

REMEMORANDOUS CROWD BY HEARS BRYAN SPEAK 50,000 BOXES N. Y. FIRM

New York City Democratic Campaign Opened Under Auspices of Tammany—Party Policies and Principles Aply Discussed by Candidate.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Sept. 19.—William Jennings Bryan opened the Democratic campaign in this city with a speech which was vociferously cheered by a tremendous crowd which gathered in Carnegie hall. The meeting was held under the auspices of Tammany. Thousands of persons who could not enter the building held an overflow meeting.

Secretary Smith of Tammany called the mass meeting to order.
Mr. Bryan began his speech on "Republican tendencies." He spoke as follows:

Parties are to be measured not merely by the things actually done, but by their tendencies. Since it is easier to remedy evils in the beginning than after they are full grown, it is important to know the tendencies of parties as well as to know how far they have gone. I desire tonight to call attention to some of the tendencies of the Republican party.

Take, for example, the matter of extravagance and expenditures. The tendency of the Republican party is to increase the expenditures of the government of all proportion to the increase of the population. At the session of the present congress those expenditures exceeded $1,000,000,000. This is twice the appropriations of a session of the fifty-first congress, which was the highest appropriation known up to that time.

The appropriations of the last session exceeded the appropriations of the preceding year by $90,000,000—an increase of almost 10 per cent. This increase in the number of office-holders is likewise enormous. The appropriations in the army and navy alone show an increase of $120,000,000 a year over the appropriations of 11 years ago. What excuse can be given for the trebling of the appropriations for army and navy? No nation is untrifling to the United States; no internal causes justify the increase. No outside cause except imperialism can furnish an explanation.

There are two reasons why the Republican leaders are less careful of expenditures than the Democrats. The first is to be found in the fact that the Republican leaders are more intimately associated with the tax-payers than with the taxpayers. They are governed by the public opinion with which they come in contact, they naturally lean toward an explanation. The second reason is to be found in the fact that the Republican leaders have been rationed as to their spending, and they naturally wish to give the people as much of the blessing as possible. They argue that we should have a high tariff whether we need the revenue or not, recognizing that there is some opposition to unnecessary taxation, they try to make the appropriations high enough to compel the extortionate tariff rates demanded by the protectionists. The Democratic party believing that a tax is a necessary evil, endeavors to limit the tax to the actual needs of the government economically administered.

Democratic Plan.
The present campaign presents another tendency of the Republican party, namely to substitute succession for the Democratic plan of popular selection. The great duty of his duty is to select a Republican nominee, and having reached the conclusion that he ought to select such a nominee, he brought the influence of his great office to bear in behalf of the candidate of his personal choice, and is now using his influence to secure the election of the candidate whom he assisted in nominating. If Mr. Roosevelt can pick out the Republican candidate this year and then use the prestige of his office and the influence of the army of office-holders to elect him, may not Mr. Taft pick out a successor and elect him, and so on from administration to administration?

The time to correct this abuse and to stop this tendency is now. If this attempt is successful, it will be accepted as a precedent for another attempt, and the people, having submitted once, will be less aroused by repetition of the attempt.

The third Republican tendency to which I call your attention is the tendency toward Socialism. The Republican party is loud in its denunciation of Socialism, but it is constantly feeding and augmenting the Socialistic spirit. In its latest national platform it boldly declares that reasonable profits should be guaranteed to the protected industries. It defends the principle of monopoly on the theory that competition is hurtful. In taking this position it supports the main contention of the Socialists. Mr. Taft, the Republican candidate, in the speech announcing his candidacy, advocated such amendment of the anti-trust law as would make it apply only to unreasonable restraint of trade. This idea that reasonable restraint of trade is unobjectionable is the entering wedge—it is the first step toward the annihilation of the principle of competition.

Blames G. O. P.
The Democratic party has been called a Socialist party, and I have been denouncing a Socialist party. The Republican party, not the Democratic party, is aiding the Socialist party; and it is evidenced from the fact that Socialist leaders prefer Republican success to Democratic success. They fear the Democratic reforms will retard Socialism, and they believe that Republican abuses can be used to arouse opposition to the entire competitive system. The party would argue with the Socialist, while the Republican denounces him; but the Democratic party would remove the spirit of Socialism and discontinue the abuses that are the foundation of unrest and discontent. The American people and ask that they join us in the inauguration of reforms which will restore the government to its old foundations and win for the government the love of all the people by making it the protector of every class and the friend of every legitimate interest and enterprise.

Apple Deal Involving $90,000 Is Consummated at Hood River.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Hood River, Sept. 19.—An apple sale involving $90,000 took place yesterday when J. H. Steinhart, of the firm of Steinhart & Kelly, Hood River, contracted for 30 cars of winter varieties with the Hood River Apple Growers' union.

The sale is said by Mr. Steinhart and officers of the union to be the biggest and most important one that has taken place on the coast this year. Also, the first outright sale of winter fruit that has been made in the northwest for 1906. So far what few sales have been made have been on the commission basis and the shipments have been small ones.

The terms of the Hood River union's sale are 2 c. a box net at Hood River and include all the Newtown Pippins, Arkansas Blacks, Northern Spies, 4 1/2-tier Spitzenbergs, 1 1/2-tier Baldwin's, five cars of 4-tier Baldwin's and cut cars of Jonathans. Contrary to the procedure by which the union has sold its apples for the past three years—the sealed bid system, a plan which originated with the Hood River organization—the apples have not been advertised for sale this year.

The sale made yesterday indicates that the fruit will move early and while no prices will as yet be given out by the managers of the union, they state that they are highly satisfactory. They give as a reason for not giving out the prices that they have many cars of apples to market and that until they are disposed of they do not consider it good business policy to make public the actual prices received for each variety.

News of the sale to the Steinhart & Kelly company comes somewhat as a surprise, for although this firm has been handling Hood River apples for several years, it has not been known to buy from the firms who purchased them from the firms who purchased the whole crop.
In regard to the sale Mr. Steinhart said:
"I am very much pleased at the success of my efforts in obtaining this large purchase of Hood River apples. Our firm has been handling your fancy apples for several years and they have created a market that cannot be filled by the fruit from any other district. Hood River is the pivotal point around which buyers revolve for the finest grade of apples grown here and the market anywhere in the world, and we and other firms know it. There is no section where the apple crop and prices for it are so carefully watched as Hood River. It seems surprising that such a comparatively small crop of apples as are grown here should be a big figure in the apple world, but it is accounted for by the fact that dealers everywhere recognize that Hood River apples are the absolute standard of excellence in quality and pack. As long as Hood River continues to ship the fine quality apples for which it is noted there will always be a good market for them at high prices. No one concluded that Steinhart & Kelly could sell the prices we paid for the apples, but I don't mind saying that it was a good figure, highly satisfactory to both the union and our firm."
In round numbers the purchase of Steinhart & Kelly will approximate 60,000 boxes of apples. Now that the lot is broken it is expected that other sales will follow. In addition to the sale made to this firm the union will have 15,000 boxes of apples to dispose of. This will constitute the biggest shipment ever handled by the union, but as arrangements have been made to take care of it the announcement of the big sale today allayed considerable uneasiness as to the shipment of western apples in eastern markets this year. This was caused to some extent by the fact that, imitating Hood River's procedure in the past, several cars of growing districts on the coast have attempted to sell their apples by the bid system this year, but have been unsuccessful in doing so.
The announcement of the sale at Hood River is expected to stimulate apple buying throughout the coast and to be the signal for the trade to close up their contracts for fancy western box fruit.

TAFT STATEMENT WAS IN ERROR

Nationalist Party in Philippines Prefers Democratic Success in America.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New Haven, Conn., Sept. 19.—William J. Bryan in an interview today refuted the statement made by William H. Taft on September 15, to the effect that the Independent party in the Philippines preferred a victory for the Republican party and its consequent effect on their independence, to a Bryan victory.
Bryan stated that Fiske and Warren of Boston had cabled to Albert Barreto at Manila, asking if Taft's declarations were true. In his reply Barreto said: "The Nationalist party, with immediate independence as its creed, prefers a triumph of the Democrats. It is the general convention held July 12, it was agreed unanimously to endorse enthusiastically the Bryan platform."

WILBUR WRIGHT WILL FLY ALONE

In Test Monday He Will Have No Companion in Machine.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Lemans, Sept. 19.—In the face of the disaster which occurred to the aeroplane of Orville Wright and resulted in the death of his assistant, Lieutenant Selfridge, a number of persons today offered to accompany his brother, Wilbur Wright, who will make another flight on Monday.
Wright retains great faith in his invention and announced today that he would make no change in the construction of his aeroplane. He considers that the accident to his brother's machine was caused by defective material and not by a fault in the machine itself. While he has entire faith in the ability of his aeroplanes to successfully carry the air, he will not allow any of the volunteers to take the possible risk of accompanying him in Monday's flight, but will take with him a friend of every legitimate interest and enterprise.

LEAGUERS SHUT OUT OF NEVADA

Error in Qualifying Puts the Hearst Party Out of Race in State.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Reno, Nev., Sept. 19.—It is thought today that the independence party will not be able to participate in the November election in Nevada, through failure to comply with all of the requirements regarding the attesting of 10 per cent of the voters to their wish to have that party place its nominees on the state ticket.
While the required number of signatures were secured, it developed last night that those who filed the petition failed to attest to the fact that the signers were qualified to elect and to file the petition is void. It is now too late to remedy the defect.

WILL HILL BUILD GREAT HIGHWAY TO CALIFORNIA?

Purchase of Large Water-front Tract in Frisco Starts Rumor.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Sept. 19.—It is rumored in railroad circles today that the purchase of a site of 1,200 acres by water front on the San Francisco bay accessible to deep water vessels is a move on the part of the Northern Pacific to secure a terminal in this city. The purchase was made ostensibly for the Hoteling railroad, which is announced to be a merger of several small roads in this state. "This railroad is practically a terminal company for a future transcontinental line into San Francisco," said Manager Charles W. Conliffe today and it is this statement that is puzzling railroad men.

GREAT HIGHWAY FOR TWO STATES

Road From San Diego to Portland Urged by Good Roads Convention.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 19.—The good roads meeting held in this city today under the direction of the Sacramento Valley Development association, was entirely successful. Nat Ellery, state engineer; R. M. Morton, government expert, Hon. Marshall Diggs and J. M. Eddy, secretary of the California Good Roads association, were among the speakers. Definite policy was outlined to work up a sentiment among the people for the legislature to vote to submit a bond election to vote $18,000,000 for state highways. The intention is to interest Oregon in a similar project and insure a great highway from Portland to San Diego.

ARMY OFFICER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—Brooding over the condition of his health, and the possibility of his becoming insane, until he became temporarily deranged and attempted to end his life, Lieutenant Felix W. Motlow is in a critical condition at the general hospital of the Presidio today, his throat badly gashed with a razor. Motlow was a patient at the hospital made the attempt at self-destruction yesterday, during the absence of his nurse. He was weak from loss of blood before he discovered he had injured himself. He promised not to repeat the attempt. A brother, Lieutenant William G. Motlow, is confined at St. Elizabeth's asylum, Washington, his mind giving way about a year ago. Worry over his condition and the fear that he might become similarly afflicted, is supposed to have driven Felix to the rash act. Both brothers are well known in social circles in San Francisco.

PROSPEROUS TIMES AT NORTH POWDER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Powder, Or., Sept. 19.—This city is enjoying one of the most prosperous eras in its history. Business in every line is flourishing and there is a brisk demand for both city and farm property adjoining. A number of important business changes have taken place.
Thomas Burns, of the firm of Burns & Staines, proprietors of the late Stockman's exchange, has purchased his partner's interest in the saloon building, one of the best business houses and locations in the town. Mr. Burns will rent the saloon-rooms and put in a full line of high-class goods, restoring the resort to its old-time usefulness as a club for stockmen, hotel guests and business men, without the intoxicant and gambling features of the saloon.
Ex-Postmaster G. D. Thomlinson has purchased from H. H. Miller of Baker City the site of the hotel, river stable and opera-house destroyed by fire last year. This is one of the most desirable pieces of business property on Front street.
The North Powder Mercantile & Milling company today purchased the building on their lot, occupied by the firm of Burns & Staines. It will be fitted up for the office of the Mercantile & Milling company by October 1.
Myron Riggs, of the firm of Riggs & Hazles, began at once the erection of a store building on Center street for the accommodation of the Burns & Riggs millinery business.
G. McCreger, who is to put in a packing-house on his lot across the railroad on Front street, is completing a dwelling for his family.

READY HELP FOR ANXIOUS WOMEN

It is nearly time for the work of dressmaking for fall. This year there need be no great rush on the part of women who have had to wait till they knew what was to be good in the new styles.
The Journal, always alive to the interests of its women readers, has made the way easy for this season. With photographs of the new French styles and drawings which have been sent from Paris by Jeanette Hope they can go to work with their planning at once and be sure that they will be in advance of those who wait for the belated issues of the fashion periodicals for the same suggestions and helps.
The fall fashion number of the woman's section, with all that is latest in the world of fashion, will be out Sunday, September 20.

BOOKS DOOMED BOTH THESE MEN

A commercial traveler told us of two unusual recoveries in supposed incurable kidney disease in Massachusetts. He gave interesting details and told us to write Druggist L. E. Carter of Georgetown, Mass., who was instrumental in saving the lives of the patients. We wrote to Carter. He now confirms the report in the following short letter:

The address of the patient at Hamilton, Mass., is Geo. E. Roberts, and the lively, stable keeper at Wenhams Depot is Mr. A. C. Cummings—both fully recovered. I shall always recommend your compounds and do the best I can to have people afflicted use them.

Simply two more recoveries made by Fulton's Renal Compound after other kidney medicines had failed. How can you people who have any kind of kidney trouble expect to get well on the old fiddle kidney patients when the census shows that out of every 100 of them passed out from a form of the disease that was incurable up to the date the patient worked out his Renal Compound?

Due to the failure of the old-time kidney medicines, the kidney disease now occurs every nine minutes. Don't there seem here for serious reflection for the man who is on his way to the drug store for kidney pills? Druggist L. E. Carter, 151 Third Street, Baltimore, Md.

INJUNCTION HAS BECOME EFFECTIVE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 19.—The temporary injunction granted by Federal Judge Trierer of Little Rock to the Kansas City Southern railway restraining the Arkansas railroad commissioners from enforcing the freight tariff law and the two-cent passenger rate law is effective today.
The court required the railroad company to execute a bond guaranteeing reparation in all cases of overcharging provided that the court in the final decision, in favor of the complainant.
The railroad is required to issue to each passenger a coupon with the ticket showing the price paid for each shipment of freight and receipt showing the amount he would have paid if no overcharges had been made. Should the overcharges be discovered, the railroad must return this difference to passengers and shippers with interest.
