

VETERANS ARE SOON TO MEET

Thirty-Five Thousand Expected in G. A. R. Grand Parade at Toledo.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Toledo, Ohio, Aug. 20.—One week hence the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic will be trooping into Toledo for their annual national encampment. The opinion is expressed that the encampment this year will be the most significant, the most interesting and one of the best attended reunions ever held.

The whole city will be handsomely dressed for the occasion. Plugs and bunting will cover the buildings fronting along Sumner street, Erie and other leading streets. The many handsome public buildings, for which Toledo is noted, will be artistically decorated with hundreds of electric lights. At prominent street intersections several handsome arches are being erected.

One of the notable events in connection with the encampment will be the dedication of the monument on the site of Fort Meigs, which will be the city. The Ohio National Guard will join with the veterans in the ceremonies.

The grand parade September 2. The parade, which is the big spectacular event of the annual encampment, will be the place of the parade on September 2. The executive committee has received returns indicating that 25,000 veterans will take part in the parade.

Ex-Commanders to Be Present. Three camps are announced for encampment week. Among the speakers will be commanders in chief Charles G. Burton and some of his predecessors in office.

STRAY TOPICS FROM OLD NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 20.—A party of Nebraska schoolmasters recently visited New York and went away with the impression that the town was rather a sad affair. To be sure the majority of the party had never seen anything bigger than their own little red schoolhouse on the plains, but they had seen so much of the wonders of Gotham that they were surprised to find the majority of the other party days that still exist on Manhattan island. As they came into the city, they had the impression that they were about to take one of the little, both of these boys that run along Third avenue in order to reach their hotel.
