

IT'S ONLY ETHELINDA--AND SHE GETS A DUCKING

"YOU MAY TAKE THE CLUBS, MY DEAR. I'LL COME RIGHT ALONG."

"THERE! I'M TIRED OF GOING UP TO THAT SILLY OLD BRIDGE!"

"I CAN CROSS ON THIS LOG HERE, JUST AS THE BOYS DO."

"GODNESS-- I DIDN'T KNOW IT ROLLED!"

NOTHING!

"WHY ETHELINDA! WHAT IN THE WORLD!"

TED'S OBJECT SPELLING LESSON--D-I-N-N-E-R P-A-I-L AND G-O-A-T

"Now what does d-i-n-n-e-r-p-a-i-l spell?"
The teacher said. "Be sure to know your lesson well."

Oh! Oh! Wyow! Wyow! There, I know now; that word is dinner-pail. I'd better get right out of here as fast as I can sail."

"Look here, my boy; look what you've done; most all my dinner's gone. For half a cent I'd catch ye now an' lay th' paddle on."

"Go-a-t--you see that I am on my way to school. And I must study hard each word. That is the teacher's rule."

"Ha, ha, he, he; yes, there it is--a goat, a billy goat. He gave that man an-awful bunt. Oh, dear, just see him go-it!"

"Now, what does d-i-n-n-e-r-p-a-i-l spell? Why, dinner-pail; and g-o-a-t, goat. I know that well."

Fred Nankival.