

POT PRISON ON LICENSES

Councilman Wills' New Ordinance Would Eliminate All Speculation in Saloon Permits—38 Out of 87 Owned by One Brewery.

An ordinance which will do away with all speculation in liquor licenses was introduced by Councilman Wills yesterday by request and referred to the liquor license committee.

At the present time licenses in the Rose City have a market value of from $200 to $250, while in Los Angeles, where there are but 200 saloons, the price is between $1,000 and $3,000.

Councilman Wills said that at the time Paul Weisinger of the Weinhard brewery that to curtail the saloon district as outlined by the brewers would eventually lead to an increase in the price of licenses and that the brewers would be making money by trafficking in city business.

The ordinance introduced by Wills yesterday is as follows: "Section 1. Every person granted a liquor license by the city of Portland shall be the actual owner of and shall conduct the business authorized by such license in his own name and not otherwise, and shall in no manner encumber, hypothecate or assign the same except by permission of the city council, and shall not cause or permit any person to conduct such business except such person or persons as are actually employed by him as servants."

ASKS COURT TO SEVER HER BONDS

As a preliminary to the final chapter of her love affair Anna S. Williams, the little Denver schoolman who married Pearl R. Williams, a Portland real estate man, only to find that he had another wife living and undivorced, this morning filed suit in the circuit court asking for an annulment of her marriage.

Williams is in the county jail serving a term for polygamy. It is probable he will make no defense to the annulment proceedings. He pleaded guilty to the polygamy in Colorado, and after having worked from Portland to Coos Bay in an effort to escape arrest, Mrs. Williams met him in Portland and he sent for her to come to Portland January 11 of this year. They were married at Elma, Wash., and came to Portland to live. In February, 1907, Mrs. Williams learned that her husband had another wife living in Ohio named Cora Ware Ribben. She asked the district attorney to look the case up, and Ribben was traced to Marshfield and arrested.

NO TROUBLE TO ENFORCE FISH LAW

Master Fish Warden B. C. McAllister returned this morning from a trip to the upper Snake river country, going as far as Ontario, where he inspected the fish hatchery at that point. Mr. McAllister leaves this afternoon for Astoria and the lower river, where he goes to look after the enforcement of the closed season, which began last Tuesday and expires September 1. No trouble is anticipated in enforcing the present closed season, as the Columbia river fishermen in both Oregon and Washington, the laws being enforced, have always strictly observed the statute.

WESTERN DEMOCRATS AT HEADQUARTERS

Chicago, Aug. 27.—National Democratic headquarters was visited today by Nathan Cole of Los Angeles, Frank Le Baker of Logan, Utah, and National Committeeman A. A. Jones of Las Vegas, N. M. Each of the visitors reported that the Democratic campaign is being conducted under favorable conditions in their respective localities.

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA Swollen glands about the neck, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, running sores and ulcers, skin diseases, and general poor health, are the usual ways in which Scrofula is manifested. The disease being deeply entrenched in the blood often attacks the bones, resulting in White Swelling, or hip disease, and the scrofulous and tubercular matter so thoroughly destroys the healthful properties of the blood that Scrofula sometimes terminates in consumption, an incurable disease. The entire circulation being contaminated, the only way to cure the trouble is to thoroughly purify the blood and restore the circulation to a strong, healthy state. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula; it renovates the entire blood supply and drives out the scrofulous and tubercular deposits. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and it not only goes right down to the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause, but it supplies the weak, diseased blood with the healthful properties it is in need of, and in this way builds up weak, frail, scrofulous persons and makes them strong and healthy. S. S. S. is a gentle, safe, vegetable preparation and is suited for persons of any age. Book on the blood containing information about Scrofula and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

QUEEN HATTIE CROWNED; ASTORIA'S REGATTA OPENS CRUSADE AGAINST WHITE SLAVE TRADE IS BEGUN

(By a Staff Correspondent) ASTORIA, OREGON, Aug. 27.—Queen Hattie was crowned by Admiral George Shepley.

Lord of Portland shortly before noon today and the fourteenth annual regatta is now on. The coronation was attended by appropriate ceremonies in the presence of thousands of people.

The regatta opened with good weather, although during the night and in the early morning it rained copiously. But the rain laid the dust and conditions are now considered ideal. Toward noon the sun came out bright and clear and the temperature is cool and delightful.

Thousands of people assembled in the city last night and the train this morning augmented the forces. The crowds are being well taken care of. Many came from the beaches. The Mayor, Wise of Astoria and Mayor Lane of Portland participated. Mayor Wise delivering to her the keys of the regatta city, and Mayor Lane extending the same courtesy from the city of Portland. It was an auspicious occasion for Mayor Wise, because Queen Hattie is the chief executive's eldest daughter.

He spoke as follows: "Hattie is given to few men to be honored as I feel honored today, to be privileged to tender the key of the city of her birth to a sovereign who has already long ago unlocked the innermost recesses of my heart. In years gone by I learned to fathom your majesty's every wish. To make you happy was then, is now and always shall be my most sacred duty. I have labored day by day that contentment might be yours. In my dreams I saw only your future greatness. No queen ever had a more devoted subject; this I can swear. It was to have the pleasure to see you elevated as you are today to bring you my fellow citizens' respect, that I planned, worked and endured much."

"Let the future be to me whatever fate decrees, I shall henceforth and forever be most grateful to God Almighty and the good people living here, because I am privileged to call you Queen Hattie, my Queen Hattie."

"And then too, I can assure you that all of the people who respect American womanhood—who ask no favors, except that their daughters be honored and respected—I say all of these people join me in assuring you of their loyalty and affection, coupled with the hope that your reign may prove a most happy one to yourself and to all of the people."

"An innovation in beginning the coronation ceremonies was when the flag-ship Heather, Captain Byrnes, pulled to the grandstand wharf. The sailors from the British ship Donna Francis, gave real sailors' chauties."

This afternoon the big parade is taking place. It will be elaborate aquatic sports and races are also on the afternoon program.

Little gay Paree—that is, the denizens of the underworld—had its morning slumbers disturbed today.

The hearing of Armand Percot and Madam Henriette Van Drans, arrested several days ago by the immigration officials on a charge of harboring alien women, was begun before United States Commissioner A. M. Cannon this morning and brought out many of the friends of the accused.

This is the first case of the kind to be started in this district. The principal witness for the government is Jeanne Monot Jeanne, it seems, has been here about 22 months to the best of her recollection. But Jeanne is uneducated—uneducated, that is, when it comes to handling the English language. She speaks a French interpreter were necessary.

With cute little shrugs of the shoulders and all that sort of thing Jeanne bewails the witness stand and answered the questions that were asked her by the attorneys for both sides. Little Jeanne's eyes were red and it was evident that she had been crying. Jeanne said that she had first come to the United States about five years ago, having come from France where she was deported by the government officials after awhile, sent home stayed a month and then came to Portland.

Jeanne's life in the underworld began so long ago, it seems, that she has forgotten just when she did leave the straight and narrow path. And Jeanne is only 26 years old. That is, she said she was not quite 27 as yet. But in spite of all her blase manners and her attitude toward the law, she has a pair of bright blue eyes and a pair of bright red lips. Jeanne hesitated somewhat when asked her age by United States district Attorney John McCourt.

James Wade was given such a lecture by Acting Judge Sweet this morning that he did not realize he was free to go where he would, and so tried to get into the detention pen for prisoners in the courtroom again.

Wade arrived in the city from Seattle yesterday morning and lost no time in announcing to the underworld his intention of celebrating. He wound up in the public station.

Wade said he had no right to get drunk in this city, said Judge Sweet. "You cannot do so without harming other people. If you were out in the fields or the woods it would be different, but in the city you always injure others when you drink too much. You are in Portland this time, but you must not do it again."

The Seattle man wasn't sure what had happened to him. He stood stock still staring at the judge until Sheriff Casey started him toward the door to freedom. But even that was not enough. He hurried from the path to the locked door to the prisoners' pen. He had come out of that door and into it again. But Sheriff Riley took a hand and finally Wade was shown how to get downstairs, to receive his valuables and make his escape.

Attracted by the reports of Portland attorney delegates to the meeting of the American Bar association in session in Seattle, a large delegation of representative lawyers from all over the United States will arrive in Portland this morning and spend the day in sight-seeing. Their entertainment, Attorney Henry Harrison of Portland, Charles J. Schnabel and W. W. Cotton composing the committee having the matter in charge. The delegates will be given an automobile ride Monday morning, when all points of interest about the city will be visited, including a ride along the skyline road and up to Council Crest. Luncheon will be served at the Commercial club, and in the evening many of the visitors will be entertained at the private homes of several Portland lawyers.

The committee in charge of the arrangements committee has information that the party will consist of 40 to 50 members, among whom will be some of the most prominent lawyers in the country.

Edwin Wheeler, the lessee of the rooms at 409 Stark street where Wheeler and three others were found early Wednesday morning with opium smoke in the air, pleaded guilty to a charge of keeping an opium joint in the municipal court this morning and was assessed a fine of $20 by Acting Judge Sweet.

Harry O. Grow, Max Roberts and Joseph Thomas, the others caught in the raid of the uptown poppy palace, were fined $25 each.

The police had been aware of the existence of the den only a short time when the raid was made, and as one of the four persons arraigned today were caught, the work of identifying other frequenters of Wheeler's joint is difficult.

Rosa E. Steward has instituted suit in the circuit court for divorce from her husband, Clyde B. Steward. They were married in Portland on July 2, 1907, but their wedded bliss was not of long duration, as Mrs. Steward alleges in her complaint that he has deserted her for more than a year and refuses to contribute to her support. She asks the court to allow her to resume her maiden name of Rosa E. Borden.

The Teddy Girl at the Oaks. If you have not visited the Oaks this week you have missed one of the best treats of the season. The Teddy Girl is about the best ever, and the songs and chorus are worth a huge admission price. The chorus with its beautiful voice, is a gem in a spectacular production to the eye.

Cameron Opera Company. The best sale opened at the Baker this morning for the most attractive of the season. Grace Cameron and the Cameron opera company in "Little Dolly Tim" which opens Monday night, is the best box office force of the Baker were numbered among the busiest people in town all day.

"The Confessions of a Wife." Lyric patrons are crowding the streets every evening to witness the thrilling melodrama, "The Confessions of a Wife," which is being played by the popular Blunk stock company. Wanda Howard is one of the most versatile of the young leading women today.

Fun at Pantages. The Wandoo Quartet of six blacked Americans from Dixie's land, by their hearty and original songs and Pantages patrons of week and the Bottomley troupe of flying gymnasts are putting in a week of the best work of this company has never been duplicated and must be seen to be appreciated.

NEW FREIGHT RATES EFFECTIVE NOVEMBER 1

From November 1 to 15 the new transcontinental tariffs which have been revised under the rules of the interstate commerce commission will go into effect in Oregon and throughout the Pacific coast. There will be few important changes in the rates, but all have been revised so as to conform with the commerce commission rulings.

According to officials of the Harriman lines here, the interstate commerce commission rules are going to prove of material benefit to shippers and railroads alike as soon as they are thoroughly understood. These will enable us to publish out:

Table with columns: FROM, TO, New York and West Coast, New York and East Coast. Rates for various routes like Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and other.

Rates on green fruits other than apples from coast points to all the territories between Colorado and Chicago are $1.25 and to New York $1.50. It is the same for apples from all interior shipping points in Oregon, Washington and Idaho except that the rate from points east of the Cascade mountains to Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri and the Dakotas is $1.25 for 100 pounds.

Will Not Check Competition. The increase in apple rates is made by all the North Pacific coast lines.

The Guiding Star left Portland to company with the yacht Senanox. G. Clark and G. S. Howard are captained by Bernays and Harding took the Senanox at Kalama. Bernays was taken ill and had to get aboard the Senanox at Kalama. Bernays, Clark and Harding took the Guiding Star, she being easier to handle. The Senanox left in sight of each other at Oak Point. That was Monday. After a brisk sail down from Portland, the Senanox left the Guiding Star behind and heading has been heard from the Star since. All other boats in the Portland harbor have arrived, after a long stay.

Harding's friends while worrying over the non-appearance of the boat, feel that he will show up all right in a course of time, since he is an excellent sailor.

SAYS HIS NERVOUS SYSTEM WAS SHOCKED. William O'Donnell, a local attorney and timber dealer, has brought suit against the Portland Railway Light & Power company for $20,000 damages for injuries which he alleges he sustained by being hit by a streetcar February 6 last.

O'Donnell in his complaint alleges that on the date mentioned, while he was crossing Moreland street at the intersection with Park street, after having carefully looked and listened for a car, an omnibus car came around the corner at a reckless rate of speed and with a warning bell, and struck him, throwing him up against a telephone pole. He sustained injuries consisting of bruises to his head, shoulder and knee, which, together with the shock to his nervous system, he thinks would entitle him to $20,000 of the streetcar company's money.

Death Roll of the Northwest

George M. Perkins. (Special Dispatch to The Journal) La Fayette, Ore., Aug. 27.—George M. Perkins, 44 years of age, one of the best-known residents of Yamhill county, died at his home here yesterday.

He is survived by a father, two brothers, Z. E. of La Fayette, and Delman of Carlton, and three sisters, Mrs. J. J. Cory, Mrs. J. J. Hembree of La Fayette, and Mrs. L. N. Hembree of Portland. The remains were interred in the Masonic cemetery at La Fayette today.

Samuel McCafferty. Stevenson, Wash., Aug. 27.—Samuel McCafferty, 43 years of age, proprietor of the Hotel Stevens, died at his home here Tuesday.

He leaves a wife and four children.

Habitual Constipation

May be permanently overcome by proper personal efforts with the assistance of the one truly beneficial laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which enables one to form regular habits daily, so that assistance to nature may be gradually dispensed with when no longer needed as the best of remedies, when required, are to assist nature and not to supplant the natural functions, which must depend ultimately upon proper nourishment, proper efforts and right living generally.

Get its beneficial effects, always by the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. ONLY SOLD BY ALL LEADING DRUGGISTS. Size one only, regular price 50¢ per Bottle.

FIFTIETH YEAR St. Mary's Academy and College PORTLAND, OREGON

Boarding and Day School for Girls and Young Women. Conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary. Resident students received September 8. Preparatory and grammar departments open September 9. Commercial, academic and collegiate departments open September 10. Catalogue sent upon request.

JUDGE SWETT LECTURED SO HARD THAT PRISONER WAS DAZED

James Wade was given such a lecture by Acting Judge Sweet this morning that he did not realize he was free to go where he would, and so tried to get into the detention pen for prisoners in the courtroom again.

Wade arrived in the city from Seattle yesterday morning and lost no time in announcing to the underworld his intention of celebrating. He wound up in the public station.

Wade said he had no right to get drunk in this city, said Judge Sweet. "You cannot do so without harming other people. If you were out in the fields or the woods it would be different, but in the city you always injure others when you drink too much. You are in Portland this time, but you must not do it again."

The Seattle man wasn't sure what had happened to him. He stood stock still staring at the judge until Sheriff Casey started him toward the door to freedom. But even that was not enough. He hurried from the path to the locked door to the prisoners' pen. He had come out of that door and into it again. But Sheriff Riley took a hand and finally Wade was shown how to get downstairs, to receive his valuables and make his escape.

TOOK OATH THAT WOMAN WAS WIFE

As shown by the court records of Multnomah county, T. S. Stevens has testified under oath three times that Louise Powell-Stevens was his wife. Although the statute of limitations would preclude the prosecution of Mr. Stevens in case it is shown that he never married Louise Powell, with whom he lived for 16 years, friends of the first Mrs. Stevens contend that he never committed perjury either then or now.

In an affidavit taken before W. M. Stevens on September 26, 1906, in connection with the case of Mrs. M. Byrne against Stevens, which was then pending, Mr. Stevens, it is claimed, referred under oath to Louise Powell-Stevens as his wife.

In November of the same year Stevens testified under oath, according to Mrs. Stevens, in the same case, that Louise Powell-Stevens was his wife. Mrs. Stevens was later called as a witness in this case and testified as the defendant's wife.

A judgment was secured against Stevens in this case, but was not collected until January 15, 1907. Byrne brought supplemental proceedings to find out what property Stevens had subject to this claim. Stevens testified that his household consisted of himself, his wife, Louise Stevens and a servant.

Although the statute of limitations forbids prosecution for a crime three years or longer after its commission, yet Mrs. Stevens and her lawyers can show that Stevens testified in court that Mrs. Stevens was his wife and now testifies that she is not. It will be recalled that he has assumed widely varying attitudes on the question, at least.

LAWYERS COMING TO SEE PORTLAND

Attracted by the reports of Portland attorney delegates to the meeting of the American Bar association in session in Seattle, a large delegation of representative lawyers from all over the United States will arrive in Portland this morning and spend the day in sight-seeing. Their entertainment, Attorney Henry Harrison of Portland, Charles J. Schnabel and W. W. Cotton composing the committee having the matter in charge. The delegates will be given an automobile ride Monday morning, when all points of interest about the city will be visited, including a ride along the skyline road and up to Council Crest. Luncheon will be served at the Commercial club, and in the evening many of the visitors will be entertained at the private homes of several Portland lawyers.

The committee in charge of the arrangements committee has information that the party will consist of 40 to 50 members, among whom will be some of the most prominent lawyers in the country.

Edwin Wheeler, the lessee of the rooms at 409 Stark street where Wheeler and three others were found early Wednesday morning with opium smoke in the air, pleaded guilty to a charge of keeping an opium joint in the municipal court this morning and was assessed a fine of $20 by Acting Judge Sweet.

Harry O. Grow, Max Roberts and Joseph Thomas, the others caught in the raid of the uptown poppy palace, were fined $25 each.

The police had been aware of the existence of the den only a short time when the raid was made, and as one of the four persons arraigned today were caught, the work of identifying other frequenters of Wheeler's joint is difficult.

Rosa E. Steward has instituted suit in the circuit court for divorce from her husband, Clyde B. Steward. They were married in Portland on July 2, 1907, but their wedded bliss was not of long duration, as Mrs. Steward alleges in her complaint that he has deserted her for more than a year and refuses to contribute to her support. She asks the court to allow her to resume her maiden name of Rosa E. Borden.

The Teddy Girl at the Oaks. If you have not visited the Oaks this week you have missed one of the best treats of the season. The Teddy Girl is about the best ever, and the songs and chorus are worth a huge admission price. The chorus with its beautiful voice, is a gem in a spectacular production to the eye.

Cameron Opera Company. The best sale opened at the Baker this morning for the most attractive of the season. Grace Cameron and the Cameron opera company in "Little Dolly Tim" which opens Monday night, is the best box office force of the Baker were numbered among the busiest people in town all day.

"The Confessions of a Wife." Lyric patrons are crowding the streets every evening to witness the thrilling melodrama, "The Confessions of a Wife," which is being played by the popular Blunk stock company. Wanda Howard is one of the most versatile of the young leading women today.

Fun at Pantages. The Wandoo Quartet of six blacked Americans from Dixie's land, by their hearty and original songs and Pantages patrons of week and the Bottomley troupe of flying gymnasts are putting in a week of the best work of this company has never been duplicated and must be seen to be appreciated.

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter. Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaints, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

BODY OF WOMAN FOUND IN LAKE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Aug. 27.—The body of a fashionably dressed woman about 25 years of age was found floating in the waters of Lake Michigan at the foot of Fifty-sixth street this afternoon and the police are investigating on the theory of murder.

The young woman had every appearance of a person of wealth and was clad in an elaborate brown tailored dress, brown shoes and stockings. Her hat, which was of latest fashion, was marked inside with the inscription, "Brown & Turner, Richmond, Va." This is supposed to be the firm name of the milliners from whom it was purchased. On a gold watch were the initials, "M. E. M."

REFRIGERATOR CAR SERVICE TO LEWISTON

Owing to the increase in the business between Portland and Lewiston, Idaho, that has taken place since the completion of the Oregon, Washington & Idaho, the "Lewiston cutoff," the O. R. & N. has established a refrigerator car service between Portland and Lewiston and has a regular semi-weekly service for less than carload shipments.

This innovation on the part of the O. R. & N. will give a refrigerator car to Lewiston from Portland every Tuesday and Thursday of each week and will enable shippers of perishable freight to secure what is practically passenger train service between Portland and northern Idaho, via Texas City. The exchange between Portland and Lewiston consists mainly of fruits coming west and of dairy products going east.

NOTORIOUS CON MAN WANTED BY UNCLE SAM

At the request of the government the police have arrested Charles R. Allen. He is said to be wanted in Seattle on a charge of passing counterfeit coin. Allen is known to the police as a smooth confidence man, frequently operating about shooting galleries. The arrest was made by Detectives Heilger and Saloney at First and Madison streets.

$1.00 A WEEK $1.00 WILL DO $1.00 DIAMONDS, WATCHES, JEWELRY AND SILVERWARE SOLD ON EASY PAYMENTS, AND YOU WEAR THE GOODS WHILE PAYING FOR THEM Special Sale on Watches EVERY ARTICLE GUARANTEED Standard Jewelry Store 189 Third Street, Bet. Yamhill and Taylor Opposite Baker Theatre