Fine Machines at Wholesale Prices

The first to break away from the old-time extravagant method of selling first-class Sewing Machines was the "Gevurtz" Special High-Arm Ball-Bearing Machine, which stands today the Best to be had at anything near its price—$25. Before its advent the regular sewing machine dealers were asking $60 and $75 for machines no better.

You Get a $60 Machine for .... $25

The Anti-Trust Machine

50c a Week

Will soon pay for one of these fine machines. You will never regret the purchase. If this machine does not prove to be all we claim for it, you may return it.

Looks Just Like the Cut

The picture shown here was made from a photo. Frame is made of oak and has a beautiful quarter-sawn oak top.

A Drop-Head, High-Arm Machine with All Modern Improvements

50c A WEEK

No agents' commissions to pay; sold direct to consumer from manufacturer. A big saving to you.

The old-fashioned sewing machine agent must soon be a thing of the past. The up-to-date dealer, by eliminating his expensive methods and establishing a one-price system, is enabled to sell you a better article at a much lower price.
