Special Opening Display Dress Fabrics

The most extensive and authoritative display that even this big dress goods store has ever found it possible to make. The best weaves from the leading manufacturers of wool cloths and silks are shown here in plentiful profusion. The season's prevailing shades and weaves exhibited in abundant plenty. The display will impress all beholders with the immensity of the assortment and the excellence of the values. Note the window displays; take heed of the new shades shown; pay careful attention to the low prices asked. With a buying prestige that enables us to select at will from the best manufacturers, this season's stock far surpasses that of any other year. In place of the fancy effects featured in past seasons, this fall's fabrics tend to more subdued hues and serviceable materials especially suitable for the Oregon climate.

Wool Dress Goods in plain colored effects and self stripes. Hard-finished worsteds, cheviots, broadcloths, etc., lead for the standard tailored gowns. Novelty vanity boxes, paper knives, letter seals, stamp boxes, etc.

The Famous Royal Worcester Corsets

Have been the favorite of the more discriminating women of the United States for over 50 years. Half a century ago this mammoth factory began making the best corsets in America, and today they are the best still—and more of them than any one establishment in the world. One GOOD store in each city is privileged to handle Royal Worcesters. Ours is that store in Portland, and we sell them because they are the best we can find. Over 100 models, one to fit every figure and to suit every purse. This season's models give the desired full waisted yet graceful effect, sought by smart dressers. Expert fitters with a magnificent stock to choose from, so you're sure to be correctly corsetted.
