

QUEST FAILS TO FIX BLAME

Nelson's Death, According to Witnesses, Due to Own Carelessness.

As no one, so far as the coroner could learn, witnessed the accident which resulted in the death of Henry Nelson Tuesday, the inquest, at the Dunning, McKee & Gilgibach chapel this morning resulted in no blame for his death being fixed.

BOURNE SQUASHED

The committee represented to Secretary McArthur that the work of Mr. Young was being done by the authority and appointment of John Raymond, president of the National League of Republican Clubs. The league here desired to work in conjunction and in harmony with the central committee.
