Henry Gray Shows Grandstand He Can Travel— Races at Salem.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Sept. 19.—Though not as exciting as Friday's card, those who saw today's events were well pleased. Henry Gray, who won two heats after falling in the 2:19 trotting event Friday and then was not allowed to go into the last heat because the sun went down too soon, successfully captured the fifth heat in the race today. The grandstand was delighted, for all were with the gelding after he fell.

The 2:09 trot for the Rural Spirit purse failed to develop fast time. John Caldwell was an easy winner over Athanah and R. Ambush in three straight heats. R. Ambush, who held the trotting record on the Salem track until Wednesday at 2:13, was distanced in the second heat, and could not qualify for a third money even. The best time made was 2:11.

The most interesting race today was the $1,000 consolation trot in the 2:14 class—Della Derby first, Vallejo Girl second, Leland Onward third, Easter Belle fourth, Time, 2:11 1/2.

Summary of track events today: Trotting, 2:19 class, $800 purse (unfinished yesterday)—Henry Gray, first; Monierat second; Combront third; Easter Belle fourth. Time, 2:14 1/2. Rural Spirit purse, $1,000, 2:09 class—John Caldwell, first; Athanah, second. Time, 2:11. Trotting consolation, $1,000 purse, 2:14 class—Della Derby, first; Vallejo Girl, second; Leland Onward, third; Easter Belle, fourth. Time, 2:11 1/2.

GREEKS GO BUGS AGAINST ANGELS Hitting and Fielding Buy Nothing When Ignorant Base Running Intrudes.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Sept. 19.—For the hundredth time the Oaks learned that mad old season today—whacking the sphere on the nose and fielding in nifty style are not all of baseball. The use of a little judgment on the bugs wins nine ounces, while heavy hitting is winning one.

The Angels made four bingles in the contest at Recreation park and the Oaks 15. By doing the right thing at the right time the southerners turned their messy four out into four runs. The Oaks did not know what to do after getting on the base and their dozen hits only resulted in three tallies.

Chicago After Damages. Chicago, Sept. 19.—The city's financial situation is gloomy, today, as the Illinois athletic club, today, announced that it was unable to pay $1,000 damages to the city for the destruction of the club's building by fire last night. The club is now in a state of liquidation and its assets are being sold to pay its debts.

WINNERS OF SALEM'S $5000 CLASSICS WHO RACE HERE

Leland Onward, Fastest Pacer at the State Fair.

WINNERS NAMED IN TENNIS GAMES

Goodwin and Arthur Capture Exciting Match From Goss and Freeman.

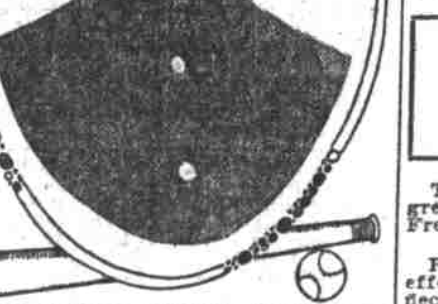

Goodwin and Arthur in the doubles, Miss Frohman and Miss Fordling in the ladies' doubles and Dan Bellinger in the men's singles, were the winners in the National tournament which came to a close yesterday afternoon. The tournament has been under way for the past two weeks and yesterday were these three events decided. The winners are all popular at the club, Bellinger especially, for he has been a championship contender for several years and besides is prominent in other lines.

Goss and Freeman gave Goodwin and Arthur a hard fight for the men's doubles and it was only after five grueling sets that the event was decided. Goss and Freeman started out well and captured the first set 2-6. The next one went into extra innings as the baseball fan would say, with Goodwin and Arthur the victors 9-7. Goss and Freeman took the third, but the next two went to Goodwin and Arthur by 6-4 scores.

Miss Frohman and Miss Fordling had little trouble winning their event although they were given a hard fight in the first game. The second went to them by a 6-0 score. Miss Campbell and Mrs. Judge were their opponents.

Dan Bellinger and Farrell hooked up in the finals for the men's singles. Bellinger made a clean sweep of the event, taking three straight 6-1, 6-0, 7-5.

THIS IS FLYNN

Coming from Rochester, the home of good umpires, Flynn has been an umpire since next door to Flynn's home in Rochester. Klem, the National league umpire, lived in the same neighborhood.

Hal Danzig, the Beaver first baseman, to Fred Lake, the new Boston American manager, who has just been named manager of the Boston Red Sox. He has known Dan for years. He also knew Jack Graney in the east.

Flynn is studying to be a physician, and intends returning to college to take his degree as soon as the present Coast league season is over.

DOUBLE HEADER AT BALL PARK TODAY

A double-header is on the boards at the ball park this afternoon, the first game being called at 2 o'clock. Manager of the Seals will send Patrick, the Portland outfielder, to the mound in the first game and will probably use Harry Sutor in an effort to win at least one game of the seven. Groom will be one of the local sabelers and Garrett the other, according to manager McCredie's plans last night. McCredie, both are feeling well.

Big Gallery Watches National Golf Champion Retain His Coveted Title.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Garden City, L. I., Sept. 19.—Maintaining the same remarkable form that he has displayed since the qualifying round, James D. Travers of Montclair, N. Y., national golf champion, retained his title in the finals today, defeating Max Behr of Morristown, N. Y., his youthful opponent, eight up and seven to play, in a 36-hole match.

Travers negotiated the first round in 76, one under bogey. His greater steadiness stood him in good stead and kept Behr on the defensive all the time.

Behr put up a stubborn fight until the eighth hole, when Travers made a runaway race of it, winning six holes in succession. Four of these holes were made in bogey and two a stroke below.

Behr braced temporarily, having the next three holes and taking the next eighteenth and again halving the eighteenth. The first round saw Travers five up.

Travers took things a bit easier in the afternoon round. He halved five holes, lost one and won three. After that everything that was necessary was to capture the tenth and halve the twelfth. A gallery of 1,000 golf lovers followed the afternoon play.

Behr put up a stubborn fight until the eighth hole, when Travers made a runaway race of it, winning six holes in succession. Four of these holes were made in bogey and two a stroke below.

An interesting operation was performed on a dog the other day that was thought to have been poisoned by the bite of a snake. This dog is "Gully," winner of the second prize for bull terriers at the last bench show. He is the property of Thomas Kerr, of this city, and is the special pride and pet of Mr. Kerr's family.

"Owners of cup-winning canines," said Dr. Carney, a well known local veterinarian, "should be especially careful of cases of sickness that comes under their notice as they would for poisoning. In many instances the dog is suffering from the bite of a snake and receive entirely different treatment. The result is that many fine animals are lost to the world."

Many of the so-called cases of poisoning are really nothing but deaths from some disease or derangement of the canine system that could have been remedied if the owners only knew what was the matter. In stead of consulting a veterinarian, however, they cry "dog poisoner."

On Eastern Diamonds

The Boston Americans have played better under the management of Fred Lake.

Rumors float thick and fast to the effect that Clark Griffith will be connected with the St. Louis Nationals next season.

Jack Frick, the Eastern league pitcher, was notified recently of a $50,000 bundle left him by an uncle who died in Pennsylvania.

Detroit fans claim that their great hitting trio, Cobb, Crawford and Roseman, will win the flag for the Tigers.

Addie Joss, the Cleveland pitcher, says the Chicago White Sox can't hit, can't field, can't do anything in fact, but play baseball that wins.

In the Pennsylvania-West Virginia league the champion Uniontown club is known as the "Garlics," evidently because it is composed of "well seasoned" players who make up a "strong" team.

Right Fielder Demmitt of Newark holds the Eastern league record for errors in one game. Out of a total of 19 errors made by Newark in a recent game with Providence Demmitt made 6.

Everybody seems to be hearing and a youngster shows a little baseball. Last season Larry Doyle, the New York Giant, was the ranked dub who ever blew out of the Eastern League, but at present every one's middle name is Doyle.

Manager Fred Clark has the Pittsburgh team going on ball bearings and the Pirates don't win the National league pennant no blame can be pinned on Frederick.

ARMOUR, FAR IN LEAD, SEIZED WITH CONVULSIONS AND HEART DILATES.

Mrs. Samuel Sloane Chauncey Weds De Braganza, a Duke's Son.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Sept. 19.—Albert J. Corey unattached, of Chicago, this afternoon won the fourth annual Marathon race of the Illinois Athletic club from a field of 80 starters. Sidney Hatch, Illinois Athletic club, and one of the London Marathon runners finished second, a minute behind Corey, and John A. Feltes, unattached, was third.

Corey's official time was 2:57:30, 16 minutes slower than the record for the course set last year by Daniel Bennett of Hamilton, Ont., who covered the distance in 2:41:32. Hatch was clocked up on the leader and finished with Corey finished in 3:15:00, far behind Feltes.

J. J. Armour of the First Regiment Athletic club had a race practically won up to the last mile, when he was far ahead of schedule and bid fair to smash the record, but with convulsions and had to be carried from the course.

For a time it was feared his condition was critical, but he recovered later. Attending physicians believe he will carry a dilated heart for the rest of his life.

Both Hatch and Corey ran a strong race. Hatch was coming so strongly at the finish that had the course been one block longer he would have overtaken the leader and won. Out of 85 entries 80 started. Corey took the lead in the way in and in the last two miles let himself out, closing up a big gap rapidly. He could not overtake the winner, however, before the finish line was reached.

(Herald News by Longest Leased Wire.) London, Sept. 19.—A news dispatch from Vienna says that Prince Miguel de Braganza, eldest son of the duke of the same name, who is the pretender to the Portuguese throne, has secretly married Mrs. Samuel Sloane Chauncey, the American widow. The couple have left Vienna for Paris.

Ever since Mrs. Chauncey has been abroad gossip at the various foreign capitals has been linking her name with some celebrity or other. This is the first time, however, that it has been asserted that her romance has passed the engagement. It was reported once that she was to marry Lord Kitcheener of Khartoum; again it was Frivy Councillor Arnold Morey; then it was the late Sir James Smith. Mrs. Chauncey was originally a Kentucky belle, daughter of J. H. Carr of Louisville. She married Samuel Sloane Chauncey, a rich New York broker, in 1893. After Mr. Chauncey's death in the late '90s his widow went abroad and has lived on the other side ever since.

Her beauty and fortune have made her widely sought after. To these attractions she has added a grace and tact, too. She is a favorite in London and Paris as well as Vienna.

Prince Miguel de Braganza is noted chiefly because he is the son of his father. He is second, therefore, in the pretender's line to the throne. He is not over 20 years of age, while his bride is perhaps 10 years his senior.

Forest Fires' Awful Record

Miramonte, New Brunswick, October, 1825, three towns destroyed, 160 persons perished, a thousand head of stock destroyed, almost every living thing killed in rivers and on land of more than 1,500,000 acres, not including timber value, $300,000.

Festigo, Wis., October, 1871, between 1,000 and 1,500 persons killed, 2,000 square miles burned over. Property loss estimated at many millions.

Michigan, fall of 1871, strip of 40 miles across the central part of the state from Lake Michigan to Lake Huron, devastated, several hundred persons perished. Loss, $10,000,000.

Michigan, early part of September, 1881, burned region 1,800 square miles. Loss of life estimated at from 150 to 500; 5,000 persons destitute. Loss $1,300,000.

Pinkney, Minn., September 1, 1894, seven towns destroyed, 418 lives lost, 2,000 persons destitute. Loss $25,000,000.

Washington and Oregon, in 1903, property valued at $90,000,000. British Columbia, July, 1908, Fernia and adjacent towns wiped out. Loss estimated at $100,000.

Minnesota, September, 1908, fire still raging. Estimated loss thus far $4,000,000.

Electrical Definitions. Alternating current. That form of electric current whose direction of flow reverses a given number of times per second.

Amperes. Unit of current. It is the quantity of electricity which will flow through a resistance of one ohm under a pressure of one volt.

Armature. That part of a dynamo or motor which carries the windings that are rotated in the magnetic field.

Circuit. Conducting path for electric current.

Circuit-breaker. Apparatus for automatically opening a circuit.

Electromagnet. A mass of iron which is magnetized by the passage of current through a coil of wire wound around the mass, but insulated therefrom.

Fuse. A short piece of conducting material of low melting point which is inserted in a circuit and which will melt and open the circuit when the current reaches a certain value.

Galvanometer. Instrument for measuring current strength.

Insulator. Any substance impervious to the passage of electricity.

Kilowatt. One thousand watts. (See watt.)

Motor generator. Combined motor and generator for changing alternating to direct current or vice versa.

Ohm. The unit of resistance. It is arbitrarily taken as the resistance of a column of mercury one square millimeter in cross sectional area and 106 centimeters in length.

Poles. Terminals of an open electric circuit.

Potential. Voltage. Resistance. The quality of an electric conductor by virtue of which it opposes the passage of electric current. The unit of resistance is the ohm.

Switch. Device for opening and closing an electric circuit.

Transformer. A device for stepping-up or stepping-down alternating current from low to high or high to low voltage, respectively.

Volt. Unit of electromotive force or potential. It is the electromotive force which, if steadily applied to a conductor whose resistance is one ohm, will produce a current of one ampere.

Voltage. Potential difference or electromotive force.

Watt. Unit representing the rate of work of electrical energy. It is the rate of work of one ampere flowing under a potential of one volt. Seven hundred and forty-one watts represent one electrical horsepower.

Watt-hour. Electrical unit of work. Represents work done by one watt expended for one hour.

Coffee growing is an industry well suited to the Philippines and Java, etc. from Manila, Java and Ceylon, the highest-priced on the London market. In 1883 there were exported from Manila 15,732,871 pounds of coffee, but in 1893 the coffee plantations were attacked by a borer and the industry almost ruined. The borer was imported into the Philippines. Efforts are being made to stamp out this pest, and the Philippines will probably in the future rank as a large coffee producer.

PHYSICAL TEACHERS MEET IN AFTERNOON

Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium Will Be Scene of Session of Athletic Directors.

With a background composed of the Y. M. C. A. leaders' club and the physical committee men, G. A. Smith of Vancouver, B. C., will have a practical illustration to draw upon when he talks this afternoon upon "Muscular Religion" at the association auditorium.

Boxing gloves and fencing sticks, razors, exercisers and dumbbells in numbers will together aid in giving a somewhat novel appearance to the meeting organized solely under the auspices of the physical department.

Prominent among the platform men will be the leading physical directors of the city who have been invited to come and outline their work. Physical Director Grilley, following Mr. Smith's address Mr. Grilley will himself make the first statement of the work he hopes to accomplish in the big "gym" in what will be his final season under Y. M. C. A. management.

Many a minor leaguer would like to have the opportunity with the Philadelphia Athletics that is throwing away. All reports agree that Jackson is a great ball player and would make good and still he wants nothing to do with the major leagues.

Southern league scribes are taking a crack at Manager "Bill" Smith of Atlanta. "Bill" took on such a savage grouch that it nearly placed him "persona non grata." If there is such a thing as that, over the whole southern circuit.

That $25,000 damage suit of Umpire W. T. Bullock against Manager George Stallings will come up for trial next week at Rochester. That's a lot of money. What on earth would an umpire do with such a bundle? And George loses what kind of money will he use in settling?

Matrimonial. From the Washington Post. A woman writer has attracted a great deal of attention with an article on "Why I Would Not Marry My Husband Again." We haven't read it, but we are sure she didn't include in her list of reasons the possibility that he wouldn't give her a divorce.

PACIFIC FOOTBALL MEN ARE PRACTICING (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., Sept. 19.—Football started off briskly at Pacific. Last night Coach Hahn put the football men through their first practices. If enthusiasm counts for anything in the college game, Pacific will be in the swim. Every boy in college is out and a fight for positions is on. Some of the old players have not yet returned, but their places are filled by new material.

Rexford, Dietyra and Mayfield are the most promising of the new men. Rexford and Dietyra are both old players, who will make valuable additions to the team. The indications of rain here beam at 300 pounds, is fleet of foot, and when he gets under way with the ball it will take a whole team to stop him.

Hahn has been cast this fall and has brought back some players that are winners. With an early start and the speedy back field and ends, Mr. Hahn will have an opportunity to perfect his numerical strength.
