

Ten Years Ago This Week The Meier & Frank Store Moved to Present Location

"Anniversary Sale" In All Departments

Ten years ago this week the Meier & Frank Store moved from First and Second streets to the present location. It was town gossip at the time that the change was ill-advised. Twenty-four hours after the new store was opened for business it was proven otherwise and success assured. It was the commencement of a general exodus of retail establishments to this neighborhood. We are going to celebrate the event this week by offering an unusually attractive array of bargains in all departments. Values of importance to every shrewd buyer in the community. Our new Fall and Winter Catalogue is now ready for mailing. It's free to out-of-town patrons. Write for a copy. Mail orders filled.
