

RECALL BOON

Dr. Clarence True Wilson Promises to Invoke Measure on Four Members of City Body When He Returns From Conference.

Four members of the Portland city council are eligible for the application of the recall, according to the opinion of Rev. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of the Centenary Methodist church.

Not only are they eligible but they are about due, according to Dr. Wilson, and as soon as he returns to Portland from his attendance at the state conference of the ministers at Salem steps will be taken to invoke the recall and give the people of the city an opportunity to say whether they approve of the official records of these men.

For some time past Dr. Wilson and a small band of well known men of the city, ministers and others as well as have been watching the official course of the members of the city council, or some of them, as a result of this investigation and observation Dr. Wilson has come to the conclusion that there are four of the city fathers who ought no longer to remain in office.

"I do not wish to say who these men are at this time," said Dr. Wilson this morning, "for I consider it a little premature to make mention of names. In my own mind, however, I believe that they should no longer be allowed to hold office in the council. The matter has been under investigation for some time by myself and others in the city. I do not know that these other men have formed the same opinion regarding the same councilmen as I have. We are conferring on the matter and will take steps to invoke the recall as soon as I return from my attendance on the conference, about September 30.

"We have the recall on the statute books and I believe that it is there for such cases as this. My assurance the agitation will go on and when I return decisive action will be taken."

Dr. Wilson attacked the council in scathing terms at the evening service of his church last night, holding that the core of the moral cancer fixed on Portland was the city council. During the past four years of his residence here, the minister said, notable reforms have been made, but in none of them had the council given a hand. All the reforms had to come from the mayor and the officials of the city and the laws. The council had refused to aid and had even assisted the other side in its campaign of wickedness.

OREGON ATHLETES ARE SPEEDING TO PORTLAND

the method of English jumping. There was nobody on the Yankee team who could touch him at vault.

"I feel that I could have made a far better record than anything I have done in America," said the little champion. "At Brighton, where we trained for a couple of weeks, I vaulted 11 1/2 feet. I went 12 feet 1 1/2 inches with my own method of sidling the pole into a hole and then raising into the air. The English officials persisted in making me jump after their method and even ruled me off the field when I dug a hole. I was pretty excited. They wouldn't allow us a soft spot to light on after we completed the jump, because they were used to a wide take-off. I cleared the bar at 11 feet 2 inches and was thereby declared the winner and awarded a medal.

"In the next heat Cook, without competition, went 12 feet 2 inches. When I got together in the finals Cook went out at 11 feet 6 inches. I cleared the bar at 12 feet 2 inches and was thereby declared the winner and awarded a medal.

"The air was bracing and I felt in great condition. Under my thin skin I feel that I could have gone over 13 feet.

Going Back East. "I am going back to New Haven. I am going to confine myself to my hospital work. I have a six months' position in the New Haven hospital. My leisure time will be spent in helping Yale pole vaulters out next season. I have experimented with the English method and found it old style of pole vaulting. I never jump from the ground. With all due credit to the intelligence of the English and Portland athletes, I never had a better time in my life.

"Yes, the London games were great. I had some splendid men on our team and made the Europeans go home. Time and again we have been asked whether or not the American press exaggerated the account of the unfair treatment of the American athletes received in England. The athletes met with coldness all along the line. Most of the bad feelings were caused by the spirit of superiority displayed towards Americans by all Englishmen.

"They ridiculed our cheering, made light of our dress, manners and accent and made themselves generally unfriendly.

"Owing to an injury to a muscle in my leg which befell me last spring I was unable to train for the event in London.

"The winning jump made by F. C. Irons of Chicago was an extraordinary one and I could hardly believe it. I have beaten it were I at my best. I have never been able to reach anything approaching my earlier form in the springs while in the east. I have always been cordially received and well treated in spite of the fact that many people disliked my record.

COLORED STEWARD AGAIN SNUBBED

Exiled Army Officer Deprived of 90-Mile Ride Test by Department.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Huachuca, Ariz., Sept. 14.—Ordered today back into exile at Fort Grant, William F. Stewart, the Dreyfus of the American army, will not be allowed to make the 90-mile test ride recently prescribed for him by the war department.

No reason has been assigned for the change in plans.

A terse order mailed from the headquarters of General Thomas at Denver September 12, was received today commanding the colonel immediately report for duty at Fort Grant, the lonely place to which he was exiled a year ago when he first fell under the ban of departmental displeasure.

When seen today Colonel Stewart said he would take the train from here Wednesday morning and would reach Huachuca, Ariz., where he will be met by his command exiles, a colored cook and William Nail, an ex-soldier, who, on Thursday, will drive with him to his post.

Officers here believe the colonel was ordered back to Fort Grant without taking the cover after 8 o'clock this evening and proceeded south in Sixth street to Washington, then east in Washington to Third and Morrison and then along Morrison street to the Multnomah club field.

Colonel James Jackson, inspector-general of the Oregon National Guard, will make the address of welcome on behalf of the Oregon and Mayor Lane for the citizens of Portland. Dr. J. A. Morrison, chairman of the general committee, will present each of the three young heroes in turn.

The program of the evening will be followed by the audience singing "America." Afterward an informal reception will be held in the Multnomah club gymnasium.

Tomorrow evening Kelly, Gilbert and Smith will be the guests of honor at a public banquet at the Multnomah club. Tickets and reservations may be had at the office of the Multnomah club.

Ask Washington Officials. Governor Mead and party of Washington have been invited to take part in the demonstration in honor of the boys. In the parade, in addition to the police, grand marshal and aids and the Third Infantry band, there will be the officers of the Indian crusade, which is now in the Portland harbor. Members of the Third Oregon National Guards will also take part.

In the second division will be the three athletes, who will be drawn by 200 admiring members of the Multnomah Juniors, delegations of citizens, members of the reception committees and others will follow.

The Multnomah club field had been decorated for the occasion and will be illuminated by redfire and various other lights during the exercises this evening.

Tomorrow the boys will spend in resting. In the evening there will be the banquet. Plates have been arranged for more than 300 persons.

SALEM WILL GIVE CHAMPION SON A CUP OF SILVER

Salem will participate in the celebration and welcome for the returning Olympic athlete this evening and a letter received by Assistant Secretary Moen of the chamber of commerce and board of trade had appointed a committee to select a cup to be presented to A. C. Gilbreath, the Salem champion, on the occasion of his return to the city.

The committee includes: A. F. Hofer, C. M. Bishop, H. H. Olinger and C. L. McNary, and these men, with other representatives of the board of trade, will participate in the reception and parade this evening.

DEBS DO SPEAK AFTER PARADE

Socialist Candidate Due in Portland in Red Special at 6 o'clock.

Eugene V. Debs will deliver an address this evening at the Exposition skating rink on upper Washington street in advocacy of his candidacy for the presidency on the socialist ticket. Mr. Debs will reach the city tonight at 6 o'clock. The meeting will be at 8 o'clock.

E. L. Lewis, chairman of the local reception committee of the Socialist party, will act as chairman of the meeting and will introduce Mr. Debs. It is promised that the street parade preceding the meeting will be something unique in the way of political parades. It will form promptly at 7:15 o'clock and will march from the union depot through the principal streets of the city.

Mr. Debs is traveling in what has been termed the red special. It is a train of four cars, carrying 2,000,000 pieces of campaign literature, a volunteer band of 15 pieces. The Debs party consists of John P. Work, a member of the national committee, and A. M. Simons, editor of the Chicago Daily Socialist, and A. H. Floaten, a prominent Socialist of Colorado.

HISGEN NOT DUE TILL OCTOBER 12

Thomas L. Hisgen, Independence league candidate for president, will not reach Portland before October 12, according to the latest advices. Word has been sent to Portland that Mr. Hisgen and W. B. Foster will not be able to reach Portland on the date originally set. The meeting planned has therefore been postponed and the date will be announced as soon as it is learned when the party will be able to reach Portland.

Rain Ends Forest Fires.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 14.—Indications that it will rain tonight brought hope to the refugees from the North Shore region today that a shower would wipe out the fires, and many who fled Saturday night returned today to take up the work of rebuilding their homes.

School began at Chisholm this morning. The residents had constructed a temporary building from lumber rushed into the town on the first day. Other houses are being built as rapidly as possible and it will not be long before the entire burned town will be built up again in some sort of fashion.

MISSING BOYS MAY BE SAFE

Lads Who Disappeared From Bay City on Australian Ship.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—Information received by the police today leads to the belief that Parker Ashford, Robert Hallett, Frank Maguire, Owen Haley and Berry Fry, who have been lost since August 27, when they disappeared while rowing on the bay in a skiff, are aboard the British steamer Gymeric bound for Australia. The police believe that the boys were compelled to take refuge on this ship to prevent being drowned and that when the ship arrives at Australia the quintet will be reported safe.

The information that leads the police to accept this theory came indirectly through M. Healy, a brother of one of the missing boys. A boat containing five boys was seen near the heads on the day of the boys' disappearance. The water was rough and the oarsmen were apparently in distress. An outgoing steamer was seen to have to be the skiff. Nothing was seen of either skiff or its occupants after the steamer passed through the Golden Gate. The only ship answering the description is the Gymeric.

Police Captain Thomas Conboy, who has been searching for the boys for the past 16 days, stated today that he was convinced that this theory explains the disappearance of the boys.

SABBATH SCHOOLS WILL HOLD RALLY

Sunday school workers of the Multnomah county Sunday schools will hold a rally and an echo meeting tomorrow night at the White Temple auditorium, at Twelfth and Taylor streets. One of the inspiring features will be an address by Rev. Charles A. Phipps, field secretary.

HUGHES ALSO IN EXECUTIVE FAVOR

sense of program. The Hughes leaders, who are in the majority, have made little effort to map out a fixed method of procedure in addition to the line of the governor in not engaging in the sort of political dealing and planning that always control the action of the legislature.

Timothy L. Woodruff, the state chairman, is actively opposing Hughes. It is said, though the evidence is not clear, that his court-martial is ordered soon as the men he wishes to call as witnesses in his behalf are growing old and death may interfere with his plans. Acting upon the advice of friends, Colonel Stewart today declared that he would not accept the governor's nomination, to which he is entitled. He said that he would serve continuously until he received the signal unless forced by illness in his family to ask for a leave of absence.

The talk of Root for governor grew last night, when answers to questions about his reported candidacy, he said: "Well, you know I am a delegate to this convention from Oregon county and the people up there are against Hughes."

The machine branch of the party is ready to make a deal with Hughes, the governor. The "old line Republicans" did not like his way of managing affairs at Albany last winter and the machine which opposed him constantly but unsuccessfully in the legislature is here in force.

There is evidence, too, that the racing interests are reported on the ground and they are doing everything in their power to prevent the election of Hughes. The author of the anti-race track gambling bills.

Black and Choate are being put forward by leaders who fear that Root would be a weak candidate because of his record as counsel for "big interests" and many bitter attacks have been made upon him in the state by Hearst.

The indications this afternoon are that Governor Charles E. Hughes will be renominated by the Republican state convention. Enough delegates are opposed to him, however, to defeat him on the first ballot if they agree on a candidate. The announcement that the president of the convention, declared after noon that as the presiding officer he could not permit his name to go before the convention as a candidate.

The announcement by Congressman Cocks of the Oyster Bay district that President Roosevelt has told his friends "in the strongest possible language" that he favors the renomination of Governor Hughes is believed to have had great effect among the delegates. The announcement that the president talked to Secretary Root over the long-distance telephone today also leads to the belief that the governor will be named.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Secretary Root in his speech as temporary chairman of the convention today devoted very little attention to Governor Hughes, his speech being almost entirely confined to the discussion of the national issues. He insisted that the nomination for governor should be made "in such a way that the Empire state shall surely cast its electoral vote for the Republican candidate for president."

In taking up Bryan's campaign cry, "shall the people elect one man or the real republic with the Democrats is not that the majority does not rule, but that they cannot rule, as they are in the minority in congress," after declaring that Roosevelt might have been nominated again for the presidency "by raising his finger at the North Shore of Taft was a renunciation of power exceptional in history." Root attacked Bryan for referring to the "breakers" change of policies since 1896.

BOY HUNTER SHOT BY UNKNOWN HAND

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 14.—Carl Moller, 19 years old, died here early today from a rifle wound, sustained yesterday when he was shot by an unknown person while rowing in a slough near Morey's station, Alameda county. The officials have ordered the strictest investigation, and it is expected that arrests will be made.

Constable Vandervoort of Irvington said today that he had been out on the ground and found that the shot was fired from the Albra Gun club grounds. "I went to the gun club and was told that no shot was fired there yesterday morning. I looked around, however, and found a Winchester rifle with an empty shell which had been fired recently," said Vandervoort today. "I don't like the looks of the case, and I think something will develop in it quickly."

Moller lived at Irvington, where he was well known and went out yesterday for a pleasure trip. The bullet struck him in the shoulder and passed into his body.

FINE EXHIBITS AT ONTARIO FESTIVAL

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)

Ontario, Or., Sept. 14.—The first annual Fruit and Cattle show, held Friday, under the auspices of the city of Ontario, was a great success. Among the exhibits that attracted a great deal of attention was one bill of potatoes exhibited by R. W. Clement containing 13 potatoes that weighed 16 pounds, the largest potato weighing nearly two pounds. Mr. Clement stated that there were about a dozen smaller potatoes in the bunch. The show was held at the Ontario fair grounds, which were well patronized. A. W. Krusen exhibited a squash that weighed 15 pounds. K. Tessen exhibited a watermelon that weighed 15 pounds.

More Good News for Piano Players

Attention Again Centered in the Piano Exchange and Bargain Room.

A Few Days Ago All Was Sold Out—Now Nearly Filled Again With the Choicest for Today's Selling.

It doesn't take much advertising to sell pianos from the Piano Exchange and Bargain Room—PRICE, the greatest salesman on earth, when backed by quality, sells them.

Our heavy selling of the genuine Piano Pianos, especially during the past month, has brought us in exchange many fine and nearly new pianos of the world's best makers.

Pianos that the owners found no fault with as ordinary pianos, but were not satisfied with anything but Piano Pianos—the best—and something the entire family could play, caused the exchange.

And now we offer those who want really good pianos and do not care if somewhat used—we warrant them to be in good condition, with no concealed imperfections—bargains, seldom, if ever, offered, excepting possibly by the Piano People's last fall tremendous sale of exchange pianos in New York city.

Terms will be made to suit your convenience, simply come today or tomorrow—make your selection, and intimate the terms that would be convenient, and we will accommodate you.

Come prepared to buy—you'll find the Piano Exchange and Bargain Room full of interested and eager buyers—early callers have the best.

We will sell a Steinway, not the tacky little "veteran," but a solid, well made, honestly veneered piano, very fine condition, not to be told from new, was $712, now $460. Another Steinway, strictly modern, also exactly like new, mottled walnut case, now $285. Still another Steinway, black stained case, good tone, fine. And a fine Steinway Grand, black stained—so-called "ebonized" case, was $750, now $480.

A $150 Fischer, oak case, for $100; another, walnut case, now $25; show a little or no use. Splendid oak Hines, fine for a musician, now $168. Three other elegant, nearly new, large-sized, mahogany cases, $150 Pianos, on sale tomorrow at $165. A nearly new $250 Milton, only $155. Another Milton, $185. A $150 Fischer, oak case, for $100; another, walnut case, now $25; show a little or no use. Splendid oak Hines, fine for a musician, now $168. Three other elegant, nearly new, large-sized, mahogany cases, $150 Pianos, on sale tomorrow at $165. A nearly new $250 Milton, only $155. Another Milton, $185.

A Rembrandt, stencil piano, advertised sometimes as a $250 piano, now $115. Another, same make, $125. Smith & Barnes, cost $350, now $200. Kohler & Campbell, usually sold at $350, now $185. Whitney school piano, good for many years' hard usage, modern design, now $215.

The above and over two dozen other interesting bargains ready for immediate sale. Terms, cash or "Easypay." Easy Pay Plan. Ellers Piano Exchange and Bargain Room, downstairs, at 358 Washington street, corner of Park.
