

HUSBAND AND WIFE VANISH

William L. Ziegweid Has $4,745 to His Credit in the Merchant's National Bank of Portland—No Clue of Couple's Whereabouts.

W. Ziegweid, a bridge carpenter of Salem, recently found a wallet containing a cashier's check for $4,745, issued by the Merchant's National bank of this city, June 17, in favor of William L. Ziegweid.

Nothing has been learned of Ziegweid, and the police are interested in looking up his disappearance. Little can be learned of him in Portland.

The cashier at the Merchant's bank said he issued the check for Ziegweid, but the man was unknown to him and was brought in by a local real estate dealer, who had sold a timber claim for Ziegweid.

Nothing has been learned of Ziegweid, and the police are interested in looking up his disappearance. Little can be learned of him in Portland.

MOTHER'S GUIDE

When a young girl's thoughts become sluggish; when she has headaches, dizziness, faintness, and exhibits an abnormal disposition to sleep; dislikes the society of other girls; then the mother should come to her aid promptly, for she possesses information of vital importance to the young daughter.

At such a time the greatest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the coming change, and has helped to bring three generations safely from girlhood to womanhood. Read what

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for Miss Olson. Miss Ellen M. Olson, of 417 North East Street, Kewanee, Ill., in a letter to Mrs. E. Pinkham says: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of backache, sideache, and established my periods after the best physicians in Kewanee had failed to help me, saying that an operation was necessary."
