

THE JOURNAL

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER. PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING (except Sunday) and every Sunday morning at the Journal Building, Fifth and Washburn streets, Portland, Or.

Circulation Guarantee. This certifies that the circulation of the OREGON JOURNAL has been audited and guaranteed by the Auditor's Certified Circulation Blue Book.

Endure and dare, true heart: through patience, joined with boldness, come we at a crown encircled with a thousand blessings.—Spanish proverb.

ANOTHER SENATOR REJECTED.

SENATOR ANKENY of the state of Washington will also go into retirement next March, along with Long, Hansbrough, Kirtledge, Platt and some others who are considered as to a greater or less extent "undesirables."

A STRANGE OCCURRENCE.

SOMETHING strange happened in Portland yesterday; all the members of the council voted together on an important question, and one on which people of the southern part of the city were divided.

GRAVE SITUATION IN ILLINOIS

IT IS REPORTED from Illinois that there is a possibility, not to say a probability, that Governor Deenee may be defeated by former Vice-President Stevenson for governor, and the blame for this, if it happens, will be laid, in said advance, on the primary law, and such a result is pre-announced as something greatly to be deplored and exceedingly disastrous.

CANNON AND THE PARTY.

IN ANOTHER column will be found an article reprinted from Collier's Weekly on Speaker Cannon. It is in the main a correct portrait of the man who holds the greatest, or next to the greatest, political power in the country.

Small Change

Any rich man can start a party. Out goes another Standpat senator. Live so as not to be sorry by-and-by. Fine weather for either work or sport.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Tipping Question. Portland, Sept. 9.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I am running through the papers articles relating to the tipping system. How anyone can champion so monstrous an evil is more than I can fathom.

THE INDEPENDENCE PARTY.

THERE IS NO excuse for the so-called Independence party. There is no reason for its existence. It presents in its platform and professions no basis for a new party to be built up on.

THE WORLD AND ROOSEVELT.

The World has no more personal grievance against Mr. Roosevelt than against the procession of the equinoxes. Neither has it denounced him.

Small Change

Any rich man can start a party. Out goes another Standpat senator. Live so as not to be sorry by-and-by. Fine weather for either work or sport.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Tipping Question. Portland, Sept. 9.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I am running through the papers articles relating to the tipping system. How anyone can champion so monstrous an evil is more than I can fathom.

OREGON SIDELIGHTS

Cove will have a fruit cannery. A cannery for Union is "in the air." Threshers are yet busy in Wallawa county.

THE WORLD AND ROOSEVELT.

The World has no more personal grievance against Mr. Roosevelt than against the procession of the equinoxes. Neither has it denounced him.

SPEAKER JOSEPH G. CANNON

From Collier's Weekly. It matters not what it may be; all improvements look equally bad to him. He packs committees against them and thus buries them.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

To labor she would leave her home. For children must be fed. And glad was she when she could get a shilling's worth of bread.

THE WORLD AND ROOSEVELT.

The World has no more personal grievance against Mr. Roosevelt than against the procession of the equinoxes. Neither has it denounced him.

SPEAKER JOSEPH G. CANNON

From Collier's Weekly. It matters not what it may be; all improvements look equally bad to him. He packs committees against them and thus buries them.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

To labor she would leave her home. For children must be fed. And glad was she when she could get a shilling's worth of bread.

THE WORLD AND ROOSEVELT.

The World has no more personal grievance against Mr. Roosevelt than against the procession of the equinoxes. Neither has it denounced him.

SPEAKER JOSEPH G. CANNON

From Collier's Weekly. It matters not what it may be; all improvements look equally bad to him. He packs committees against them and thus buries them.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

To labor she would leave her home. For children must be fed. And glad was she when she could get a shilling's worth of bread.

THE WORLD AND ROOSEVELT.

The World has no more personal grievance against Mr. Roosevelt than against the procession of the equinoxes. Neither has it denounced him.

The REALM FEMINE

The Playground Association. What would the good, old, straight-laced Puritans have thought if they could have looked ahead a few hundred years and beheld a national association, composed of learned and thoughtful men and women meeting together and discussing not how to torture witches, nor how to drive the fear of God into human hearts, nor how to treat the backslider, nor even what to do with scolding wives, but just this—how to teach children to play?

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

To labor she would leave her home. For children must be fed. And glad was she when she could get a shilling's worth of bread.

THE WORLD AND ROOSEVELT.

The World has no more personal grievance against Mr. Roosevelt than against the procession of the equinoxes. Neither has it denounced him.