

SOCIETY

SO FAR as social gaieties are concerned, the point of view at this time of year is shifted from the city by the Willamette to the cities by the sea, and to get the Portland news one must be elsewhere. The cooler weather of the fore part of the week brought back to the city some of the campers, but those who spend the entire summer in their cottages at the coast will not be returning for some weeks yet.

The principal event of interest at Seaside this week is the Alexander recital which was one of the few remaining opportunities to hear our most accomplished musician before he leaves for his London season. This recital was held last night and was largely attended.

The leaders in the social world of the city have been taking advantage of the fall to relax and to enjoy the out of doors in quiet auto parties or launch rides on the coast. The reading of Miss Alice Bretherton and Clifford Brown Wednesday night was attended by a large number of the young people who have enjoyed the friendship of bride and groom in college and fraternal circles.

The informal dance given by Mrs. Hoge and Miss Sansbury for their guests from out of town was an enjoyable affair, and made a pleasant break in the monotony of the mid-season. A good many Portlanders are going down to the Breakers for the tennis tournament which opens tomorrow, and a number of society functions of an informal nature are planned to add to the enjoyment of the visitors.

Boyle's children and the Misses Nellie, Jennie and Whitford Phillips, Marian McMahon, Hulda and Esther Peterson and Lillian Kramer.

Mrs. Robert Lutke entertained informally at Incheon Wednesday afternoon for Miss Anna Lewis Clark who returned to the city after a two weeks' visit on the coast. Mrs. Lutke's guests were Mrs. Clark, Miss Anna Lewis Clark and Mrs. Sarah Evans, whose house guest Miss Clark was while in the city. Mrs. and Miss Clark left this week for Denver where they will visit friends.

"How I would love to compose something really worth while" was a remark recently made by Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyer. All who have heard Miss Sawyer's songs think the "worth while" has certainly been realized.

Mrs. Robert Lutke, One of the Hostesses of the Week.

The Mazamas have many interesting experiences to relate after their hard climb to the top of St. Helens, a most arduous bit of work. Those who reached the top of the mountain and made the dangerous descent Saturday last, completing the descent in darkness and the piercing wind over the snow fields, were Dr. Ols Akin, Dr. W. C. Adams, Rev. M. A. Covington of Spokane, Miss Elizabeth David, Miss F. Friedle, Miss Margaret Flemming, Nelson Gammons, Mrs. Martha Goldman, Miss Eleanor M. Gardner, Mark Gill, Harold Gilbert, J. A. Hughes, Miss Emma Harding John A. Lee, R. W. Montague, Jack Montague, Miss Constance McKone, Miss Eleanor McDonald, Miss Agnes Plummer, Mrs. E. P. Parsons of San Francisco, Mrs. Margaret Robin of Castle Rock, Frank B. Riley, Edmund P. Sheldon, Rev. D. A. Walters and Otto Weid of Castle Rock.

Mrs. Samuel Owen, Whose Marriage Was a Surprise to Her Many Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Owen are traveling through California on their honeymoon trip, which may be extended to New York. Mrs. Owen was Miss Clara Lewis of Seattle, popular among the young people because of her warm personality and her charming soprano voice. She met Mr. Owen but a few months ago, and their romance is said to have been a case of love at first sight. The marriage, which was performed at Trinity Parish church by the rector, Rev. H. H. Gowen, was attended by a few of the most intimate friends of the bride and the groom's brother, Daniel Buckingham, acted as best man. After the first of October Mr. and Mrs. Owen will reside at the Portland.

Miss Lydia C. Sandvall of Chicago has recently come to Portland intending to locate here. Miss Sandvall is an accomplished musician, being both a pianist and vocalist. She has been active in musical circles in the east, having been identified with several musical societies and church choirs. She has a well trained dramatic soprano voice of lyric quality especially suitable for church work.

The committee in charge of the tennis tournament at the Breakers, which begins tomorrow, is composed of A. H. McAlpin, chairman, D. S. Bellinger and Walter Goss. A large attendance of Portland people is expected for the event, which will be under the auspices of the Multnomah club.

Cards are out for the marriage of Ethel Merton Hays, daughter of Mrs. Alice L. Hays to Francis Willard Horn of Bendleton. The ceremony will be performed at St. Mark's Episcopal church Wednesday evening, August 26.

Mrs. G. A. Rembold of Burns has returned to her home after a stay of several weeks in this city, during part of which time she was the guest of Mrs. Walter London.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Westermire left Thursday for a pleasure trip on Puget Sound, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. They will be absent several weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Boyer has as her guests at Seaside Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Inman are at the Chamberlain cottage, North Beach.

Miss Helen Bates is visiting at Tigra, a guest at Dr. Nichols' cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. VanDusen are at the Breakers at Long Beach.

Mrs. M. Siebel and children are at their cottage at Castervilla.

Mrs. E. E. Doyle is preparing a party of six at Burn-Wald cottage, Seaside, September 1 in the Tibbitts building, corner Tenth and Morrison streets.

News has been received from Dundee, Scotland, of the marriage of James Cormack of this city and Miss Rita Lawson of Cordova Place, Carnoustie. The ceremony was performed in the United Presbyterian church, before a large company of friends, among whom were three Portland people, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Baxter and Mrs. D. H. Galt, who are at present in Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Cormack will soon be in this city, where they will make their home. Mr. Cormack is connected with the Inland Department of Balfour, Guthrie & Co.

Miss C. W. Burrage entertained at dinner Wednesday evening for her nephew, Leon H. Smith of Boston. Mr. Smith is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The guests were Miss Henrietta Eliot, Tom Eliot, Miss Mary Elizabeth Sears, Miss Dorothy Duncombe of Alameda and Rev. Nehemiah Baker. Mr. Smith has gone to California.

Miss Catherine Emmons, Miss Catherine Tracy and Dr. Donald Mansfield are planning to keep house together in a cozy flat in New York. Miss Emmons is going for art study, for which she shows much aptitude.

At the White Temple today J. Hutchison will play in the morning "Pastorale," Gullman, and "Fugue in G," Mendelssohn. In the evening "Abendlied," Schumann, and "Intermezzo," Mascagni.

Miss Helen G. Abbott, who took part in the collegiate alumnae play, a graduate of Oberlin, who last year taught at Oregon City, has accepted a position at Pacific university, Forest Grove.

T. Scott Brooke, Rodney Gilman and Bruce Wilson left Tuesday for a month's visit to the coast.

outing, the plan being to follow the Cascades from Prineville to Crater lake. The party is supplied with mules and pack horses and the mountains of warfare against bear, deer and fish.

Mrs. Jennie E. Matthews of Rockford, Iowa, who has been the most worthy grand matron of the general order of Eastern Star, and Mrs. Jennie E. Ruhl, the past grand matron of the state of Iowa, were guests for a week of Mrs. Robert Lutke, president of the woman's club. A trip was made now spending several days in the city the guests for a day of Mrs. Judge Ryan of Oregon City.

Monday evening a pleasant reception was planned in their honor by the local Martha Washington chapter of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Ruhl told of the home work accomplished in their state and held an interested audience. Impromptu addresses were made by several speakers, refreshments served and a social hour enjoyed. Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Ruhl back horses and the mountains of warfare against bear, deer and fish.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lipman, which will be celebrated at the Portland next Tuesday evening, will be a brilliant and interesting event. Relatives are coming from out of town to attend the dinner. Besides the circle of relatives and connections in the city the affair will be attended by Mrs. E. L. Heller, Miss Margaret Heller, Clarence Heller and William D. Heller of New York, Mrs. S. Rosener, Miss Nettie Rosener, Miss Daisy Rosener, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosener of San Francisco.
