

IN MEMORY OF SAM HOUSTON

Texas Is to Erect a Monument to a Great and Unique Character.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Austin, Texas, Sept. 11.—The memory of General Sam Houston soon is to be perpetuated by a monument over his grave at Huntsville. The Texas legislature last year appropriated $10,000 to erect the monument and entrusted the execution of its will to the governor. Progress in the plans has been facilitated by several recent conferences of those interested in the project, and it is expected that little delay will attend further preparations. Eugene Coppitt, the San Antonio sculptor, has been selected to design the monument.

Sam Houston was the father of the state of Texas. From the time that he was elected general, in 1832, until he accomplished the annexation of the state, in 1846, he was the guiding spirit of its destinies, and piloted it through great storm and stress to the safe harbor of union with the United States.

Houston's career before he came to Texas had been exciting and picturesque. In the war of 1812 his bravery attracted the attention of General Andrew Jackson, who always admired Houston's remarkable powers.

In Tennessee Houston was district attorney, congressman and governor in the 20s, and when he left that state he went to the Cherokee tribe of Indians, by whose chief he had been adopted in his youth. For some years he wore the Indian garb, and visited President Jackson in that costume just before he came to Texas.

His career in this state began as a member of a constitutional convention in 1832. Soon afterward he was appointed general of Texas, and then commander-in-chief of the republic's army. Santa Ana, with a Mexican force, entered Texas, and in a few days the Alamo fort surrendered, and the Texans in it, numbering nearly 200, and including Davy Crockett, Colonel Bowie and other famous fighters, were slaughtered in cold blood.

Thenceforth the battle cry of the forces that Houston led was, "Remember the Alamo," and before the end of April Houston had scored a complete victory over the Mexicans and Santa Ana was captured.

Houston began his agitation for union with the United States as early as 1838, when he left the presidency, and persisted in it after his election to the chief magistracy again in 1841, employing great diplomatic art to overcome opposition.

DEMOCRACY AND LABOR TOGETHER

In Fifth California District There is Hope of Electing Congressman.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Sept. 11.—After two ballots had been taken, George A. Tracey, president of the State Federation of Labor, was nominated by the Democrats yesterday afternoon to make the race for congress in the Fifth district against Congressman E. A. Hayes. Tracey is preparing to make a whirlwind campaign in this district. It is the only congressional district that the Democrats have any hope of capturing in this state, and they are all enthusiastic for Tracey.

The convention yesterday afternoon was lively. Tracey had received the nomination of the Independence party and was opposed by many Democrats on this ground.

Former Congressman James G. McGuire wanted the nomination.

CRIME TO CHEER TOLSTOY'S NAME

Thousand Russians Arrested for Celebrating—Siberia for Some.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
St. Petersburg, Sept. 11.—Reports today show that more than 1,000 persons were arrested yesterday on the charge of violating the government prohibition of a formal celebration of the birthday of Count Leo Tolstoy.

Most of the infractions are minor in their character, caused merely by cheering or displaying pictures of the count and otherwise indicating pleasure at his eightieth anniversary.

In some cases, however, where the prisoners are charged with having attempted celebrations on a large scale, efforts will be made to send them as exiles to Siberia.

The arrests were few in comparison with the number of persons who celebrated the event and the efforts of the government are somewhat feeble.

The aged count's condition is reported today to be much the same and there is little hope that he can survive long.

MOORE TALKS, BUT NOT ABOUT HIMSELF

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Aberdeen, Wash., Sept. 11.—A man named Moore, a day laborer, who was found unconscious near the railroad a short distance east of town last Friday, has just recovered consciousness and is able to talk a little. Moore was unconscious for 120 hours. Even now he lapses into unconsciousness at intervals and is still very weak, although his condition is improving and his physician thinks he will recover. His sweethearts are willing to talk, and his attendants do not know whether it is because he does not wish to have anything further known about himself or because he cannot remember.

FRISCO LUMBER FIRE; LOSS $250,000.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Sept. 11.—It is believed that the loss sustained by the Van Arsdale-Harris Lumber company and Edward F. Niehaus & Co. in a disastrous lumber yard fire last night will amount to $250,000. Starting from some unknown cause, the flames gained such headway in the lumber yards at Fifth and Brannan streets that it was impossible to save the costly stock of hardwood and the mills which occupied the property. After a fight of four hours, the flames were checked and prevented from spreading through the lumber and planing mill district.
