SCHOOLBOY PUTS WASH ON BEAVERS

Briswalter Blanks Home Guard, 5 to 0, While Groom's Support Fails.

There is a young chap named Briswalter who's nifty as sin with the halter. He chucked off our wings. Like the rest of his kind. That's the reason, good people, we falter.

Schoolboy Briswalter both pummed and muzzled the Beaver bunch in the opening game yesterday, the 5 to 0 showing being the result of a sextette of wallpans and a quartet of costly errors. Groom's support failed him at critical periods, else the score might not have been so one-sided. Briswalter was as stinky with his biggles as Hetty Green is with her ducats. He kept them so scattered that the Beavers never had a look-in. In fact first base was the only cushion gnawed by Beaver tucks during the entire matinee.

On the other hand the southerners played rings around the locals. Their squeeze playing netted at least two of the scores credited to the Dilonites. They took advantage of every misadventure and fielded perfectly, accepting 42 chances. Los Angeles made her first three scores in the third inning, two hits, a brace of errors, and a pair of sacrifices. Easterly, Briswalter and Oakes scoring. In the next inning Ellis went over on a base on balls, a balk and a sacrifice by Easterly. The fifth score was made in the eighth when Brashear was safe on a fielder's choice, took third on a hit and reached home on Ellis' infield out.

HEBREW AND DANE CARRY THE MONEY

Attehl Moves Up Notch in Betting Odds With Owen Moran. Absence of Gans Coin Makes Further Cut in Odds Imminent.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Sept. 2.—Abe Attehl was moved up a notch today in the betting odds for the fight with Owen Moran, the English featherweight champion. The little American is now quoted at 10 to 7 1/2 and it looks as though he will have better odds before the fight. Owing to the limited number of rounds in the fight, Attehl seems to have the better of it at present. The fans are not willing to wager how long it will take him to put Moran to sleep, however, and there is no betting by rounds. Owen Moran is waiting today for the arrival of his manager, Charlie Harvey, who is expected from the east Friday night. When Harvey gets here he will dump a bunch of money into the poolrooms and this may force the odds on Attehl down a little. Moran and Attehl will box up to and including Thursday and will then devote their time to putting on the finishing touches. The sale of seats for both the Labor day fight and the admission day fight opened today. There was a rush for seats and it looks as though the arena will be crowded for both events.

WHITMAN GETS ONE JUICY LIME COACH

SPALDING'S GUIDE TELLS OF MAN

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Walla Walla, Wash., Sept. 2.—Has Whitman college been handed a lemon instead of a football coach for the coming year? This question is one that is arousing considerable interest in sporting circles here and the general opinion is that Whitman will have neither material nor coaching this fall. Merrell Blanchard, for the past two years coach at Washington university, St. Louis, has been employed to look after the Missionary football interests, and from his recommendations it was thought by the faculty he was a top notcher. Although no one had ever heard of him his recommendations were good and he claimed to be able to coach football, basketball, baseball, track and everything else, and also to be a good gymnasium man. The college authorities bit and he is to coach the Whitman team.

But when the Spalding football guide for the season of 1908 reached the faculty he was a top notcher. DUCK SHOOTERS BREAK RECORDS

Portland Contingent Bags Average of Thirty on Lower River Preserves.

All first-day records were broken by the Portland contingent of duck shooters, who invaded the Sauvie's island and Deer island preserves early yesterday morning, every furred succeeding in bagging 30 or more birds, while some approached the legal limit.

Charles Henry and John Klernan, who recently purchased the Gardner place on Sauvie's island, returned with 82 ducks.

The Deer island hunters, Jack Cullison, Morris Abrahams, Dr. McKenzie, A. L. Mills and Will Lipman, came back with nearly 200 birds, the result of a few hours' shooting in the early morning.

Captain Riley and party hunted on the mainland and found the lakes well filled with ducks.

"The ducks of the ducks killed yesterday were Mallards and wood ducks, although there were quite a number of teal flying.

Duck hunters are enthusiastic over the prospect of a fine shooting season. "If two good rains this month will fill the lakes with ducks," said Will Lipman. "There is any quantity of water in the lakes and if the birds come and when the flights came and found no water they would continue on south. But we shall not be troubled in that way this year."

On Eastern Diamonds

Hot Springs still leads the Arkansas league and looks to have the flag clinched. Roscoe Miller, the ex-major league, is now a sporting editor at Fresno, Cal.

The Carolina association has closed a most successful season, with Greensboro the pennant winner.

The Newark team has been going to the top in the Eastern league race at a fast clip, while Buffalo has been losing ground.

It takes a close race in a minor league to get the money. Jacksonville's big lead and easy win is held to be responsible for the money losses of the South Atlantic league clubs.

"Ducky" Holmes is working hard to push his Sioux City team to the top of the Western league column. Omaha, Lincoln and Denver are the other contenders for the high honors.

Chattanooga will be on the baseball map next season, though it remains to be decided whether she will have a team in the South Atlantic or Southern leagues.

The Wisconsin-Illinois league teams have been playing great ball. A 23-inning game in which Oshkosh won from Fond du Lac 4 to 2 and Wausau taking a double header from Madison 1 to 0 in both games are samples of the recent sport furnished by the W-I teams.
