GROOM HITCHES SIGN TO GREEKS

Elongated Twirler Takes Revenge for Tuesday's Beating.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Oakland, Aug. 20.—Bobby Groom had glorious revenge on the Greeks this afternoon for the unmerciful drubbing they gave him in the first inning Tuesday and blanked them with four measly hits yesterday. Groom was in great form, while the men behind him hammered Hardy all over the lot.

Much credit for the liberal coat of alabastine is due to Buddy Ryan, whose phenomenal catch in right field and remarkable return to Madden cut off the only real run that was in sight. This happened in the third inning.

Bassey opened the first inning with a run, after he had been presented with a pass, was singled to second, took third on a fielder's choice and scored on a double steal with Danzig.

Four runs were made by the Beavers in the seventh. Casey reached first via the pass route. Then Bassey singled. Anderson booted Johnson's grounder and Casey registered. Bassey scored when Danzig batted the ball out of Ash Houston's hands at first. Johnson was forced at second on Ryan's grounder, but Cooney's two-bagger scored Danzig and Ryan.

Casey and Bassey made two more runs in the eighth inning. Hardy walked both for the second time, then big Jeff Danzig ripped off a two-bagger that allowed both to negotiate the plate.

KETCHEL WON'T WAIT FOR PAPKE

Champion Will Not Mince Matters With Illinois Thunderbolt.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—Stanley Ketchel, champion middle-weight fighter of the world, announced today that he would leave for Los Angeles next Saturday morning in an automobile with his manager, Joe O'Connor.

Ketchel will stand on the assumption that the fight with Papke will go through as planned, but if Papke insists on his making 154 pounds at 3 o'clock as eastern dispatches state, that he, Ketchel, will claim the forfeit and return to San Francisco to await a chance at Tommy Burns.

There is nothing to indicate that Papke will forfeit his end of the contract, but Ketchel will not dicker about the match. If Papke does not stick to the articles he will call the fight off.

O'Connor is in receipt of a letter from Jim Jeffries stating that he will have a bunch of motor cars to meet Ketchel and that the champion will be the real thing while he is in Los Angeles.

Newberg will have a taste of the boxing game Labor day when Bill McGuire, the local boxer, will step into the ring with Ernest Allen, a Montana middleweight, late of the battleship Oregon. McGuire is said to be nifty with the padded mits and is very well thought of in his home town.

Allen has boxed considerably in Australia and is said to have a record of a large number of victories. The men will travel over a 15-round route. Strangler Smith, the local wrestler, will probably referee the fight.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—Although Joe Gans tried to open his training quarters quietly at Alameda several hundred fans were present today to see the black boy work when they learned that he started preparation for his fight with Nelson yesterday.

Gans, however, announced today that he would do no boxing until next Sunday, when he would begin in earnest.

Several sparring partners have been tested for him and there will be something doing between now and the big fight. Abe Attell is scheduled to work in Gans' gym.

ENGLISH PAPER SAYS BRITON WAS FOULED

English newspapers are still devoting space to the famous race between Carpenter, the American, and Lieutenant Halswell, the English champion of London, during the Olympic games last month. Carpenter finished first but was disqualified for fouling.

This is the opinion of the London Referee on the much talked about foot race:

Echoes of the Olympic games are likely to linger for a long time to come, and a subject which will not be forgotten is the 400 meters race on the last Thursday. That Carpenter deliberately fouled W. Halswelle and ran him out of the race was scarcely denied even by Halpin, who managed the American team; at least Halpin admitted that his man ran wide round the turn, and we all know what that confession implied. But as to the fouling there could have been no shadow of doubt, because, as I pointed out last week, several thousands of people saw Carpenter's action at the same moment and shouted indignant protest, and there were the damning footprints, irrefutable evidence. Of course, Carpenter and his defenders, and the excuse put forward for him was not that he did not do what was alleged, but that in doing it he had committed no offense from the American point of view. I looked for a denial—furious or reproachful, as the case might be—but to my amazement none has been forthcoming, and it really appears that Carpenter's proceedings were in accordance with the code which governs "sport," amateur as well as professional, in America.

When the rules which regulated English sport at the Olympic games were issued, and it was noted that crossing and jostling were not allowed, I confess to having thought that the compilers of the regulations were wasting time and space, as this was too well understood in all civilized countries to need mention. But I did not know. Many years ago crossing and jostling were specially allowed in horse-racing, but sportsmanship prevailed and such practices were barred. The difficulty, of course, is to know where the line has to be drawn when these things are admitted. One paper wanted to know whether if two of the Americans had tripped W. Halswelle up at the start and left their third man to finish the distance by himself that would have been esteemed in America as a sporting victory. I presume that it would, at least, between that and doing what Carpenter did there is, it may be said, a distinction without a difference. If our ideas are old-fashioned, let us be truly thankful that they are so and earnestly hope that they may in time be adopted in the states to expel these pernicious new-fashioned ones.

Butte 10, Spokane 7.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 20.—With a score of 7 to 3 and the game apparently stowed away, Spokane went up in the air yesterday and allowed Butte to score six runs. Hard hitting by Jack Clynes was the feature. The score:

Butte	2	1	0	0	0	6	0	0	1	—10		9	3
Spokane	1	2	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	—7		5	4

Batteries—Thomas, Gordon and Spencer; Wright and Roberts. Umpire—Carruthers.

Aberdeen 5, Vancouver 4.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Aberdeen, Wash., Aug. 20.—Aberdeen and Vancouver went 12 innings before a large and enthusiastic crowd yesterday, the Champions finally winning, 5 to 4. Vancouver scored three runs in the third on three singles and Flannagan's three-bagger, while Aberdeen got four in the same inning on some hard hitting. Strieb's long hit to left field after Fournier had singled and been sacrificed to second, broke up the game in the twelfth. The score:

Aberdeen	0 0 4 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—5		13	2

RUBE ELLIS AND ZEIDER GO EAST

Angel and Seal Sold to Chicago and Cincinnati—Diamond Gossip.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—It was announced here today that Danny Long, manager of the Seals, has sold Rollie Zeider, the cleverest shortstop in the Pacific Coast league, to Manager Comiskey of the White Sox for three players and a snug little sum to boot.

The deal, which was closed yesterday, ends a lot of dickering for the San Francisco shortstop, who is considered the best fielder in the Pacific Coast league.

The terms of agreement allow Zeider to finish the season with the Seals and give Long the right to state what kind of players he wants, when the time for delivery rolls around next spring.

• •

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 20.—Manager Berry of the Los Angeles team today announced that "Rube" Ellis, his fast left fielder, had been sold to the Cincinnati National league team. Ellis will finish the season here.

Outfielder Lewis of the Waterloo team of the Iowa league, will probably fill Ellis' place here next season.

A new umpire may be added to the coast league this week. T. F. Lane is announced for a tryout and the double system may be inaugurated when President Cal Ewing arrives.

• •

Although several coast league magnates have had their eyes on John Flanagan, the hard hitting Vancouver outfielder, none will get him. Flanagan has been sold to the Chicago White Sox for $1,500, with the provision that he will not have to report until the close of the Northwestern league season.

Flanagan is the second Canuck to be sold to the majors, Ham Hyatt having been purchased by Pittsburg at the same price. Pretty good bargaining by Manager Dickson.

• •

Down south they like Rose, the new pitcher on the Beaver staff. They say the Texan has wonderful control and point to the fact that he pitched that 15-inning game against the Angels without walking a man. Killifer, Frisco's new catcher, says that Rose had better control than any man in the Texas league this summer. Let's hope that he is another Garret or Sutor.

• •

Jimmy Smith, the ex-Oaklander, is wearing a Cy Moreing uniform. Cy bought him from Santa Cruz.

• •

Manager Long has purchased Pitcher Berger from the Ottumwa club of the Central association. He will report in Los Angeles.

• •

Kid Mohler intends to use Outfielder Peck in the box every once in awhile. Peck won four games out of five for Bloomington last spring. But he was too sweet a hitter to keep in the box.

• •

Pitcher Bill Burns of Washington says that his old teammate, Dolly Gray, is a better pitcher than himself. The Washington papers are making much over Dolly's acquisition. They expect him to make good from the jump.

HISTORY MAKING

The history of piano building reveals the fact that to Jonas Chickering belongs the credit of establishing the principles upon which the American piano of today is constructed. No manufacturer can with any truth claim greater results in the development of the piano than that of Chickering & Sons.

The present construction of the Chickering piano results in a degree of excellence that conquers all competition. Chickering pianos bring to their lovers every attribute of a perfect instrument.

Everybody likes to know that he owns the "very best" that can be had, and to know this the piano must be a Chickering.

The Chickering always was—made since 1823—and is today the "very best." If you would have none but the "very best" in grand or upright, and know you own the "very best" that can be had, then you must own a Chickering.

At the Eilers Piano House warerooms, 353 Washington st., will be found a complete exhibition of all latest models Chickerings Grands and uprights.

Crack Pacing Stallion With Future

Here is the phenomenal four-year-old stallion, Ken West, owned by W. L. Whitmore and now being prepared for the show ring at the Pacific national meet here next month. This colt has already paced a mile in 2:05¼ after only a few weeks work, the first half being in 1:05, and the second in 1:01¼. The last quarter was done in 31.

He negotiated his first tryout mile of the season in 2:15¼.

Ken West is being worked at the Walla Walla track and his trainer, Mr. Hogoboom, has written to the livestock show people here that this stallion with a little more work should become a two-minute performer. His sire is The Commonwealth with a mark of 2:14 but has worked much faster. His dam, Mollie Vaughn, has produced Hallie Hinges, 2:18, and is by Antrim, sire of Angelia, 2:08¾, and sire of the dams of Vision, 2:09¾, General Heiertus, 2:12¼, and others. The Commonwealth, his sire, is by Shadeland Onward, sire of Online, 2:04, Ontonian 2:07¼, Mabie Onward, 2:09¾, and sired K., 2:09¾.

Besides his excellent breeding and natural speed Ken West is a magnificent individual. He is not entered in any of the big events but may appear in an exhibition mile during the races here.

Horsemen generally regard him as a likely rival for Mona Wilkes, who has only recently broken all coast pacing records with a mark of 2:03¾.
