

WORLD'S MARKETS TODAY

WORLD TRADE IS OPENING WELL

Good Volume of Transactions Reported by Wholesalers for Season's Start.

Wholesale market features: Potato market very quiet. Fall trade opens up well. Fresh salmon from Washington. Egg market looks higher. Poultry market cleaned up. Tomatoes just about holding. Liberal demand for peaches. Oats market again higher. Heavy sales of wheat. Cabbage market holds stiff.

Good Volume of Fall Trade.

Fall trade has opened up under very bright circumstances in the Portland wholesale market. The outlook for business was never better than at this time and jobbers are showing no disposition to be other than optimistic. A feature of special interest to the trade at this time is that the good indications are not shown in any one alone, but the indications are good for every business.

Some Report Butter Shortage.

With the exception of two creameries all makers are reporting a very good tone in the local butter market. At one of the city's markets reports being short of butter and that condition is not noted among the outside producers. For instance, more butter is being received from Coos and is showing no indication of doing otherwise. Wheat is high and is in heavy demand at present prices, and the same is true of other grains. The fruit crops are enormous and prices paid compare quite favorably with those of other seasons.

Egg Market Is Firmer.

All through the egg market a firmer tone is today ruling and most dealers are now holding in competition with the recently advanced values. Receipts are not near so heavy in fact, in some quarters a shortage exists and the market for that reason is more easily maintained. (Receipts of eggs say stocks move out better, too, because of the better quality and comparison shows that a week or 10 days ago might be carried over stocks of about 25 to 100 cases now say they do not have more than 25 cases or so on hand each evening.)

Liberal Demand for Peaches.

There is a very liberal demand for peaches in the fruit market and for 40c a box and prices are therefore being maintained at Saturday's averages. Sales and business are showing a tone on the general run of stock and 50c to 50c a box on the plus or extra fancy. Cabbage market is holding very stiff at 2c a pound today with supplies light. Tomato market is just about holding its own, with sales from 40c a box up to 45c. Larger supplies are shown locally.

Potato Market Is Quiet.

There remains a very quiet tone in the local potato market. Offerings by producers of ordinary stock are very light and for this reason the market is making but little interest in proceedings. Then, again, there is a void of shipping demand. Sweet potatoes are showing a lower range of values, owing to the larger supplies and downward trend in prices in the south. During the past week southern values showed a decline of 40c per hundred pounds. Today's prices along the coast are generally put at 2c a pound today with supplies light.

Brief Notes of the Trade.

A small amount of business is reported in hop contracts, but no movement of spot stock is noted. Contract prices at 3c. Washington coast chinook salmon is arriving quite freely and is being quoted at 14c a pound. All other salmon out of market. Fresh prunes are arriving quite freely and are being quoted around 50c a box, although demand is very light. Front street sells at the following prices: Three paid shippers are less regular commissions.

STUBBLE HOGS MAP OUTLOOK

Hogs Are Very Firm But Receivers Fear Arrival of Half-finished Stuff.

Portland Union Stockyards, Aug. 31.—There is great strength in the hog market at this time, in fact the strength is pronounced and receivers are afraid to show good quality. Demand for well finished stuff never was so good as at this time and prices being paid reflect the great scarcity of supplies. Just now the line of hogs arriving are well finished and as long as this movement keeps up there will be no change in the price. Hogs are being turned into the stubble fields in eastern Oregon and Washington and it is expected that about a month or so when this class of stock begins to move toward the market it will be of a different type, a downward of values for stubble fed hogs are fair only at the best. The cattle market is firm and all values are being nicely maintained.

All Prairie New System.

While some buyers and sellers of livestock who are looking out well for themselves are not disposed to refer with good feeling to the new system of quoting livestock as inaugurated by the Journal and the commission handlers, the producer is the man who is getting the benefit and he is loud in his praise of the new system. The fact that the market was the rule for all sorts of flat prices to be quoted out to induce shipments, but what is of more interest to the producer is the fact that the new order of things has been adopted and the producer is getting the benefit of it. Under the new order of things the producer is getting the benefit of it. Under the new order of things the producer is getting the benefit of it.

Pulling Buyers Off the Road.

Perhaps the greatest benefits to the producer and shipper under the new order of things in the local livestock market is the fact that the price of stock is being pulled off the road. The fact that the price of stock is being pulled off the road is a benefit to the producer and shipper. The fact that the price of stock is being pulled off the road is a benefit to the producer and shipper.
