RUN TO SAVE ENGINE HOUSE

Fire Fiend Plays a Prank During a $40,000 Fire at Sacramento.

(United Press Leased Wire.) property worth at least $40,000 was burned, a city fire house was gutted and J. Magodi, a Greek, was probably fatally hurt as the result of being run over by a hose cart here this morning. The first blaze originated in the basement of the S. Ennis Brown company, a large produce firm, and spread to the Sun Tent & Awning company, Halifax Bros. and the Burt-Warren company, all large wholesale houses. While the department was fighting this blind first through clouds of suffocating smoke, an alarm called a portion of the force back to engine house No. 1, two blocks distant, which was a mass of flames. In some manner, possibly in lighting the engine fire, a box of waste had been touched off and the house being empty subbody hoticed the blaze until it had gained great headway.

The Sun Tent & Awning company lost the greater part of its stock, valued at about $15,000. The Ennis Brown company lost about $5,000 in beans and box shooks, the cigar stock of the Burt-Warren company was badly damged and the Halifax Bros.' loss may reach several thousand dollars. The first blaze originated in the base-

Ada, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Aaron 8. Watkins, who is the head of the Ohio Northern university here, will be officially notified tomorrow of his nomination for vice-president on the Prohibition ticket. The notification ceremonies will be of a simple character, though the event will be made an occasion for a considerable gathering of the party leaders from various parts of the country. Following his notification Professor Watkins plans to start on a tour of speech-making that will extend through several of the southern and middle states. extend through several of the southern and middle states.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Sept. 2.-Miss Kathleen Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 2 .- Private M. Roosevelt Cronin, the woman who called at the White House last night called at the White House last night and demanded admission on the ground that she was a long-lost daughter of the president, was sent to St. Elizabeth's asylum today.

She protested against being sent to the institution, declaring that "her father." President Roosevelt, would have the court officials punished.

The woman appeared at the White House last night and told a policeman that she wanted Mrs. Roosevelt to vacate her room at once. She said she was 37 years old and came from San Francisco. She admitted having been tried for insanity in California.

COMPLAINS THAT RATES ARE HIGH

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Sept. 2.—H. Connoway complains that the rates for flour and feed on the Mount Hood railroad from Hood River to Odell are excessive as compared to rates on other lines in Oregon. For a distance of 16 miles the rate per ton for flour and feed on the Mount Hood road is $1.86, while from Portland to Hood River, 66 miles, and from Portland to Albany, 80 miles, the rate is only $1.50.
