BEAVERS DROP BELOW SEALS

Ragged Playing Loses Game to Oakland and Puts Frisco Ahead of Locals.

Beneath the climbing Seals the village Beavers stand.
For Mr Hardy twitched a muscle in his mighty hand.
And McCredie's men the welkin biffed
As batter after batter quickly whiffed,
But let us chase away all sorrow
Fall away, Patrick's on the slab tomorrow. A. Non

There were no chances for any hard luck tales in yesterday's game. Portland was simply outclassed in every way. Hardy had the locals completely at his mercy in all but one inning, the eighth, when they gathered in three runs on two consecutive errors by Ash Houston and hits by McCredie and Whaling.

Southpaw Jack Graney had an off day of things, and was hit hard and opportunely. Five safe wallops, four of them in a row, in the fourth inning netted the Oaks three runs, and from then on no one in the crowd ever thought of Portland's winning that game. Hardy was pitching rings around the locals.

Graney started out in great style, striking out Jimmie Cook while Johnson threw out Anderson. Heitmuller, however, gave the fans an inkling of what was going to happen by cracking out a nice single to left. The Oaks didn't do anything particularly damaging, however, until the fourth.

Heitmuller was the first man up in this inning, and he struck out. Eagan sent a pop fly to right, Slattery signed to left and La Longe to center, filling the bases. Ash Houston was up then and the local boy lost his happy and peaceful home here forever by sending Eagan and Slattery home with a nicely placed single over second base. Lewis walked filling the bases again while Hardy struck out. Cook scored La Longe with a single to center, but Houston was out at the plate.

La Longe got as far as third in the next inning on a base on balls, Houston's second single and Raftery's error, but was caught between bases when Lewis missed the ball on a squeeze play. Hardy opened the next inning with a double along the right field foul line and scored when Ote Johnson threw the ball away on Cook's attempted sacrifice.

This certainly seemed enough for the Oaks, but in the eighth they came back with two more on some rotten work by Whaling. Eagan again opened the inning with a single, and took second on a wide throw by the "Busher" to catch him stealing. Slattery singled to center, scoring Truck, and went clear to third when Raftery made an awful peg to the plate which got by Whaling. The catcher gets the error on the play, for he should have at least blocked the throw, but part of the blame certainly should go to Raftery. A passed ball scored Slattery. Portland's only scores came in the eighth.

Johnson struck out. Houston messed up both Danzig and Raftery's easy chances. Hits by McCredie and Whaling, the last one a double, scored Dan. Raftery and the manager, while Whaling was caught at the plate with a great throw by Jimmy Cook after Graney had singled into his territory. After Casey and Bassey went out in the ninth Johnson hit, but was left when Danzig went out. The score:

Umpire Ruins Stomach.

"Strike tuh," the famous expletive of "Silk" O'Loughlin, may cause the permanent retirement of the American league umpire from baseball. In the last Boston-Philadelphia game he collapsed and the game had to wait. He has collapsed twice since in another game and had to go to his dressing room before the game could continue. Physicians have told O'Loughlin that he is suffering from a severe organic stomach trouble. It is caused by the strain on the muscles of the diaphragm in yelling "Strike tuh," and they have warned him that he must stop this.

THREE BRIGHT STARS OF 1908 TENNIS

Upper Left, George Wrenn; Upper Right, R. D. Little; Below, Frederick Alexander.

The interest of tennis enthusiasts has been centered on the eastern tournament at Newport. This led to the selection of H. H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander, both of New York, who successfully defended the title of national championship to represent the United States in the contest with the British team, preliminary to the international tennis matches for the Davis cup. This year the international tournament goes to Australia.

R. D. Little, George Wrenn, and F. B. Alexander are all in good form, and if they can go to Australia, they ought to bring back the Davis cup.

The national champion, William A. Larned, has said that he will positively not make the trip to Australia. With the exception of the work shown at Seabright, William J. Clothier, the 1906 champion, has not performed well enough to warrant his selection. He has been beaten by Edwin Larned in the middle states, and C. B. Doyle of Washington also has taken him into camp.

There has undoubtedly been an effort on the part of some moving spirits to get Edwin P. Larned into such shape that he can qualify, but the young brother of the champion is not "classy" enough for such an undertaking. He has beaten Clothier and Little, and that is about all. Clothier was away off his game, and Little has been out of the running all year. Larned has been beaten several times by Mollenhauer in the Long Island championship and by George F. Touchard in the Felipe cup series.

Karl Behr will naturally come in for consideration, but the once fast Crescent Athletic club man has not done any kind of work this year, and he would have to improve considerable. Likewise Little has been going back steadily. It is likely that Beals Wright will be one of the team, as he is always good when it comes to the international matches no matter how careless he may be in the first part of the year. He understands international playing better than any other star in the country, and he would very likely accept an invitation to go.

TRIES TO WIN FIVE TIMES

Willie Anderson, National Golf Champion Four Seasons, Enters Tournament

Boston, Aug. 27.—Once a year the professional and amateur golfers meet on equal terms for the national title of "open champion." Under conditions of a most favorable character, the fourteenth in the series of these annual open tournaments began today on the superb links of the Myopia Hunt club, at Hamilton.

The competition for the opening day was 36 holes, and the same will be played tomorrow, making a total of 72 holes. There will be 10 money prizes. The winner will receive $300, in addition to the gold medal, and the other purses range from $150 to $10.

The entrants include about all of the eastern professionals and a number of amateurs who stand near the top on the state handicap list. Several prominent western players also are included among the competitors.

Willie Anderson, four times winner of the national title, is entered, and Willie Smith, who once held the title for a year, is another prominent participant. Another prominent player who will have a try for the title is Joe Lloyd, who defeated Anderson by one stroke in the open national of 1897.

With three of this season's open championships won in figures under 300, it is predicted that the winning score in the present tournaments will be in the 290s.

The results of the national open tournament for the past 10 years, follow:

| | |
|---|---|
| 1907—Philadelphia cricket, Alex Ross | 302 |
| 1906—Onwentsia, Alex Smith | 295 |
| 1905—Myopia, Willie Anderson | 314 |
| 1904—Glen View, Willie Anderson | 303 |
| 1903—Baltusrol, Willie Anderson | 307 |
| 1902—Garden City, L. Auchterlonie | 307 |
| 1901—Myopia, Willie Anderson | 331 |
| 1900—Chicago, Harry Vardon | 313 |
| 1899—Baltimore, Willie Smith | 315 |
| 1898—Myopia, Fred Herd | 328 |
| 1897—Chicago, Joe Lloyd | *162 |

*36 holes.

Sturdy Fighters to Meet.

Racine, Wis., Aug. 27.—A lively pugilistic bout is expected here tonight when Danny Goodman and Ad Wolgast come together for a 10-round contest. It will be their second encounter. In their first encounter Wolgast disposed of Goodman in four rounds. Since then, however, Goodman has engaged in 15 bouts and has never lost a decision.

Merely Chatter

Who was it said those Giants didn't have a chance?

• •

Larry Lajoie has spent $27,750 in buying new players to help grab next year's pennant, and the crafty manager of the Blues is not through yet. Of the pitchers bought, Wright, Oakland's premier twirler, was the second best man in point of price, the red-headed one bringing $2,750.

• •

Hal Chase has been benched indefinitely by Kid Elberfield for listless playing. Chase has been sulking all season. Moriarity, who relieved Hal, has played a brilliant game at the first cushion ever since he went on. Manager McCredie might try Elberfield's stunt on some of his own players once in a while. No matter how good a player is if he sulks he will prove a detriment to his team.

• •

Jennings is sore at Ban Johnson for suspending Bill Donovan. The Tiger manager insists that Willie did nothing to warrant an indefinite suspension. But there is no use kicking. It has been handed him and he will have to take it. If he hadn't thrown his glove on the ground he would not have been sent out. Billy Hogg in the same game said much more than Donovan, and got away with it. He didn't throw his glove away, so he was allowed to stay in. Just what criminality there is in throwing a glove on the ground is not known, but O'Loughlin seems to take it as a serious offense.

• •

It is said in New York that George Stallings will manage the New York club next year. If he does Frank Farrell will have one of baseball's most competent managers at the head of his club, and with the material on hand the Yankees ought to make a fair showing. Elberfield is a flat failure. There is no need of changing bosses at this stage of the race, Farrell reasons, but the Kid will not be in charge next spring. Stallings had a quarrel with Ban Johnson at one time, but this was patched up recently, it is said, and the former Detroit manager will run the club.

• •

Figures, incorruptible evidence, tell the sad story of why the Browns cannot get within twisting distance of the Tigers' tail, says a St. Louis critic. "Bald and unsympathetic, the collection of numerals whose business it is to set forth the batting performances of baseball teams and individuals refuse to concede a point to the Browns and insist that the team is not in the same class with Detroit in that most important of all departments to a championship team—batting."

"Statistics show many comparisons in this one department which put St. Louis in an entirely secondary light, as compared with the Tigers. Following are some of the more important differences:

"Detroit, counting only the regular team and the best batting pitcher and catcher, has a club batting average of .271; St. Louis of .251.

"Counting all the players on both clubs, the figures are: Detroit, .266; St. Louis, .244.

"Detroit has two regulars batting over .300—Cobb, .345; Rossman, .324. St. Louis has no regulars hitting .300.

"The percentage difference between the Tigers' best hitter and Stone, the Brown's best regular member, is .062.

"Detroit has three batters who are one, two, three in the race for extra base hits.

"In the first 20 of extra base hitters Detroit men have rapped the ball for a total of 410 extra bases; St. Louis for but 219.

"In 117 fewer times at bat this season Detroit players have made 42 more hits than the Browns and scored 70 more runs."

COUNCIL POSTPONES ACTION ON BONDS

The council failed to authorize the sale of the bonds for the construction of the Madison street bridge yesterday and the resolution introduced by Councilman Wills was not adopted. There is a desire on the part of the councilmen to withhold action on the sale of the bonds until City Attorney Kavanaugh and City Engineer Taylor can make a report on the bridge project. Two questions are involved, one is whether the site of the bridge can be changed and the other is as to the type of bridge to be built. It is probable that these officers will report at the next council meeting.

The interest of the people in the bridge is very great and many opinions are held as to the site and style for the structure. Many want the bridge located further south than Madison street, while others insist that the present site is the only one that can be chosen. Labor unions want work started on the bridge at once.

WIN PENNANT BUT DRAW OUT

Woodburn Magnates Snatch Victory in League But It Costs Too Much.

Woodburn was officially declared the champion of the Tri-City league at the last meeting of the board of directors. The directors went over the official score sheets on file in the secretary's office and the result of their finding was the formal declaration that Woodburn had won the highest percentage of games and had split the season with a percentage of 840, which is several hundred points higher than the next competitor. The object of last night's meeting was to wind up the affairs of the league for the season of 1908. Secretary Smith read his annual report, which was exhaustive and covered pretty fully the doings of the league for 1908. He also made several recommendations for the betterment of the league during the coming season.

Treasurer Partlow made a full and detailed report of the league's finances, showing all bills paid and a small surplus in the treasury. Both reports were accepted.

Three Franchises Given Up.

T. N. Kennedy, holder of the Woodburn franchise, H. E. Alberts of the Salem franchise and H. K. Smith of the East Portland franchise asked permission to return their franchises to the league, each giving very good reasons for so doing. Their requests were granted and these three clubs are now no longer members of the league. Kennedy of Woodburn will not be identified with baseball next year, the team, while a pennant winner, was not supported by the fans as it should have been and Kennedy was a loser financially. Salem was an experiment this year, and Mr. Alberts, though not much of a loser with his team does not show an inclination to tackle another season. Both gentlemen have been earnest and faithful workers in the league. Two excellent ball grounds are now for rent. Mr. Smith, who has been identified with the game since his infancy, decided to retire permanently from baseball and gave this as his principle reason for giving up his franchise.

Next Year's Plans.

The plans of the league for next season savor more of an amateur complexion and the return to the advertising scheme, that is, teams of youngsters representing some of the enterprising firms of the city. Vancouver, St. Johns, West Portland, are still members of the league. C. A. Partlow and M. J. Heiser also hold franchises making five franchises still in the hands of their original owners.

Secretary Smith handed in his resignation as was expected and the same was accepted, the board voted the retiring secretary its unanimous thanks for the officers' untiring efforts and labor in behalf of the league. Nick Whitehead was elected to fill the vacancy caused by Smith's resignation.

Dividend of 60 Per Cent.

A dividend of 60 per cent was voted to the stockholders, which made them all smile, as expectations were that the league this season was a losing proposition. The league will go on as before profiting by its two years' experience, and all indications point to a stronger organization than in the past. The annual meeting occurs in February, when the plans for 1909 will be put into effect.

PENDER JOINS NORTHWESTERN

Local Boy Signs With Bob Brown's Black Cats.

Arthur Pender, the star southpaw of the Vancouver Tri-City league team, yesterday signed a contract with the Aberdeen team of the Northwestern league and left at once to joint the team. The terms of the contract were not made public.

Pender is easily the best southpaw twirler in the Tri-City league and not only that but is also a hard and reliable hitter. The news of his promotion came as a surprise to everyone, including Manager Heiser of the Vancouver team who was banking heavily on his winning one of the games against Chehalis Saturday and Sunday.

The Aberdeen team is now composed almost entirely of boys who have at one time or another played with Portland teams. Manager Brown, Householder, Van Buren, Charlie Moore, Cabiff, Pernoll and Pender are all well known to fans here, while Starkell, Brinker, Boettiger and Fitzgerald are not strangers by any means. Pender should make good for he will have every chance in the world and will be under one of the foxiest managers on the coast.
