

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

The summer months on the coast are visiting Miss Cornelia Cooke, 404 Vista avenue.

Dr. W. A. Cummins and his daughters are living in pretty houseboat quarters at Riverdale while their home is being built on their attractive riverside property there.

Harold Huggins will leave this week to continue his work at the University of Chicago. He attended there last year after completing two years at Stanford.

Mrs. Marcus Fleischner and Miss Flora Fleischner returned the first of the week from Seaside House, where they spent the month of August.

A dinner will be given at the Danmore labor day for the Seattle baseball team which plays then against the local team. Elaborate preparations are being made for it.

Dr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Smith have returned from California, where they made an interesting tour of the Pacific coast line.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr and Mrs. Kerr's mother, Mrs. Deil Stuart, have returned from a stay at Seaside.

William Vanderbilt Dolph left last Monday for Massachusetts to continue his work at Williams college.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther R. Dwyot and the Misses Dwyot have returned from an outing at Seaside.

C. L. Parker, Miss Carlotta Parker and Miss Zola Parker were guests at North Beach last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart B. Linticum are making a late-season visit at Seaside House.

Miss Ada Burke has returned from Ocean Park, where she spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Warren, Sr. have gone to Banff for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shepard have gone to Hood River for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Pittcock spent last week at the Moore at Seaside.

Miss Alpha Dwyot was entertained by friends at Seaside last week.

Miss Gladys McKenize has returned from an outing at Ocean Park.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Miss Emma W. Thornton entertained a number of her friends at five hundred Tuesday evening in compliment to her cousin, Miss Theresa Lyons of Seattle, who is visiting her. Miss Lyons will leave tomorrow evening for San Francisco to visit relatives there for two months.

The house was prettily decorated with ferns and slightly tinted vine maple leaves. In the parlor were large bowls of pink sweet peas and in the sitting room were beautiful roses. There were eight tables for the game and the score cards were pretty water color representations of Portland roses. The prizes were won by Miss Jennie Leonard and Henry Treves. They were dainty water color sketches of Portland scenes. The consolation prizes, which fell to Miss Ruby Hall and LeRoy Chadbourne, were funny mechanical toys. Refreshments were served from the dining-room table to several of the company at a time by Mrs. Thornton, the hostess mother, and Mrs. W. T. Wheeler, her sister-in-law.

The guests were Miss Sadie Trout, Miss Mertie Williams, Miss Sallie Schwartz, Miss Olive Harris, Miss Ruby Hall, Miss Pearl Hall, Miss Florence Williams, Miss Jennie Leonard, Miss Harriet Kirby, Miss Frances Wheeler, Miss Minnette Davis, Miss Lucille Perkin, Miss Lillian Howard, Miss Pauline Kennedy, Miss Ruth Farnsworth, Miss Gertrude Hardy, Miss Estella Thompson, Miss Harriet Monroe, Miss Genevieve Martin, Miss Katherine Jones, Miss Dorothy Sutton, Miss Margaret Sutton, William T. Wheeler, LeRoy Chadbourne, Henry Treves, Charles Treves, David Long, Thomas H. Perkins, Sydney Brown, Ralph Howitson, Seth McAdams, Dudley Thornton, Edward Nash, Marshall Williamson, George Pranson, Donald Yager, John J. Kruser, Daniel Robinson, Harold T. Thompson, Jean La Rose, Howard Simpson, William Kingston, John Jennings and Percy Leonard.

Mrs. H. F. Dalrymple entertained with an afternoon last Wednesday at her home in East Portland. About 25 women spent the hours pleasantly with needlework and chat. The honor guest was the hostess's sister, Mrs. G. Walter Thomas of Denver, who returns to her home next week after a month's visit on the coast. She was joined last week by her husband and her little son Amherst, who have been in California. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served and the hostess was assisted by four young girls—Miss Alice Timothy, Miss Delta Williams, Miss Myrtle Allen and Miss Gertrude Stevens. The house was prettily decorated with asters—pink ones in the living-room, white ones in the hall and blue ones in the dining-room.

The women entertained were, besides Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. J. L. Robertson, Mrs. Roy Fields Martin, Mrs. Robert T. Williamson, Mrs. Eugene Dawson, Mrs. Francis Baker, Mrs. Thomas Henry Stevens, Mrs. George W. Aldrich, Mrs. Paul Peterson, Mrs. Laura Wilkinson, Mrs. William Leonard, Mrs. Thora Olafson, Mrs. F. Karl Gerner, Mrs. Theodore F. Trellings, Mrs. Maude V. Jameson, Mrs. David T. Landis, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Frank W. Sherman, Mrs. Alice White, Mrs. John Sullivan Perkins, Mrs. Thomas Dorcas, Mrs. James Rudolph Preston, Mrs. Emmaline Cady, Mrs. Ralph Wigger, Mrs. Katherine Georges and Mrs. T. B. Talbot.

A pleasant theatre party was given last Monday afternoon at the Orpheum in honor of Miss Lillian Cohen's birthday. Ten girls formed the party and Mrs. I. L. Cohen and Mrs. S. Ostrow were the chaperones. The party went afterward to the Grand Opera house for refreshments. In the evening the same guests gathered at the Cohen home on North Twenty-fourth street and enjoyed an informal musicale. The party consisted of Mrs. Cohen, Mrs. Ostrow, Miss Lillian Cohen, Miss Rita Prager, Miss Daisy Carson, Miss Helen, Miss Guire, Miss Margaret Conrad, Miss Gertrude Hooper, Miss Ruth Fosser, Miss Sadie Gerstinski, Miss Eleanor Prager and Miss Caroline Friendly.

A number of showers were given for Miss May Collins prior to her wedding last Tuesday. The Wednesday evening preceding, her bridesmaid, Miss Genevieve Ward, gave a plate shower for her. The guests were Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Leo McGuire, Mrs. Joseph N. Meyer, Mrs. James Foley, Mrs. Leo B. Ward, Mrs. Josephine Kearney, Miss Bishop, Miss Margaret McGuire, Miss Alice Shannon, Miss Loretta Sullivan and Miss Collins.

Mrs. Joseph N. Meyer gave a luncheon of six covers at her home with kitchen shower. The guests were Miss Collins, Miss Shannon, Miss Ward, Miss McGuire and Mrs. Leo B. Ward.

A surprise party was given Master Harry Rasmus in honor of his fourteenth birthday. After games had been played luncheon was served. The following were present: Miss Adelle Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Jeanette Sutherland, Miss Lottie Sharp, Miss Lottie Jones, Master Eddie McCroskey, Miss Hattie Ogilvie, Miss Estella Hansen, Miss Edith Oliver, Master Archie Hansen, Master Maxow Burten, Master Harold Adams, Master Delbert Caples, Master Charles Rasmus, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Capels and Miss Daisy Huddleson.

An enjoyable autumn launching party was given Thursday evening by Miss Myrtle E. Long in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Royden Heaman of White Salmon, Wash. After a pleasant ride, a landing was made near the Rock Island club, where refreshments were served.

The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Royden Heaman, Ruth E. Diller, Lilla T. Winters, Gertrude Kurth, Sadie Goodman, Beatrice Burnett, Ethel Johnson and Mrs. E. Long, E. E. Wadsway, Sam Mullen, Bert Malling, Dean Ott, Ernest Mullen, Gus Eilers and Ed De Keator.

WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding that escaped notice last week was that of Miss Ethel Merton Hays and Francis Willard Bond of Pendleton. The ceremony was celebrated at St. Mark's Episcopal church Wednesday evening of last week, and Rev. John H. Simpson officiated. The church was pretty with white asters, ferns and palms. Colonel E. M. Wilson, the bride's uncle, from Bellingham, Wash., gave the bride away. The bridal cortege formed an effective picture. The bride was beautifully gowned in white messaline trimmed with duchesse lace and bands of satin. A full length veil of Brussels lace covered her gown and she carried a bouquet of bride roses. There were four attendant maids. Miss Lucille Kenworthy and Miss Edna Sterling entered together and wore pretty frocks of pink messaline with pink ribbon wreaths in their hair, carried pink bouquets. Miss Hazel Tichner and Miss Hazel Ferris wore green messaline with the same tone in their hair and carried the same kind of flowers. Charles Bond, the bridegroom's brother, attended him and the ushers were Fenton Grigby, Dr. A. Waasle and Royal Sawtelle of Pendleton. The church was well filled with friends of the bride who is popular in her set.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, 456 Flinders street. The home was prettily decorated with cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left on the night train for Vancouver, B. C., and are now at home in Pendleton, where both are well known. Mrs. Bond formerly lived there. The family is well known throughout the state as one of the pioneer families of Oregon.

A wedding largely attended by friends was that of Miss May Collins and Dr. James C. Hayes, Tuesday morning at high mass at St. Mary's cathedral. Rev. Father W. A. Daly officiated. Preceding the ceremony a good musical program was given. Mr. Tauscher, Mr. McGuire, Mr. Kent and Mr. Hickey formed a quartet that sang the Lohengrin bridal chorus. The party of the bride was given away by her stepfather, John Steiger, while Sherman Reese Jr. served in the capacity of ring bearer.

The parlors in which the ceremony took place were elaborately decorated for the occasion. As the bridal couple appeared the wedding march was played by Matt Wahn.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Montgomery, August 20, at high noon, when Miss Grace Hampton of Portland and Robert Z. Young of Seattle were united in marriage by Rev. J. P. Ghormley of the Central Christian church, in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. The bride was attended by Miss Dixie Spinner and the bridegroom by Claude Hampton, brother of the bride. A six-course luncheon was given by Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery in honor of the event. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and palms throughout and the dining-room was in pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Young departed on the 2 o'clock train for Seattle, from whence they went to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., on their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Young will be at home to their friends at 2206 Terrace street, Seattle, after October 1.

A charming wedding celebrated in Sellwood was that last Wednesday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. N. Jensen, when their daughter, Tillie, was united in marriage to Herman Schroeder, a young business man of Astoria. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bowersox.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white mull, trimmed in lace and inserted with a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Ebba Wahlberg acted as bridesmaid, and Carl Jensen, a brother of the bride, as best man. The appointments throughout the rooms were artistically carried out with summer blossoms and ferns. After the dainty refreshments were served the newly married couple left for their newly furnished home on the east side.

Mrs. Richard Wilder, Last Week's Popular Bride.

was charming as bridesmaid. Miss Grace McDaniel was the maid of honor. The bride was given away by her stepfather, John Steiger, while Sherman Reese Jr. served in the capacity of ring bearer.

A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. M. Good, 120 East Thirty-third street, last Monday evening, when her daughter, Miss Jessie B. Good, was united in marriage to Eusef P. Lyons, Rev. J. J. Staub of the Sunnyside Congregational church officiated.

At noon September 4, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Henry A. Borden, 271 College street, Neils W. Christensen and Mrs. Martha L. Von Becker, both of Portland, were united in marriage. W. J. Gallagher was best man.

COMING EVENTS

Portland Lodge, No. 209, of the Fraternal Brotherhood, will give its first dance of the season Wednesday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall, Eleventh and Alder streets. Invitations can be procured from members of the lodge. These dances are given on the second Wednesday night of each month and are largely attended. Members of the committee are Lillian Dyer, Mrs. George Thompson, May Dudrow, A. P. DeKeyser and C. A. Ambrose.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at 2:30 next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George H. Stovall, 1907 East Fifteenth street north. This will be an important meeting and all southerners are urged to be present. Take Alberta car.

The Mispah Social club will hold its next meeting September 10 at the home of Mrs. Nora Armstrong, 627 East Ninth street, and all members are requested to be present at 2 o'clock.

Carl Denton, organist of Trinity church, has returned and resumed teaching violin, piano, pipe-organ. Residence 107 Thirteenth street. Phone Main 4129.

Professor Ringier's dancing classes, Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, opens September 8; gym, Sept. 11. Ladies $1, men $1.50 month.

Invitations out for Professor Woodward's dancing parties, east side Woodmen hall, starting September 11.

PERSONAL

Miss Bertha E. Wilton of Seattle has been the guest of Miss Grace Wilton for the past two weeks, during which time she was entertained a few days at Seaside by Mrs. F. C. Peterson. Miss Wilton was also the guest of honor at a musical given in Portland last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Tom Farrington of Duluth, Minn., was a guest in the city last week. Mrs. Farrington formerly made her home in Portland and took pleasure in renewing old friendships. She will leave tomorrow for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Chester of St. Paul left Tuesday evening for Seattle, intending to visit there for several days before leaving for their home. They have spent a month here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilson, Gertrude, Winnifred and the younger children have returned to the city after a season's stay at North Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie and Mrs. Gillespie's brother, W. F. Wilson, are home from a pleasant outing on the Little White Salmon river, where they spent the month of August at Camp Wildwood.

Miss Elise Cramer writes from Italy that she is enjoying southern Europe, and especially Rome. She expects to sail for home with her mother from Germany September 19.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Young have returned after a delightful tour of Washington and British Columbia. They will be at home to their friends at 434 Jefferson street.

Mrs. Harry Gurr and her daughter, Hazel, have returned home after a six weeks' outing at Ocean Park.

Mrs. Rotlau and her daughter have returned from a four months' stay at Newport beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reeves are here from Seattle to visit friends for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bruce are now at home to their friends at 516 Irving street.

Hopkin Jenkins has returned from a month's visit at Long Beach.

MATTHEU SERIOUSLY ILL AT HOSPITAL
F. X. Matthieu of Butteville, Marion county, is in St. Vincent's hospital suffering from kidney trouble. He passed a restless night, but at noon today was reported as feeling much better.

Fan Season Is Here

Keep Cool

FANS of All Kinds and All Styles

FANS for Restaurants and Residences

Hot weather comfort can be secured with an Electric Fan at a cost for current of Less Than One Cent An Hour.

Your wife needs an Electric Fan in the household quite as much as do you at the office.

Do Not Delay
A nice, cool, well ventilated room insured by the use of an Electric Fan.

Call at our Supply Dept, 145-7 Seventh Street and see our display. Telephone Main 6688 or A5517.

Portland Railway, Light & Power Co.
First and Alder Streets

PARISIAN FALL MILLINERY

These new Fall Styles give the face a French piquancy enticingly attractive in our American women. The decidedly new Parisian shapes, unusual tints, and materials all bespeak their French origin. They are to be found here in all tones to harmonize with the tailored suits. Prices from..... $6 to $25

Tailored Suits

A graceful figure is doubly graceful in a strictly tailored suit. If properly fitted such a suit will overcome any little defects and strengthen the good points of your figure. This is what "Style Store" suits do. We have expert fitters who give prompt and satisfactory service.

Choose Now

It is wise to anticipate your needs for the coming season before the rush for Fall shopping begins. Our suits are correct in style, quality and price,—the three essentials to all discriminating people. Choose now while everything is fresh and new. When down town,

Prices: From $20 to $100

Notice Windows 9 and 10

WE HAVE A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF LADIES' WAISTS, SUITS, SKIRTS, HOSE, GLOVES ETC.—ALL OF THE NEWEST DRESS ACCESSORIES. PRICES ALWAYS LOW IN COMPARISON WITH VALUES.

Credit if Desired
The credit method is for your convenience. You may settle your accounts in weekly, monthly, or semi-monthly payments.

EASTERN OUTFITTING CO.
Corner Wash Gth and Tenth Streets
The Store Where your Credit is Good