SWEDISH LEAGUE TORN BY OPPOSING FACTIONS

John W. Hawkins, John Anderson, C. M. Anderson and S. Johnson are plaintiffs in a suit brought in the state circuit court against Edward J. Grabs, Erik A. Pearson, Carl A. Anderson, N. M. Bern and the Swedish-American National League of Oregon, a corporation, to enjoin them from using the name of the Swedish-American National League of Oregon, which, it is set up, belongs to an organization of which the plaintiffs are members and which was in existence when the new one was incorporated.

The suit is the indirect outcome of two rival factions in the old organization, of which the defendants at one time were members—Grabs as secretary having caused to be published in the daily papers of Portland a communication that was not approved by the organization, and for which Grabs as secretary was censured by the executive board. The members of the organization indorsed the action of the executive board and then Grabs and followers mentioned as defendants in the suit filed articles of incorporation of a Swedish-American National League of Oregon, with the secretary of the old league thereby to gain control of the old league.

CONFIDENT OF BRYAN'S SELECTION

Silver Thimble In the Bread

A useful and beautiful premium will be given the finder of the SILVER THIMBLES in the loaf of Butter-Nut Bread. This is done to call attention to the label which is the only protection the consumer has against the many imitations of Butter-Nut on the market. It will doubtless prove a novel contest to thousands of readers of The Journal. The finders of the Thimbles will call for the premium at the bakery, 294 Second street, corner of Columbia.
