BRYAN'S "VAGARIES."

BRYAN IS treated by the Republican press with a good deal more respect than he was formerly. There has been a great modification of opinion among his opponents concerning him.

ADVICE TO VOTERS.

ONE OF the manufactured articles in favor of the Republican party, sent out to newspapers for use as editorials, says in conclusion:

PORTLAND AND OTHER EXPORTS.

DURING the past fiscal year American exports as a whole decreased about $20,000,000, a small amount considering the "panic" here and rather depressed conditions abroad.

GET HOMES OF YOUR OWN.

THE Birmingham Age-Herald says: No man who is paying as much as $25 a month in rent need be without a home he can call and consider his own.

of the channel, or the towage, so much as the failure to go out after the trade.

MORE SOPHEISTRY.

SOME Republican politicians having devised and discussed the scheme of inducing some State-ment No. 1 members of the legislature to resign, the Journal published that fact, and the Pendleton Tribune rose to remark that it would be quite honorable for them to do so.

Archbishop Ireland is 70 Years Old

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 11.—Archbishop John Ireland, who, with the single exception of Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore is the best known member of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in the United States, was 70 years old today.

Archbishop Ireland both mentally and physically appears to be in the prime of life. He is a tall, thin, gray-haired man, with a keen, intelligent eye and a firm, but not unyielding, mouth.

The province of St. Paul, over which Archbishop Ireland rules, comprises the states of Minnesota and the Dakotas. It is now 33 years since he was consecrated as bishop of the diocese of St. Paul. Thirteen years previously he had begun his career as a churchman with his ordination to the priesthood.

The archbishop is looked upon as a son of Minnesota, though in point of fact he was born in Ireland. He saw the light of day when he was a babe in arms his parents removed to this city, which has been his home ever since. His education was received at the cathedral school here. Subsequently he spent some eight or ten years in theological studies at the University of St. Paul in 1861 and being ordained to the priesthood shortly afterward.

He looked at Maud, Maud looked at him, which was more or less natural under the circumstances. Said he, "I'd like a little drink." "Nothing easier," said Maud, opening another bottle.

Francis E. Clark's Birthday. The Rev. Francis Edward Clark, the founder and first president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, was born in Aymer, Quebec, on September 11, 1812. His father, who came from an old New England family, was a clergyman and died of cholera in 1853.

William D. Mahon, president of the Association of Street Railway Employees, will be the Democratic nominee for congress against Representative Edwin Denney in the First-Michigan district at the time of the "open shop" strike last year, since which Mahon has been a member of the labor organizations.
