

WHOLE CITY PAYS HOMAGE TO OREGON'S VICARIOUS ATHLETES

Forrest C. Smithson.

A. C. Gilbert.

Dan J. Kelly.

Never, perhaps, in modern history has a trio of athletes been accorded a more enthusiastic welcome on their homecoming than that given Forrest C. Smithson, Alfred C. Gilbert and Dan J. Kelly last night. Fifty thousand people were on the streets and at Multnomah field to do homage to the Olympic champions, and they were given an ovation which will long be remembered by athletes and spectator alike. Not in New York, where the greatest celebration of the kind in years took place, was such enthusiasm and good cheer displayed as that which came from the crowds along the streets of Portland and later in the grand climax in the Multnomah stadium. After spending the forenoon yesterday at The Dalles, where they were splendidly entertained by the business men with automobile rides, exercises on the most prominent squares, a band concert and luncheon, the trio continued its way to Portland. Hundreds of Dalles people gave them an enthusiastic send-off and a great steamer attached to the side of the car announced: "Oregon Olympic Winners Returning Home."

Welcomed at Station. At every station en route the boys were observed. Arrived at Portland they were officially welcomed by the committee, consisting of George McMillan, H. E. Berg, General Charles F. Beebe, H. E. Judge and Rev. A. A. Morrison. Several hundred admirers were at the station to add to the welcome, including many college mates of the three boys. They were then put in automobiles and taken to the Commercial club, where luncheon was served and they were visited by many friends. The parade started at 5:25 o'clock and covered the principal streets of the city, continuing up Morrison street to the field. Torchlights and red fire lighted the route of the parade from the Commercial club over the various streets to the Multnomah field. Roman candles made the sky sparkle with their glow. The thousands of more people who flocked into the grandstand before the head of the parade reached the grounds and the huge bonfires were lighted, witnessed a scene not to be forgotten soon. Hundreds of Chinese lanterns were spread over the spacious amphitheatre, stretching from the clubhouse to the grandstand and back again. The soft, mellow lights transformed the grounds into a fairy light, and hundreds of half-subdued exclamations fell on the air.

At every station en route the boys were observed. Arrived at Portland they were officially welcomed by the committee.

SCHOOL BOARD FACES LAW SUIT

Architects Will Sue for $12,500 Unless Sommervell Decision Is Accepted.

The board of education faces a law suit as a result of its action in regarding the award of its jury appointed new Albina high school building and awarding the contract on plans other than those declared by Architect Sommervell to be the best. Attorney D. Solis Cohen, representing the firm of Kable & Kable, which submitted the plans decided by Sommervell to be the best, yesterday afternoon served notice on the board that it must either accept the plans of his firm, known as design No. 11, or Kable & Kable would demand the payment of $12,500 which they claim is due them as a five per cent commission on the $250,000 which the new school building is to cost. In presenting the position of his firm Attorney Cohen said they had no desire to antagonize the board. All they wanted was a square deal. Kable & Kable stood ready to supervise the erection of the building under their own plans, known as design No. 11, which had been declared by Architect Sommervell to be not only the best but the only one of the designs which came within the appropriation.

Suit Is Likely. In case the board should decide to go ahead and build the schoolhouse according to some one of the other designs submitted, Kable & Kable would expect the payment of the sum of $12,500, being a commission of five per cent on the appropriation of $250,000. In case the board should refuse this a suit for breach of contract would be the result. Chairman Wittenberg smiled, and Superintendent Higler, smiling, and members of the board smiled, and Wittenberg promptly referred the matter to the judicial committee, telling Cohen that he would probably hear from that committee in due time. The new high school site, the block bounded by Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Davis and Couch streets, purchased secretly by the board several weeks ago for $23,000, appears liable to cause the members of the board nearly as much perturbation of spirit before they get through with the matter as the designs for the Albina high school. The residents of that neighborhood are protesting vigorously against having the building erected there. A petition was presented to the board last week asking that the determination to change the location of the high school be reconsidered, and yesterday this petition came up for consideration. But it didn't get much, being merely placed on file.

Offered Advance on Trust. An offer of $27,500, accompanied by a check for $500 as a guarantee of good faith, for the new property was received by the board yesterday and was promptly turned down. Clerk Allen being instructed to reply to Roger B. Sinnott, who made the offer on behalf of clients of his, that the property was not for sale. There was one dissenting voice, that of Beach, who thought the offer ought to be accepted. Wittenberg stated that the board had already been asked if it would take $125,000 for the property. Beach said he thought they ought to take $125,000 if they could get it and if they couldn't they ought to take less. But he stood alone in his views and the offer was turned down and Sinnott's check ordered returned.

RESCUES HER PET DOG ONLY TO BE BITTEN

Mrs. Randall, 574 Alder street, was bitten by her dog in a peculiar manner yesterday morning. An automobile ran over her fox terrier at Park and Washington. She hurriedly picked up her pet, who in its frenzy bit her severely upon the hip and hand. Dr. J. H. Carrico attended her and pronounced her injuries not serious. Her husband is an employe of the Commercial club.

TAFIT

Also Makes Speech Records for the Edison Phonograph

WE are now able to offer twelve Records made by William Howard Taft for use on the Edison Phonograph.

The selection of Edison Records by Mr. Taft as a vehicle for giving the telling points of his Speech of Acceptance the widest currency is another tribute to the genius of Edison and the Phonograph which he has made.

Some newspapers say that Taft is unwilling that Bryan should monopolize so useful a campaign ally as the Edison Phonograph. Whether that is true or not, here are the Edison Records made by Taft himself, giving his voice and inflection upon subjects of interest to every voter.

Whether you hear Taft speak personally or not, you can get almost the same effect by listening to these Edison Records.

The twelve Taft Records are as follows:

- Foreign Missions
- Irish Humor
- Republican and Democratic Treatment of Trusts
- The Rights of Labor
- Unlawful Trusts
