjoy himself.

Among the events of the week was an interesting party which went on horseback to Cannon Beach. The outing was in the nature of a picnic and excursion and an enjoyable time prevailed from the early morning start till the moonlight ride homeward. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Prudhomme, Miss Frankie Norden, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wickersham, Mrs. L. A. Carlisle and Dr. W. D. Carlisle.

Thursday at Sargent's Seaside House, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Blumauer gave a dinner party in honor of their eighteenth wedding anniversary. One of Mr. Sargent's private dining-rooms was prettily decorated for the occasion and there was music by the orchestra. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Max Fleischner, Miss Flora Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hexter, Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith, Moses Blumauer and Mr. and Mrs. Sol Blumauer.
