

FOUR DAYS AHEAD - GOLF WATER TO BE LAUNCHED

Waterlogged Launch Containing James Staples Is Rescued From the Angry Tides of the Gulf of Georgia.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Bellingham, Wash., Sept. 16.—Famished and almost dead from exposure, having helplessly drifted about four days and three nights in a waterlogged launch in the turbulent tides of the Gulf of Georgia, James Staples was picked up last night by Captain J. Cookson of the tugboat Nellie S.

Wild-eyed, almost starved and crawling water, Staples was upon the launch when pulled aboard the Nellie S. He had not tasted food or water since 4 o'clock Saturday morning. Myrtle Park reports the fate of the five men who left in Staples' launch at about 7 o'clock Friday evening bound for North Beach, Orcas Island. Staples only remembers the name of one man, De Britt, of Seattle, who owns a home near North Beach. About 11 o'clock

Staples says the party landed at North Beach and headed by De Britt started over the trail to the water's edge. The trail was lost and they wandered around until about 4 o'clock Saturday morning. For breakfast and the five immediately left in a sailboat. This was the last Staples saw or heard of the men. On Monday morning, the tugboat Nellie S. returned for Bellingham alone. He had reports of the men who were in the launch. The tide was running heavily and he began to drift. He was trying to fix the engine, but it would not start. He saw that he was helpless. He began to shout for help, but no one was near to hear his cries. He was carried rapidly seaward and was soon in the throes of the choppy seas of the Gulf of Georgia.

Clubs under the chairmanship of John Hays Hammond work in harmony. Mr. Hammond, a close friend of Senator Bourne, appointed John Hays Hammond as the senator, state organizer of Taft clubs for Oregon. Senator Bourne is in Oregon and is to add his money and report personal efforts to the work of Mr. Young and the Taft clubs organized by him. Already many clubs have been organized throughout the state and are at work. A state convention has been called by Young, has organized a state league of Republican clubs and has had several Bourne adherents to attend the national convention in Cincinnati where Bourne will be present. Mr. Taft. All of this has been done by Bourne men and Bourne influence.

Up at the state headquarters there is a Fulton organization in honor. There is a Fulton finance committee, which has not yet met to a great extent in the exercise of financing the state campaign. There is a Fulton secretary, who is active but whose activities have been limited, so far, by sending out Taft literature to the county organizations. During most of this time, so the report here, the close hangers of Senator Fulton have been bending their energies more to breaking down the Taft literature to the county organizations. The arrival of Mr. McHarg, however, lends color to the Bourne statement. Mr. McHarg has noted the situation and has found it bad. He has called for Senator Fulton and Mr. Williams and has insisted that there shall be absolute harmony and that the senatorial question shall be put to rest. So it would seem that Senator Bourne now has the backing of the national Taft committee, which is practically the charge of the club organization. He is to put in his own money to prosecute the work of Mr. Williams and Mr. Williams has been given a talking to about factionalism. After the meeting, it is expected that there will be harmony.

It seems that Jimmy Kerchem was somewhat mistaken when he said with fiery vehemence at the meeting of the night that there is no faction in the Republican party. At any rate, it is reported that McHarg has found the senatorial, and somewhat mythical, snow-white dove in a pretty serious state of health. McHarg has made the most earnest efforts to heal its hurts by liberal applications of the salve of harmony and is searching for the medicinal medicine chests of the leaders. The truth of the matter seems to be that the recipe for the manufacture of harmony salve seems to have been either lost or mislaid by the Republican party. The national committee places in the head ranks of the party. Mr. McHarg has brought a copy of the constitution of the national committee and it reads something like this: "Take a large beaker of political position and stir in the element of personal ambition. Add 23 drops of elixir of harmony and filter clear liquid from factional precipitate. Add Taft enthusiasm sufficient to make saturated solution and keep stirring constantly until first Tuesday after first Monday in November. If the Oregon leaders are sufficiently expert in the art of chemistry to fill the beaker with the proper ingredients, they will have optimistic hopes for the state; if not, they fear, and admit it, that the health of the state is in danger of acute Bryanitis.

To the casual visitor in the sick chamber it would seem that much of the trouble of the national committee. Senator Bourne seems to have been given the most medicine by the national committee. The national committee has given the leadership of Chairman Hitchcock and the National League of Taft of the land, which was claimed by the Abiqua Mining company, which had a certificate of sale of the state land board, derived from Pater. He claims that the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon in the municipal court, charged by E. P. Lewis, who had acted as a super at the Morrison street playhouse, caused Smith, it seems, ordered Lewis to stop smoking on the stage. Several orders were made, but Lewis refused to obey. Smith, who was a visitor, exchanged words with Smith, who struck him in the face with the handle of a hammer. The case was considered insignificant and Smith was discharged from custody.

CHOICE LIES BETWEEN DR. YOUTH WHO MADE TARGET OF BROTHERS AND SISTERS, NIECES AND NEPHEWS COME IN FOR NICE SUMS.

The young miscreant who hurled a stone through the window of a Mount Scott car Monday night, narrowly missing Mrs. J. M. Hutley, 285 1/2 First street, and D. A. Robinson, having an office in the Worcester building, was identified as Ralph Kaderley last night. Kaderley was with the block-buster in the prosecution in the juvenile court, was arrested by Special Officer Lillis of the Portland police and taken to the police station. He will have a hearing Friday.

Myrtle Park seems to be the favorite spot for hoodlums, youths and old men attack the streetcars. Within the past three months, hilarious passengers on the last car Saturday night have caused trouble at this station, the block-busters have been tampered with and rocks thrown through windows. Young Kaderley and another boy were in a tree close to the car track, and from this point of vantage hurled rocks through the windows of two cars. Their missiles lodged in the second car, but went straight through the windows of both sides of the car, in which was the Hutley family. The impression that a revolver shot had been fired.

Mayor and Council Involved in Suit John Rausch Sues H. H. Grindley for $150 as Charges for Moving Building From Property.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., Sept. 16.—John Rausch has brought suit in the superior court against H. H. Grindley to recover $150 alleged to be due for moving a building back three feet to the city sidewalk at Sixth and Washington streets. Grindley's building stood on property owned by him, but because of a later survey of the street it extended over the property line along Washington street. When the new sidewalk was put in, all owners of such buildings would have a right to demand the same treatment. The council holds that it was the cheapest way of securing the land.

Writes From England For Missing Son Chief Burns of Oregon City Asked to Lend Assistance in Locating Herbert Anderson.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, Sept. 16.—Chief of Police Burns has received a letter from Ambrose Anderson, at Oldham, England, asking for information about his son, Herbert Anderson, who came to the United States with an aunt, about 10 years ago, and is now about 20 years of age. The last time his parents heard from him, December, 1907, he was an inmate of the Utah State Industrial School. Mr. Anderson enclosed a clipping from an English paper, giving an account of a serious accident involving young Herbert the name last month by a fall on Mount St. Helens. He thinks that it is his son who was injured. He is anxious to learn his whereabouts.

City of Portland Wins Pioneer Case In the circuit court today the motion of the attorneys for the defense in the case of the City of Portland versus Nottingham, Moore and Joseph Paquet, that the judge refuse to receive the verdict of the jury was denied, the attorneys below told that the only thing they could do was to move to have the verdict set aside.

Business Men May Go to Lewiston There is a possibility that the Portland Commercial club will organize an excursion to Lewiston, where men will attend the Lewiston-Clarkston interstate fair to be held October 12 to 14 at Lewiston. The matter has been placed before the Commercial club and chamber of commerce by the fair officials and is under consideration by the local commercial organizations.

John F. Watts is Being Investigated It is reliably reported that the grand jury is today investigating the case of John F. Watts. Watts is already under arrest in the lower court on charges of having embezzled the ball money put up by the doctor. It is understood that other serious charges are also to be made.

DEMOCRATS TO OPEN CAMPAIGN IN SUBURB FRIDAY NIGHT—STATE COMMITTEE PLANS FOR SENATOR GORE'S ARRIVAL NEXT WEEK.

Democrats of Montavilla are planning a big rally for Friday night when a Bryan and Kern meeting will be held in I. O. O. F. hall, East Eightieth and Gilman streets. E. S. J. McAllister, Senator Milton A. Miller and other well-known speakers will make short addresses and it is expected that there will be a large attendance and an enthusiastic meeting.

Arrangements are being completed by the state committee for the big rally to be held in Portland, September 22, when the Bryan and Kern meeting will be turned into the biggest Democratic rally of the campaign unless Bryan should decide to include Portland on his list of cities. Governor McAllister will serve as chairman of the reception committee which will welcome the Bryan and Kern party here. The meeting will be held either in the Army or the old Exposition building.

Returning as the advance agent of the passenger agents, F. H. Johnson of the Canadian Pacific did not in ahead of the delegation of American Association of Traveling Passengers agents this morning and is paying the way for them. He said that the prettiest feature of the national convention in Seattle and the building were greeted by the Portland committee and each was given a basket of grapes, apples, pears and peaches.

COOPERATION IN CLEARING HOUSES (United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Sept. 16.—To formulate a plan of action among the clearing houses in the United States, Comptroller of the Currency Murray announced today that he will ask the clearing associations throughout the country to appoint committees to consult with him and the bank examiners of the Federal Reserve banks.

EX-CASHIER MUST PUT UP MORE BAIL W. E. Douglas, formerly cashier of the Thiel detective agency of this city, was arrested on a bench warrant issued from the circuit court of Portland and tonight Detective Connors, who was in charge of the prisoner back.

SAYS WIFE SMOKED BRAIN CAPSULES Charging that his wife has been smoking cigarettes in the streets and natural rides while he was at work in an iron foundry, Henry B. Mabie has applied to the circuit court for a bench warrant to bring his wife to court. He says his wife has been unduly gay and has been intoxicated at times while puffing the blue smoke of her "coffin

DISLOCATES SHOULDER (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Blaine, Sept. 16.—Joe Teft, a prominent farmer of this vicinity, was thrown from a wagon yesterday evening at the Mariner ranch, sustaining a dislocated shoulder and several severe bruises.

THE WAY OUT From Weakness to Power by Food Route Getting the right start for the day's work often means the difference between doing things in wholesome comfort, or dragging along half dead all day. There's more in the use of proper food than many people ever dream of—more's the pity.

FISHTRAP OWNERS WILL BE ARRESTED (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Astoria, Sept. 16.—Darryl Mack has located 21 fish traps operating contrary to Oregon laws. Prosecuting Attorney Brown has issued warrants for owners and arrests will follow.

SECRETARY OF FISHERMEN'S UNION ADVISES OREGON FISHERMEN TO TAKE OUT WASHINGTON LICENSES, AND THUS SECURE PROTECTION.

Secretary Rosenberg of the Fishermen's union at Astoria is advising all members who fish on the Oregon shore to take out Washington licenses, so that in the event of the United States supreme court upholding the right of Warden McAllister to enforce the initiative fishing law violators of this law come under the protection of the commonwealth of Washington.

Rosenberg's action is causing unfavorable comment not only on the part of the Oregon officials who are trying to enforce the law, but also on the part of veteran netters and trappers on the lower river who, while they think the law is unjust and absurd, do not want to embarrass the fish warden, who is only trying to do his duty.

Reports from deputies near Astoria today say that the gill netters on the river have about given up attempts at fishing. Some of them have been arrested three times already and in the event they are convicted they are liable to a fine that may aggregate $1,600, should the judge decide to give them the limit.

Friends of Governor Hearst Congratulate Upon Him. (United Press Leased Wire.) Albany, Or., Sept. 16.—Governor Charles E. Hughes arrived here today from Warsaw and said that he was deeply affected by the kind assurances and assurances of support and promises that he would give the state the best service it is possible for him to give, if re-elected. The governor's commendation of the platform adopted by the convention, saying he would make his views public in speeches or in officially issued statements.

GOVERNOR TESTIFIES $10,000 SUIT FOR FEES Governor Chamberlain was called as the first witness in the circuit court this morning in the trial of the suit brought by E. B. Watson against M. B. Rankin, in which the former is seeking to collect $10,000 as attorney fees in connection with the sale of 8,000 acres of land. The title to the land runs from the state land board to Stephen A. D. Pater, then to the Abiqua Mining company, which was the Trust company and finally from the latter to Rankin.

REV. ANDREAS BARD, WALLA WALLA'S UNCONVENTIONAL PASTOR, RESIGNS (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Walla Walla, Sept. 16.—Rev. Andreas Bard, who for the past 10 years has been pastor of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, has announced his resignation, announcing that he wishes to study in Germany. The act was entirely a surprise, and the resignation was given in its most gifted pulpit orator and poet. Besides being a preacher of note, he has written several publications which have been published with approval by men of literary ability. Among these are his tragedy, "Gloria," his novel, "Scattered Leaves" and a volume of verse "Scattered Leaves."

SON AND FATHER BOTH HELD TO GRAND JURY $4,000 WORTH HAY GOES UP IN SMOKE (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Drewsey, Or., Sept. 16.—Jim Hamilton, a hay raiser of Drewsey valley, about two miles from here, lost four stacks of hay by fire. The total value of the stacks is placed at $4,000. The wind drove the sparks from a fire which had been started in some foxtail into the stacks before Mr. Hamilton was aware of it.

PROGRAM COMPANY SUES MANAGER BAKER Suit for $10,000 damages against George B. Baker and Bungalow theatre, has been started in the circuit court by J. G. Green and a number of other members of the program company. The suit follows an unsuccessful attempt by the program company to sue Baker for using the programs furnished by it in connection with whom Baker now has a contract.

COMING FROM OHIO WITH 17 NEIGHBORS Thomas Zell of Zanesville, Ohio, is the kind of prospective citizen that warms the cockles of the heart of Secretary Gilmer. In a letter asking for information regarding Oregon received today Mr. Zell says that he is coming to this state in the fall and that he will bring 17 of his neighbors with him when he comes. They will engage in such diversified pursuits as dressmaking, millinery, plumbing, carpentry, fruit-growing and just plain farming.

Rev. A. W. Wilson.

The members of the Columbia Synod of the United Presbyterian church, comprising the presbyteries of Oregon, Idaho and Washington, are holding their annual convention in the Church of the Holy Trinity, corner of Waco street and Grand avenue. The first session was held last night when the convention opened by the reading of the constitution and state of religion.

WRITES FROM ENGLAND FOR MISSING SON Chief Burns of Oregon City Asked to Lend Assistance in Locating Herbert Anderson.

COOPERATION IN CLEARING HOUSES (United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Sept. 16.—To formulate a plan of action among the clearing houses in the United States, Comptroller of the Currency Murray announced today that he will ask the clearing associations throughout the country to appoint committees to consult with him and the bank examiners of the Federal Reserve banks.

EX-CASHIER MUST PUT UP MORE BAIL W. E. Douglas, formerly cashier of the Thiel detective agency of this city, was arrested on a bench warrant issued from the circuit court of Portland and tonight Detective Connors, who was in charge of the prisoner back.

SAYS WIFE SMOKED BRAIN CAPSULES Charging that his wife has been smoking cigarettes in the streets and natural rides while he was at work in an iron foundry, Henry B. Mabie has applied to the circuit court for a bench warrant to bring his wife to court. He says his wife has been unduly gay and has been intoxicated at times while puffing the blue smoke of her "coffin

DISLOCATES SHOULDER (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Blaine, Sept. 16.—Joe Teft, a prominent farmer of this vicinity, was thrown from a wagon yesterday evening at the Mariner ranch, sustaining a dislocated shoulder and several severe bruises.

THE WAY OUT From Weakness to Power by Food Route Getting the right start for the day's work often means the difference between doing things in wholesome comfort, or dragging along half dead all day. There's more in the use of proper food than many people ever dream of—more's the pity.

Secretary Rosenberg of the Fishermen's union at Astoria is advising all members who fish on the Oregon shore to take out Washington licenses, so that in the event of the United States supreme court upholding the right of Warden McAllister to enforce the initiative fishing law violators of this law come under the protection of the commonwealth of Washington.

Rosenberg's action is causing unfavorable comment not only on the part of the Oregon officials who are trying to enforce the law, but also on the part of veteran netters and trappers on the lower river who, while they think the law is unjust and absurd, do not want to embarrass the fish warden, who is only trying to do his duty.

Reports from deputies near Astoria today say that the gill netters on the river have about given up attempts at fishing. Some of them have been arrested three times already and in the event they are convicted they are liable to a fine that may aggregate $1,600, should the judge decide to give them the limit.

Friends of Governor Hearst Congratulate Upon Him. (United Press Leased Wire.) Albany, Or., Sept. 16.—Governor Charles E. Hughes arrived here today from Warsaw and said that he was deeply affected by the kind assurances and assurances of support and promises that he would give the state the best service it is possible for him to give, if re-elected.

GOVERNOR TESTIFIES $10,000 SUIT FOR FEES Governor Chamberlain was called as the first witness in the circuit court this morning in the trial of the suit brought by E. B. Watson against M. B. Rankin, in which the former is seeking to collect $10,000 as attorney fees in connection with the sale of 8,000 acres of land.

REV. ANDREAS BARD, WALLA WALLA'S UNCONVENTIONAL PASTOR, RESIGNS (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Walla Walla, Sept. 16.—Rev. Andreas Bard, who for the past 10 years has been pastor of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, has announced his resignation, announcing that he wishes to study in Germany.

SON AND FATHER BOTH HELD TO GRAND JURY $4,000 WORTH HAY GOES UP IN SMOKE (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Drewsey, Or., Sept. 16.—Jim Hamilton, a hay raiser of Drewsey valley, about two miles from here, lost four stacks of hay by fire. The total value of the stacks is placed at $4,000.

PROGRAM COMPANY SUES MANAGER BAKER Suit for $10,000 damages against George B. Baker and Bungalow theatre, has been started in the circuit court by J. G. Green and a number of other members of the program company.

COMING FROM OHIO WITH 17 NEIGHBORS Thomas Zell of Zanesville, Ohio, is the kind of prospective citizen that warms the cockles of the heart of Secretary Gilmer.