L. Lindloff was discharged from the city fire department yesterday by the city fire department yesterday by the executive board because he wandered more than 190 feet from his station while on duty without permission. It was upon this charge that Lindloff was discharged, but behind his dismissal was an allegation that he had stolen two pints of cream from a neighboring creamery. Lindloff intends making a defense before the civil service commission and is reported to have said that he is the victim of jobbery at the hands of his fellow employes, indicating that some of these also had a hand in taking the cream. He was employed at hose No. 5.

Freight Declared Unavoidable. J. W. Ransom returned last night from Seattle, where he attended a con-forence between traffic men represent-ing the various trans-Pacific steamship lines. The meeting was for the sheltered landing place inside Cape

ing the various trans-Pacific steamship lines. The meeting was for the purpose of checking in ocean rates east and westbound to be used in connection with railrates, both east and west.

Mr. Ransom says the rates as fixed were based as nearly as possible on the old proportion of through rates, but owing to the fact that the rail rates have been raised in many instances, it leaves the through rates higher, although in reality the trans-Pacific portion of the rate was lowered. Thus any advances that become effective November 1 on through shipments from the orient will be due to the advanced rail rate.

The new tariff does not affect local shipments, prices on wheat and and other commodities shipped here remaining unchanged.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The steamer Alliance sails this evening for Coos Bay and the steamer Eureka sails for Eureka via Coos bay.

The steamer Breakwater is due to arrive here tomorrow from Coos Bay.

Jebsen & Ostrander, shippers and exporters, will establish a Portland office in the Lumber Exchange building on October I. The firm operates the German steamer Eva, and has several vessels under charter in the trans-Pacific trade. The Eva recently took a carga of flour and lumber from this port to the orient, having arrived at Vladivostok, Siberia, yesterday.

The German steamer Numantia of the Portland & Asiatic Steamship company and the British steamer Beechley which left Puget sound Thursday to enter the drydock here for repairs, are supposed to be outside the river waiting for the fog to lift. The fog was very dense this morning. The Numantia comes by way of San-Francisco.

of the sight will attract even greater our of the will attract even greater curiosity.

One of the attractions of the Wild West is known as "The Great Train Holdup," and the engine and cars used in the scene will be escorted through the streets from the railroad train to the exhibition grounds by the original bandit hunters, a number of whom took part in the train holdup at Wilcox, Wyo., where the original scene was located. Much difficulty was experienced by the management in obtaining an engine for "The Great Train Holdup," as it would be almost impossible to transfer from place to place a real location of the company of the c the streets, and one may conceive what one might expect to see upon a visit to Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, better than one could from seeing a street parade, as it is usually gotten up. On the arrival at the exhibition grounds of the horsemen and their accompanying equipments, an equally peculiar sight will be the erection of the Indian tepees and the preparations of the agena for the exhibition.

The public is reminded, however, that and the preparations of the awena for the exhibition.

The public is reminded, however, that in moving the properties and paraphernalia of the Wold West from the railroad to the exhibition grounds will in itself constitute a parade of greater interest and vastly more novel than any other organization can offer. The engine and cars used in "The Great Train Holdup" will be accompanied by the original bandit hunters of the Union Pacific as an escort, and the sight will be one which has never been seen in this or any other country save in conjunction with Buffalo Bill's exhibition. The Indians and Rough Riders will ride their horses to the grounds and the their horses to the grounds and the sight will be an ample reward for the elimination of the hackneyed parade of other days. Incidentally it may be menother days. Incidentally it may be men-tioned that when weather permits Col-onel Cody will take a drive through the principal streets to convince the public that the old scout is still in the harness, ready to appear, as he positive-ly will, at every performance.
