Auto Goes in Ditch.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)
The Dalles, Or., Aug. 20—Arthur Schilling and "Tink" Barger were the victims of an auto accident yesterday evening, when the machine in which they were riding went into the ditch on account of the steering gear breaking down. Both men were thrown out, but outside of being bruised and badly

TAFT SIDESTEPS CHANCE TO MEDDLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)
Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 20—William S. Edwards of Charlottesville, Va. came here today to invite Taft to make a trip to a mountain resort 20 miles from here and meet a number of prominent West Virginians and get acquainted. Taft at once accented trouble, fearing if he went it would be said that he favored one of the warring factions of the Republican party in West Virginia, is rigidly enforced.

CLATSOP SALOONS RECEIVE MANDATE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)
Astoria, Or., Aug. 20—Howard M. Brewster, deputy prosecuting attorney, yesterday served written notices on every saloonkeeper in Clatsop county that the Sunday closing law must be observed and that it will be the policy of his office to see that the Sunday law is rigidly enforced.

M'KINLAY TO MAKE TALKS FOR TAFT

(United Press Special Wire)
San Francisco, Aug. 20—Congressman Duncan E. McKinlay of California, on his way east today to take the stump in Vermont and Maine for the Taft campaign. His work will be preliminary to the primary elections which will take place in those states soon. McKinlay's speech, it is understood will be a repetition of his address, entitled "Taft in the Philippines," which he delivered before the "Chautauque" two months ago, and which was favorably received. The congressman accompanied Taft on his trip to the islands and is conversant with the candidate's work there.
