INDIANA WAITS FOR MR. BRYAN

His Speech on Trusts to Be Feature of Kern Notification Tomorrow.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 24.—A delegation of prominent Democrats of this city today awaits the arrival of William J. Bryan and Theodore A. Bell of California, both of whom are expected in connection with the notification tomorrow of John W. Kern, the Democratic nominee. Bell will make the formal notification speech and Bryan is expected to deliver an address on trusts, which will be one of the principal speeches of his campaign. The ceremonies will be held in the large auditorium at the state fair grounds and preparations have been made to seat thousands of auditors. Hundreds are arriving here today from all parts of Indiana and from nearby states.

Men who will be prominent in the notification of Mr. Kern began to arrive in the city today. With the exception of a few finishing touches everything is in readiness for tomorrow's exercises. Indianapolis, in holiday dress for the occasion, is preparing to entertain a large number of visitors.

The program provides that all the ceremonies of notification shall take place at the state fair grounds, in the daytime, and that there will be no downtown demonstration and no street parade. Nevertheless, it is expected that the attendance of numerous Democratic clubs, enthused by the presence in the city of William J. Bryan and a host of prominent party leaders, will result in an impromptu demonstration of some sort tomorrow night. It is hoped that some of the visiting orators may be induced to deliver public speeches.

The notification exercises at the state fair ground will take place in the Coloseum, which is one of the largest and finest amphitheatres in the country. Arrangements are being made to accommodate a crowd of 15,000 people in the huge structure. A speaker's stand has been erected at one end of the building. The stand has been made large enough to afford seating accommodations for the members of the notification committee, the members of the national committee who will be in attendance, and a number of specially invited guests. The notification speech and the address of acceptance by Mr. Kern will be brief in order to give ample time for the delivery of the speech by Mr. Bryan on the subject of trusts, which, of course, will be the chief feature of the program. Mr. Bryan is expected to reach the city early tomorrow morning from Chicago accompanied by National Chairman Mack. Both of the distinguished leaders will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kern while in the city.

CRUISER FLEET OFF FOR SAMOA

Seven Ships, Each With a Destroyer in Tow, Leave San Francisco.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—Exactly at 10:10 o'clock today the signal run up on Rear Admiral William T. Swinburne's flagship, the West Virginia, started seven cruisers of the Pacific fleet and seven torpedo boat destroyers on their summer cruise to the Samoan islands, which will end at Magdalena bay next winter with a battle practice. The cruisers and torpedo boat destroyers were accompanied by the supply ship Solace and the cruiser Buffalo, which go as far as Honolulu with the fleet. They are fully equipped and prepared for any emergency that might arise.

All day yesterday, hundreds of visitors swarmed the big cruisers inspecting them, and today the waterfront was lined with several thousand people who witnessed the departure.

Just after the ships had got outside the harbor they slowed up and each cruiser threw a hawser to a torpedo boat and they started to sea with the little black destroyers in tow. The tow lines are steel cables five inches in diameter. The towing of the destroyers is to be done by way of experiment. If it is successful much coal can be saved.

The vessels that went today are the West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Washington, California and South Dakota. They towed, in the order given, the destroyers, Preble, Stuart, Perry, Hopkins, Hull, Truxton and Whipple.

The Pacific fleet is due at Honolulu September 2. It will leave there September 10 and arrive at Pago Pago September 20. The fleet is to leave Pago Pago September 27 and will arrive at Honolulu on the return trip Octover 7, leaving the same day for San Diego. The fleet will arrive at San Diego October 28 and stay until October 30, when the vessels will leave for Magdalena bay for battle practice. They are due to arrive at Magdalena bay November 1 and will stay until November 30. The fleet will arrive at San Francisco December 24.

MEETING OF FUNNY MEN AT DENVER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Denver, Col., Aug. 24.—As solemn appearing a lot of men as ever attended a convention of funeral directors arrived in Denver today to take part in the sixth annual convention of the American Press Humorists. They are the men who furnish the newspaper laughs, the fellows who hunt the bright side of everything and make it brighter.

The convention will get down to business tomorrow and continue in session through the greater part of the week. Some business is to be transacted, but the most of the time will be given over to entertainment. One of the features will be a public entertainment to aid the fund for a monument to Bill Nye.

The organization of humorists boasts of a large and distinguished membership. Prominent among those whose names appear on the roster, and a number of whom will attend the present gathering, are Mark Twain, Bob Burdette, James Whitcomb Riley, Judd Mortimer Lewis of Houston, and S. E. Kiser of Chicago.

INDIANS PROTEST DIPPING OF PONIES

Pendleton, Or., Aug. 24.—Chief No Shirt and a few of his conservative followers among the Umatilla Indians, are vigorously protesting to the Indian commissioner against the dipping of their ponies for the mange by the federal authorities through the bureau of animal industry in charge of Dr. S. W. McClure of this city. The ponies are badly affected with the disease and orders have been sent out to dip all of them near the old agency three miles east of this city. However, No Shirt, Umapine, Amos Pond, Poker Jim and a few others are making a vigorous protest and have employed Bert Huffman, editor of the East Oregonian of this city to take the matter up with the Indian commissioner to have the order modified.

Budweiser,

The most popular beer in the world. There is less profit to the dealer who sells it, because it costs most at the brewery, yet its sales exceed those of all other bottled beer, which proves that its superiority is recognized everywhere.

FITZGERALD MAY BE BILL THIEF

Arrest Follows Investigation of Discharged Sub-Treasury Man.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Chicago, Aug. 24.—George W. Fitzgerald, formerly assorting teller of the United States subtreasury under Assistant Treasurer William Boldenweck, appeared before Judge Chetlain today to answer to the charge of having stolen $173,000 from the subtreasury a year ago last February. The case was postponed until next Monday and Fitzgerald was released on $10,000 bond.

Edward R. Litzinger, formerly a candidate for the office of state's attorney, represented the prisoner. He stated today that he had no doubt his client would be declared innocent. His friends, says Litzinger, will stand by the accused man to the last.

The secret service men who made the arrest claim to have solved the mystery that baffled the government agents for over a year. They were led by Herbert F. Young, a former newspaper man, who was employed by Boldenweck.

Young claims to have evidence that the accused teller tried to make arrangements with several prominent business men to pass some of the thousand-dollar bills which were in the package of stolen money.

Sixty Greeks Fired.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

La Grande, Or., Aug. 24.—Sixty Greek laborers who have been employed in unloading storage coal for the O. R. & N. company at this place, were summarily discharged last night because of their unfitness for the work. They have scattered out into the harvest fields of the valley where they hope to find work.

WEATHER REPORT

A trough of low pressure extends from British Columbia along the west slope of the Rocky mountains south to Arizona; over this territory the weather is unsettled, and light rain has fallen at scattered places in Oregon and Washington. A small high pressure area is central off the Oregon coast, and a large high pressure area is central over the lake region. The barometer is relatively low over the south Atlantic and gulf states, and rain, heavy in places, has occurred in that section. The temperatures are nearly normal east of the Rocky mountains, but it is warmer than usual in the northern portion of the inter-mountain region, and slightly cooler than usual in California, the Willamette valley and the sound country.

The indications are for showers tonight or Tuesday in northern Oregon, Washington and nothern Idaho. It will be cooler tonight in northeastern Washington and northern Idaho, and warmer Tuesday in the interior of western Oregon and western Washington.
