

LET SECURITY BE RECIPROCAL IN THREE FIGHTS IN NEW YORK

Republican Capitalist Argues for Depositors' Guaranty Plan. Each Party Has One on Its Inside, Tammany Fight Especially Bitter.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
New York, Sept. 8.—The presidential campaign was a secondary consideration with the politicians of Greater New York today. The attention of every man from the district leader to the ordinary voter was engrossed in the assembly district primaries. Results of great importance are expected from the primaries. In fact, the future of some of the party leaders is at stake. The Republican primaries are expected to indicate to a certain extent the strength of Governor Hughes in his fight for renomination at the Baraboo convention next week. Herbert Parsons and some of his lieutenants have arranged a test vote on the governor in several of the districts. Separate tickets have been put up in these districts and several Republicans invited to express their preference for or against the renomination of the governor.

The Republican situation as affected by the primaries is interesting, but so is the Democratic position. It is entirely overshadowed by the issues at stake in the Democratic primaries and the other side of the Brook Bridge. The long-standing fight between "Boss" Murphy of Tammany and Senator Patrick McCarran, Democratic leader in Brooklyn, for the control of the Democracy of Kings county reaches its climax in the primaries. The influence of the fight to a finish, for the victor will be the undisputed leader in Brooklyn for a long time to come.

Ever since Murphy came into power he has nursed an ambition to make the Democracy of Kings county a tail to his Tammany kite. He has been added to his domain he felt that Tammany hall could come pretty nearly dominating the Democratic party of New York state and would likewise be a most influential factor in the control of the party throughout the nation. At the time the Murphy conspiracy was planned the situation in Kings county appeared on the surface to be highly favorable to a realization of his ambitions. Some of the leaders who had been most powerful in the control of the Democratic party in Brooklyn had been seriously undermined. To the consummate politician of the Murphy caliber it looked to be rather an easy matter to gain control.

But just when the Tiger's hordes were ready to cross the bridge "Elo" Patrick McCarran appeared to repel the invasion. McCarran had been more or less active in Brooklyn politics for some years, gradually working to the top without getting in the limelight any more than he could help. His friends described him as "a slick politician, but a hard fighter as well." Every man in Tammany hall who had any influence in Brooklyn has been fought by McCarran tooth and nail. In the primaries, in the convention and in the caucus, he has carried on the fight in a manner that has won admiration even from those who were not in sympathy with him. The influence of today's primaries will prove the turning point of the battle. Senator McCarran predicts that he will sweep everything before him in the primaries. "I'll win in the end," he says, "or tear the house down." "Elo" Murphy, following his rule, is awaiting the result in silence.

NUTMEG REPUBLICANS; CONGRESSMAN LILLEY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
New Haven, Conn., Sept. 8.—Practically all of the delegates have arrived in the city for the Republican state convention, which is to nominate state officers, a congressman at large and seven presidential electors. Tammany has been fighting for organization this evening, but the nominations will not be made until tomorrow.

The results of the primaries indicate that Congressman George L. Lilley leads in the race for the gubernatorial nomination. Congressman Lilley is working hard for the nomination and if he wins he will consider it tantamount to a vindication of his course in Washington. In trying to investigate the submarine boat contracts.

Lieutenant-Governor Everett J. Lake, Lilley's principal opponent, admits his only chance of victory lies in missionary work among the delegates committed to his opponent's candidacy. The report of the submarine investigating committee is being circulated freely by the faction opposed to Lilley and he is openly charged with having brought his accusations in order to make political capital as a reformer.

FIVE CONVENTIONS IN MISSOURI IN ONE DAY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 8.—No city of Missouri, except on the occasion of national conventions, ever entertained so many politicians at one time as fell to the lot of Jefferson City today. And on no previous occasion in the history of the state was there ever held a gathering that represented five separate and distinct political parties.

GAINED 30 POUNDS BERKMAN RAISES RAG OF ANARCHY

HOW A PENNSYLVANIA WOMAN BUILT UP HER HEALTH. With Other Noted Reds He Captures Meeting of the Unemployed.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Sept. 8.—Precautions to prevent an anarchist outbreak in police court were taken today when Alexander Berkman, who created a disturbance in a meeting of unemployed workmen yesterday, was arraigned, charged with disturbing the peace.

Berkman, the anarchist who shot Henry C. Frick during the Homestead strike some years ago, together with Emma Goldman, the recognized leader of the Reds, made a determined effort to turn the meeting of the unemployed into an anarchist demonstration. Red flags were raised, the police denounced and incendiary speeches made. Only stern measures of the police prevented the gathering being turned into anarchist meeting.

Edna Howe, "the millionaire hobo," planned the affair. There was no violent demonstration until Berkman was demanded to be allowed to refute an attack on Dr. Reitzman. He was supported by Emma Goldman and was wearing a red hat and a red coat. Berkman and Mary Smith were arrested, Emma Goldman leaving the hall in time to escape being taken into custody.

HOTEL BELMONT, DENVER, BURNED

Two Unidentified Men Perish—Guests Injured by Leaps From Windows.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Denver, Colo., Sept. 8.—Two men, unidentified, were burned to death and a dozen persons were seriously injured today by a fire which destroyed the Hotel Belmont. The hotel was crowded, having at least 100 guests. At an early hour it was discovered that the building was in flames. Caught unawares, many of the guests were unable to find their way from the hotel and many jumped from the upper stories, receiving serious and in some cases possibly fatal injuries.

EUGENE MAY GET MILK CONDENSERY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Sept. 8.—C. E. Rogers, representing capitalists of Detroit, Mich., is in the city for the purpose of investigating the site as to its being suitable for a condensed milk factory. If there is a sufficient number of cows within a radius of eight miles of Eugene to justify it a plant will be erected at once. The people whom Mr. Rogers represents have extensive dairies and are experienced in the condensed milk business.

TOWN SAVED BY ITS WOMEN AND CHILDREN

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Redding, Cal., Sept. 8.—Residents of Bella Vista are today rejoicing over the fact that their city was not destroyed by fire last night, and praising the brave women and children who won the battle with the flames. A fire which started in the outskirts of the lumber town destroyed three dwellings, causing a loss of $2,000. But for the united efforts of every woman and child in the settlement, who joined with the men, the entire town would have been destroyed.

COMES BACK RICH AFTER 35 YEARS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Sept. 8.—Relatives of Otto Mayr, mourned as dead for 35 years, today received news that he is not only alive, but prosperous. In 1873 Mayr, then 12 years of age, took a herd of cattle to Mexico. His associates were killed in an Indian uprising and it was believed that he met the same fate. It was not until Frederick Mayr, a brother, visited California that it was discovered that Mayr was alive. Another brother, George, and Mayr's mother, 86 years of age, reside in this city.

GUGGENHEIMS IN SEWARD PENINSULA

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Nome, Sept. 8.—The Northwestern Development Company has been reorganized and a half-million-dollar bond issue placed in Europe to extend the line of the Seward Peninsula railway and to develop the properties of the company near Nome. Some men are building the Seward Peninsula line in this region and the Seward Peninsula line has fallen into the hands of the Guggenheims. The Northwestern Development company is one of the many part-western companies with which the latter has been connected. The Seward Peninsula railway is a narrow gauge line and at the present time is 75 miles in length connecting Nome with the Krasnoyarsk.
