

WIFE OF FRENCH MINISTER WAS FORMERLY PORTLAND GIRL

Etienne Lanel, French consul-general at New York, who has just been elevated to the position of minister plenipotentiary in the diplomatic service of his country, has a wife who was formerly a Portland girl and who has a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in this city. She was formerly Miss Amy May McKee, and is the sister of E. D. McKee, who for many years was clerk of the United States court here. She is also a sister-in-law of Norman Lang, vice-president of the Willamette Pulp & Paper company, at Oregon City. Concerning Etienne Lanel the San Francisco Call says:

When Miss Amy May McKee of Oakland wedded Etienne Lanel, French consul-general at New York, last June it probably was far from her thoughts that she was so soon to have thrust upon her the honors that come to a foreign minister's wife, yet news reached San Francisco yesterday that Lanel, who was well known in this city by reason of his representing the French republic, had been chosen for the high position of minister plenipotentiary in the diplomatic service.

It is also announced that lightship No. 67 has been returned to Umatilla reef.

To prove to the government that the Arkansas river would prove a valuable waterway with a little dredging, the residents of Muskogee, Okla., subscribed $10,000 and built a passenger and freight steamer to navigate it.
