Nearly 300 people spent Saturday afternoon at the site of the new manufacturing town of Gordon Falls, 29 miles east of Portland on the line of the O. R. & N. A special excursion train left the Union depot at 1:30, arriving at the Falls at 3 o'clock. Escorted by Messrs. Coopey and Peaslee of the Gordon Falls company, the visitors inspected the sites of the proposed new woolen mills, scouring plant and power house. A trip was made up through the canyon of the falls which the company proposes for power generating purposes. The formal opening of the manufacturing town was celebrated by raising a flag, Colonel Roberat A. Miller of Oregon City making the principal address. At the conclusion of the ceremony and speechmaking, refreshments were served. The party, consisting of prominent business and professional men, some of whom were accompanied by their wives, started on the return trip at 6 o'clock, arriving in Portland at 7:30.

After the matinee and before the evening performance of the Orpheum theatre yesterday, the artists who have entertained the public the last week and maintained the reputation of the Orpheum circuit, were entertained at dinner by J. W. Considine at the Oregon hotel. The occasion marked the end of the opening week of the new circuit in Portland. The resident manager, C. N. Sutton; James H. Erickson, Frank Coffinberry, press representative, and George L. Baker, chairman of the Portland Theatrical Managers' association, greeted the members of the profession who had taken part in the first week's program. The dinner was elaborate, beginning at 5 o'clock, and during the coffee and cigars several pretty little speeches were made.

Irving R. Larimore, the 10-year-old son of Q. W. Larimore, died Saturday night at the family home, 467 East Grant street. He had been ill for six months. He was the son of the physical director of the Y. M. C. A. and had always been active in the boys' athletic sports. The family came to Portland last September. The funeral took place this morning from Holman's chapel and the interment was at Riverview cemetery. Dr. Benjamin Young of the Taylor street M. E. church officiated.

A special meeting of the water board was held this morning and awarded the contract for painting the pipeline bridges to M. D. Howse for $927. There are three bridges aggregating about 600 feet in length, besides a number of valve boxes. Other bids were received as follows: Damme Brothers $1,238, and Thomas J. Wilson $1,559. Howse agrees to have the work completed within 60 days and will be required to furnish a bond in the full amount of the contract to guarantee the work.

With one lookout standing at the entrance of the police to give warning of any approaching raid and other lookouts in front of their own building, 15 Chinese started a social game of fan tan last night at 80 Second street, diagonally across the street from the police station. The nearest lookout kept eyeing the door and this made the officers on station duty suspicious. The gamblers were nabbed by a quick rush. Released on $20 bail each, they will be heard Saturday.

The detective department has taken a census of the inmates of the disreputable houses in the Japanese quarter. The number of women was found to be smaller than expected. This is believed to be due largely to the vigilance of the immigration officials in keeping out Japanese women brought to this country for immoral purposes. The Chinese dens will not be entered during the canvass, the police considering this a separate problem.

Fred Meyers believes he owns a wireless telegraph system. He was talking to himself about it when Patrolman Harms found him at Park and Washington last evening. Meyers grew violent when the officer suggested a walk to headquarters and had to be thrown to the sidewalk and held there until he quieted down. His sanity will be examined today.

The largest man in Oregon was brought into the police station Saturday night in a state of collapse. He was not drunk, however, as the officers first thought, but evidently very sick. The man, who says his name is Nutt, believes he has appendicitis. He was sent to the hospital.

General Freight Agent Richard B. Miller and Assistant General Freight Agent Wilber E. Coman of the Harriman lines in Oregon have gone to Chicago to attend a committee meeting of freight men of the transcontinental lines. They left yesterday and will be in the east about 10 days.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks or washing porches or windows must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 5 and 8 a. m. and 5 and 9 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules or wastefully it will be shut off.

Rev. Harry Leeds of Payette, Ida., has accepted the call from the Mizpah Presbyterian church and will assume his duties here September 6. Mr. Leeds comes with excellent recommendations. Dr. Jerome R. McGlade, the former pastor, is traveling abroad for a year with his wife and child.

Rev. James D. Corby, pastor of the First Universalist Church of Good Tidings, East Couch and East Eighth streets, has recovered from a serious operation which has confined him for some time at the hospital and yesterday was able to resume the place in his pulpit.

W. M. Ladd, administrator of the A. H. Johnson estate, has sold the Yamhill county property under order of the county court, but will continue to receive bids for the properties in Multnomah and Washington counties until August 25, 1908.

Patrolmen Anundson and Swennes found the back door of W. Thompson's saloon, 49 North First, open last evening, but as there was no one in the saloon drinking at the time Thompson was discharged by Judge Van Zante today.

L. Passa and Pol Nek, two vendors of "hokey-pokey," were arrested last night in the north end for selling their cooling wares without a license. Passa forfeited his bail, but Nek will be heard tomorrow.

MAYOR LANE WILL ATTEND REGATTA

Several Members of Council Will Also Accept Astoria's Invitation.

Mayor Lane and many councilmen are endeavoring to adjust their business affairs to enable them to attend the regatta at Astoria this week. The mayor, council and executive board received invitations to attend the great naval event and accepted them. Unlike most acceptances of this kind the city officials want to accept in action as well as spirit in the present case and it is expected that there will be a great exodus from the city hall on the first day of the regatta.

The mayor stated this morning that he thought he would be able to get away for one day at least and it is known that quite a number of councilmen will be present. Councilman Baker said that he would be unable to attend, being called to Seattle, which will also keep him away from Monday's council meeting. Others, however, have made up parties to go to Astoria and it is thought that there will be a great representation of Portland officials at the annual water event.

Admiral George S. Shepherd endeavored to have the city officials charter a steamer for the trip and make their visit an official one but it is unlikely that this will occur because most of the officials wish to make the trip as informal as possible, which would be precluded if Shepherd's plan were adopted.

GREAT CONGREGATION ATTENDS DEDICATION

The new Swedish Evangelical Augustana Lutheran church, Stanton street and Rodney avenue, was dedicated yesterday afternoon in the presence of a congregation that completely filled the edifice.

Rev. N. J. W. Nelson of Moscow, Idaho, president of the Columbia conference, preached the dedication sermon and Pastor Carl A. Tolin was assisted in the services by several of the following ministers present: Rev. C. J. Cornell, Braddock, Pa.; Rev. C. J. Renhard, Rev. J. A. Leas, Rev. A. Scott, Portland; Rev. W. S. Draha, Vancouver, Wash.; Rev. E. C. Nystrom, Hawkinson, Wash.; Rev. R. F. Bengtson, Marshfield. Mrs. C. W. Lindborg sang a solo and the choir rendered several numbers. The offering in the afternoon amounted to $122. It was turned over to the building fund.

ANNUAL EXCURSION.

Employes of Eilers Piano House Enjoy an Outing.

The annual excursion of the employes of Eilers Piano house took place yesterday at Eilers' landing a few miles above Oregon City. The steamer Leona was chartered for the trip and left Portland yesterday morning with about 100 of the devotees of music and song. The weather was ideal for such an outing and the merry makers made the most of it. On the boat there was every provision for the comfort and entertainment of the guests. A player piano, a band organ, and a large phonograph did double duty on this occasion. On the return trip the deck was cleared and dancing was indulged in for a while. At the Eilers homestead a magnificent fruit and grain farm of over 200 acres, there was a number of pleasant features prearranged for the visitors. In the ball game between the single and married men the honors were easily carried away by the latter. One well-known musical critic suggested that the younger nine would probably make better peanuckle or ping pong players than league professionals. The fat women's race was won by Miss Arline Sharp. Lunch was served on long tables under a grape arbor said to be over 50 years old. There were several happy responses to impromptu toasts, and all voted the Eilers the most genial of hosts.

Any man is apt to feel all run down after his neighbors get through discussing him.

VOUCHED FOR BY GAY LOMBARD

Elder Said to Be Proper Man to Run Saloon—Conrad Out of It.

When the liquor license committee meets this afternoon the members will have an opportunity to take final action in the Conrad case, which has haunted the committee like a grim specter for many months. Papers were filed with the city auditor today in which F. X. A. Bouthillier transfers all rights to the lease and license for the board of trade saloon to C. D. Elder and John W. Conrad filed papers selling all fixtures in the building to Elder.

On the face of it these papers would indicate that Conrad had retained an interest in the Board of Trade saloon, although he denies it, and that the papers were simply filed to assure the councilmen that the sales and transfers were bonafide and that neither Conrad or Bouthillier were involved in the new saloon.

Accompanying the papers was a letter from Gay Lombard, president of the board of trade, in which he said that he had made a full investigation of the matter and that Elder will be the sole proprietor of the place and further that Elder is a man of good character.

Conrad maintains that he had no interest in the Board of Trade saloon other than to sell his fixtures to Bouthillier and that he would have nothing to do with the saloon had the transfer been made to Bouthillier. The latter has been endeavoring for weeks to have the council transfer the license to him but his action today indicates that he has given up the fight and will seek to engage in business elsewhere.

It is expected in view of the conditions that the committee will grant the transfer to Elder and end the controversy which has disrupted the council for months.

THE PLAY

The season for the Ervin Blunkall Stock company at the Lyric theatre was opened yesterday afternoon with a performance of the melodrama, "The Confessions of a Wife." The first performance was a most successful one and the house was crowded both yesterday afternoon and last night. Among the old favorites who are still with the company are Warda Howard who has been well received in the past as a leading woman and Ervin Blunkall, the leading man and manager. Dorothy Davis, who was with the French Stock company at the Star last season and who is a melodramatic actress of experience, Mamie Haslam, who was with the Baker company last season, and Lillian Griffith, a member of former Lyric companies, were among the better known actresses who appeared with the company yesterday. Among the new people are Allen Lewis, Ellet Heazlit and Erman Seavey, and all seemed to please their audience.

AT THE THEATRES

Orpheum New Show Bill.

The new bill for the second week of the Orpheum theatre begins with matinee today. "A Night on a Houseboat," by Jessie L. Lasky, is featured and when the 11 performers all get busy in that boat pandemonium reigns. "Sweethearts," by Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Connelly, is the little playlet that entertained the people of London 130 consecutive nights at the Prince of Wales theatre.

Flying Gymnasts.

The Bottomly Troupe of Flying Gymnasts opened at the Pantages matinee today. Their act was a genuine surprise to the patrons of the house. It is absolutely one of the greatest aerial acts in America today. The Wangdoodle Quartet of comical coons kept the audience in roars of laughter.

"The Teddy Girls" at Oaks.

A better, brighter or prettier show could not have been selected as a successor to Chow Chow than the one to be put on by the Allen Curtis tonight, "The Teddy Girls." Beautiful costumes just received from New York will make the chorus bewildering in the myriad lights. The songs will prove the greatest hit of the year.

"The Confessions of a Wife."

A capacity audience greeted the new Blunkall stock company which opened yesterday afternoon at the Lyric. "The Confessions of a Wife" is a stirring melodrama in five acts by Owen Davis, and is full of heart interest. Particularly striking is the confessional of the wife (Warda Howard) in the first act.

New Grand Bill.

There will be a series of first-class vaudeville stars on the new program at the Grand, which starts today. Barney Fagan and Miss Henrietta Byron, the singing and dancing headliners, will have the place of honor and will be surrounded by one of the strongest vaudeville shows Sullivan & Considine have sent to the Pacific coast.

Building Permits.

Lawson & Gordon, erect two dwellings, East Sixteenth, corner Schuyler, $2,000 each.

CIRCUS PARADE TOMORROW

Barnum and Bailey Promise to Exceed All Former Efforts.

The Barnum and Bailey circus parade will leave the show grounds, Twenty-fifth and Raleigh streets, Tuesday morning at 9:30, moving east on Overton street to Twentieth street, south on Twentieth street to Washington street, east on Washington street to Fifth street, south on Fifth street to Taylor street, east on Taylor street to Third street, north on Third street to Everett street, west on Everett to Seventeenth street, north on Seventeenth street to Overton, thence to circus lot.

There will be no parade on Wednesday morning. A down town ticket office will be opened at Graves' Music Store.

The performances of the Barnum and Bailey greatest show on earth, announced for tomorrow and Wednesday, will, it is said, surpass in point of magnitude and excellence all previous achievements of this mammoth combination, embodying in amusement undertaking of a modern and colossal character, in keeping with the progressive spirit of the times. Among the principal features are: Wormwood's trained bears, a distinct novelty in the way of performing animals displaying a theatrical instinct bordering on the wierd, the 10 Viennese, European acrobats, an exhibition of nerve, originality and inventive genius; the four Fassios, the sensation of Europe, in their equilibristic feats and wonderful balancing act on their stairway, the flying Fishers, the four fearless Lacins, the Navarro troupe of high-wire experts; Mary and Petrof, presenting a novel pony, dog and donkey circus, the three Menstons, in a Parisian pontomime specialty introducing clown monkeys and dogs; Robert Dohn, the herculean giant, who lifts an automobile in his teeth, Nettie Carroll, golden wire artiste, the Yamakotas, a group of marvelous Japanese entertainers, the Florenze troupe of European acrobats; the Lima sisters in bird-like flights on the triple aerial trapeze, the eight Dollars in acrobatic novelties; Orrin and Victoria Davenport, Parisian equestrians, Robert Stickney Jr., the world's champion bareback rider, the Fredinnis, in their sensational equestrian act. More than usual attention has been paid to the organization of the company of clowns which the management proposes to make a specialty feature of this season's performance.

"Autos That Pass in the Air" will furnish one of the sensational acts of the performance. This is described in the following manner: Two racing machines are driven down steep inclines by two young French women. At a point where a collision appears unavoidable, one machine glides gracefully upward, making a complete somersault in mid-air, while the other auto leaps the yawning gap, landing upon a platform run way suspended upon giant springs, thus minimizing the force of the impact. The new "Terrorizer," and it is said to merit this name, is the invention of two French scientific engineers, who have worked for two years studying the fractional parts of weight and velocity in order to have the two machines pass at the exact fraction of a second in order to avoid crashing.

The Barnum and Bailey management promises a great treat in their free street parade, which they claim represents an outlay of $2,000,000. Forty elephants, as many camels, 500 beautiful horses, untold numbers of rare wild animals in cages arranged so that the public will be able to view the marvels of forest and jungle. Elaborate allegorical floats, many bands of music and 1,000 men and women all combine in forming a street pageant which it will be a pity to miss, so start early with the little folks.

THE LAZIEST MAN IN THE WORLD
