

Town Topics

TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS.

Hellig... The Gilded Fool... The Royal Chef... Grand... Vaudeville... Pathos... The Nell Gwynn... Lyric... Tennessee's Partner... The Gilded Fool...

Great factory mistake shoe sale at 321 Morrison street. Labels wrong on fall shoes just arrived. Marks name instead of Dellar's. Factory stands loss and orders us to sell them at a sacrifice.

Fred L. Olson, justice of the peace, was operated upon for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital this morning. He has suffered several attacks in the last few months, and was at last told an operation should be performed while in good health and vigor.

With two deer to his credit, George J. Quinlan, clerk of the justice court, has returned after a vacation spent in Cow Creek canyon, Douglas county. The party of four, of which Mr. Quinlan was the leader, bagged five deer in the rough hills west of West Fork. One young buck was shot straight through the heart but ran 75 yards before it dropped.

Rev. J. W. McDougal, pastor of the Mount Zion Methodist church, was presented with a gold watch last evening at the close of the services. The church members are anxious that Rev. McDougal remain with the Mount Zion congregation and have sent a petition to the general conference requesting that he be recalled for another year.

Mary E. Scott has sued for divorce from Alvah Scott, whom she married in Lancaster, Neb., in March, 1899. She alleges that she was deserted in June, 1907. She asks for the custody of the child, Perry Games has begun suit for divorce from Maud Games, alleging infidelity. They were married in Vancouver, Wash., in September, 1905.

Messrs. Edward Drake and W. L. Swan, both formerly employed by Meier & Frank company for many years, are showing exclusive styles in ladies' cloaks and suits at their new store, 415 Washington street. Don't take advantage of their introductory prices. Your inspection cordially invited.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks or washing porches or windows must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 8 and 8 a. m. and 3 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules or wastefully, it will be shut off.

Fred C. Hoecker, the attorney, who for several years past has occupied offices in the Chamber of Commerce building, may now be found at 216 Beck building, corner Seventh and Oak streets. Mr. Hoecker is a law partner of Mr. Beck, one of the owners of the building.

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Oregon Institute of Phrenology, which will issue a journal of $200, and propose, among other things, to publish a journal of phrenology. The incorporators are G. S. Dove, F. R. Sizer and P. M. Chasco.

Mayor Lane has received an invitation from Omaha to attend with the council the twelfth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities which takes place in the Nebraska city from October 31 to November 2 inclusive.

People who either left a razor and 2 knives, 3 keys, a blue print, a book, 7 packages, a gold watch, a grip or a belt can recover them by calling at Lost Article room, First and Alder streets.

Free to Any Man—Fine suit of clothes to every twenty-fifth man that orders a suit. Werner Peterson company, tailors, 145 Second street, near Morrison.

Any poor girl needing a friend, help, or advice, can apply or write to Madron, Adjutant J. Peterson, 292 East Fifteenth north, Portland, Or.

Twenty-five to 50 per cent reductions on crockery, cut glass, hand-painted china, etc. Helig China & Glass company, 352 Morrison, near Park.

Steamer Jessie Harkins, for Camas, Washougal and way landings, daily except Sunday. Leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m.

Battle Creek Baths—Ladies days, gentlemen nights, Main 1938, A-1938. Third floor, Oregonian building.

Woman's Exchange, 133 Tenth street, lunch 11:30 to 2; business men's lunch.

Dr. Hayes, optician, 308 Selmon, near Fifth, formerly with A. N. Wright.

D. Chambers & Son, opticians, 321 Morrison street, corner of Sixth.

W. A. Wise and associates, painless dentists, Third and Washington.

S. S. Gillespie has removed his law office to 202 Fenton bldg.

Kolb and Dill in Town Again With a Hurricane of Mirth and Laughter

Absence makes the heart grow fonder of Kolb and Dill. We have grown so very fond of the two comedians that we couldn't wait for the curtain to go up at the Helig last night, and that part of us that sat in the gallery began calling wildly at 8 o'clock sharp, imploring the well beloved ones to appear and set aside any idle rumors that they were not the real thing. This good crowd waxed and grew stronger until somewhere along about 2:45 when the real pair did appear, the same old Kolb and Dill just as funny as ever, and the best Weber & Field comedians that ever Webered and Fielded.

Perhaps the best thing about Kolb and Dill as comedians is that they know when to stop. When they stop the ring on the chorus, and it's a good looking chorus with youth and spirit to help it out. Any when you begin to tire of the chorus again Kolb and Dill are right there waiting to commence and you think at first that they are as welcome as the flowers in May or June or whatever particular month it is.

And lest you should tire of their efforts as comedians they have the other side of the coin, they are very good as comedians. Mr. Clifford, Mr. Clifford, Mr. Clifford was evidently picked from the vaudeville field, there some good things do grow, and he has that old-time dancing step that vaudevillians used to have. He is quick and energetic and he follows the Kolb and Dill as a comedian.

"Lonesome Town" is very Californian. That means of course that the scenes are pretty, the girls are gay and the music is that you are kind you have seen it. It also means Misson Bell songs and other characteristics of the West. This Misson Bell song is particularly worthy of mention. As sung by the "Lonesome Town" chorus it is a gem.

"After Nancy" is good enough to whistle until Christmas, and Maud Lambert's "The Girl of the Golden West" is good enough to make you want to see more of her. There are other good ones, but if you are in anyway attracted to German comedians or to the Weber and Field school of comedy, the only thing for you to do is to go and see the Helig season with a laugh. Those who have tears to shed can prepare to hang onto them for a while longer.

Bungalow—"A Gilded Fool." Izetta Jewell's reputation as a pretty woman will suffer no damage as a result of her appearance in "A Gilded Fool" at the Bungalow this week. As Margaret Ruthven she has an opportunity to wear prettier frocks than ever, to be more girlish and attractive, and to quite captivate her audience, and she does it all serenely and easily. The opportunity of watching Miss Jewell is perhaps the best thing about the Baker performance this week.

The Nell Gwynne play is a familiar one. Without being particularly powerful or novel it is entertaining, for the Helig part of it is so good and the Helig might well played by the Baker stock company. Mr. Ayres, in the role of Chancy Short, the fool, while not the best of the Helig company, is successful, and pleases his audience with his impersonation.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks or washing porches or windows must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 8 and 8 a. m. and 3 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules or wastefully, it will be shut off.

Fred C. Hoecker, the attorney, who for several years past has occupied offices in the Chamber of Commerce building, may now be found at 216 Beck building, corner Seventh and Oak streets. Mr. Hoecker is a law partner of Mr. Beck, one of the owners of the building.

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Oregon Institute of Phrenology, which will issue a journal of $200, and propose, among other things, to publish a journal of phrenology. The incorporators are G. S. Dove, F. R. Sizer and P. M. Chasco.

Mayor Lane has received an invitation from Omaha to attend with the council the twelfth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities which takes place in the Nebraska city from October 31 to November 2 inclusive.

People who either left a razor and 2 knives, 3 keys, a blue print, a book, 7 packages, a gold watch, a grip or a belt can recover them by calling at Lost Article room, First and Alder streets.

Free to Any Man—Fine suit of clothes to every twenty-fifth man that orders a suit. Werner Peterson company, tailors, 145 Second street, near Morrison.

Any poor girl needing a friend, help, or advice, can apply or write to Madron, Adjutant J. Peterson, 292 East Fifteenth north, Portland, Or.

Twenty-five to 50 per cent reductions on crockery, cut glass, hand-painted china, etc. Helig China & Glass company, 352 Morrison, near Park.

Steamer Jessie Harkins, for Camas, Washougal and way landings, daily except Sunday. Leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m.

Battle Creek Baths—Ladies days, gentlemen nights, Main 1938, A-1938. Third floor, Oregonian building.

Woman's Exchange, 133 Tenth street, lunch 11:30 to 2; business men's lunch.

Dr. Hayes, optician, 308 Selmon, near Fifth, formerly with A. N. Wright.

The Baker—"The Royal Chef."

James Gleason's Bannister Strange is as good as anything he has ever done, and shows an improvement over his young-old men parts of last season. Miss Kent as Sophie Ruthven has comparatively little to do, but looked well, and Mrs. Gleason in the role of an old maid caricature had a good comedy part.

Owen Blasier, the company's new juvenile, very blond, very young and very much dressed up, had a small part as De Fuyter Rutven, but carried it off capably. Howard Russell was an entertaining waiter. Although well staged generally, the second act showing a library in the birthday home was amusing because it looked like Seattle. There wasn't a book in it.

"The Girl of the Golden West," the greatest stock event ever in this city, will open at the Bungalow next Sunday, and so great has been the demand for seats that Manager Baker has decided to sell for the entire week all at once. The sale is now on.

"I feel like a spotted cat having a fit in a dish of stewed tomatoes," laments the alleged comedian in "The Royal Chef," which has returned to Portland for the third time and is to be seen at the Baker theatre. That about describes the "glittering music comedy" itself. The book itself is messy, about as you would expect the cat to be after his old-time dancing step that vaudevillians used to have.

A musical comedy ought to be very good. That is the only excuse for its being. And if it is to be presented more than one season the jokes ought to be furnished up a bit as well as the costumes. Some of the alleged jokes in "The Royal Chef" really ought to be retired on pensions. They have long since passed the age limit. There are a few hastily prepared local hits which don't specially irritate with wit and there are several special features, laboriously dragged in by the ears.

Of course, some of the music is fairly familiar and not bad, such as "Let Me Go Back," "O'Reilly," and "In the Morning." And the "Besoin d'Amour" is dragged in without any perceptible reason. It would, however, be a relief if it were even passably sung, but it is an unappreciated song sung in about an unimpassioned manner as possible.

The chorus is passable as to looks. In fact, some of the chorus girls are better than the passable—but it is evident that singing had nothing to do with their selection. However, they do better than most of the principals in singing. There isn't a voice in the cast.

In the cast of characters, Julia Curtis as Kitty O'Reilly, maid to the principals, is really the only one worthy of mention. She shows appreciation of her part and plays it not only as she sings, but as if she enjoyed it. Donald Mackenzie as Lord Mito might be worse, which is better than can be said of the other principals. Probably off the stage he is really a human being and walks, talks and breathes as other human beings do, but on the stage he is a caricature of signs of animation. William H. Conley in the title role may be a real comedian, but he forgets last night to sing, although he apparently labored hard enough. There may be Germans like his representation of Heinrich in Lemphauser in Chicago. There are none in Portland.

Mary Malatesta as Princess Teto, the Rajah's daughter, is painfully affected. She has a stiff way of acting, and her who plays opposite her as Harry Parkes, Lieutenant U. S. S. St. Louis. Her part of the play is not successful, and deserves better treatment than they get. But possibly the management did not know what it had booked.

AT THE THEATRES

Kolb and Dill at Helig Tonight. The attraction at the Helig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight at 8:15 o'clock and every part this week, with a special price matinee Saturday, will be the favorite comedians, Kolb and Dill, and the excellent supporting company in the merry musical comedy, "Lonesome Town." Seats are now selling at the theatre for the engagement.

"Nell Gwynne" at the Star. Miss Georgia Harper will be seen at the Star all this week in Paul Kester's comedy drama, "Nell Gwynne." Each member of Miss Harper's supporting company will have a part well suited to them. Joseph Detrick will play the part of King Charles, and the excellent supporting company in the merry musical comedy, "Lonesome Town." Seats are now selling at the theatre for the engagement.

New Grand Bill. Few better vaudeville bills at popular prices have ever been offered in the west than the program which Sullivan & Considine have arranged for the Grand this week. "The Flip Mr. Flop" is the headline act, and in it appears Rube

Welch, the former theatrical manager; Kitzie Francis, the famous comedienne, and Miss Kate Coyne.

"The Royal Chef" at the Baker. Better than ever is the general verdict of those who saw "The Royal Chef" at the Baker yesterday. It will appear at the Baker all this week with matinee tomorrow, Thursday and Saturday. This is the first of the big musical comedies to appear at the Baker this season at popular prices.

"A Gilded Fool" at the Bungalow. Who has not heard of Nat Goodwin's noted comedy, "A Gilded Fool," which the Baker Stock company is presenting this week. Surely no regular theatre-goer. Every one who has not seen it should surely see the Baker company in it this week at the popular Bungalow, and those who have seen it before will enjoy it all over again. Matinee Saturday.

Special Seat Sale. "The Girl of the Golden West," the greatest stock event ever in this city, will open at the Bungalow next Sunday, and so great has been the demand for seats that Manager Baker has decided to sell for the entire week all at once. The sale is now on.

Twenty-five to 50 per cent reductions to close out $15,000 stock crockery, cut glass, hand-painted china, etc. Helig China & Glass company, 352 Morrison.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks or washing porches or windows must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 8 and 8 a. m. and 3 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules or wastefully, it will be shut off.

Fred C. Hoecker, the attorney, who for several years past has occupied offices in the Chamber of Commerce building, may now be found at 216 Beck building, corner Seventh and Oak streets. Mr. Hoecker is a law partner of Mr. Beck, one of the owners of the building.

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Oregon Institute of Phrenology, which will issue a journal of $200, and propose, among other things, to publish a journal of phrenology. The incorporators are G. S. Dove, F. R. Sizer and P. M. Chasco.

Mayor Lane has received an invitation from Omaha to attend with the council the twelfth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities which takes place in the Nebraska city from October 31 to November 2 inclusive.

People who either left a razor and 2 knives, 3 keys, a blue print, a book, 7 packages, a gold watch, a grip or a belt can recover them by calling at Lost Article room, First and Alder streets.

Free to Any Man—Fine suit of clothes to every twenty-fifth man that orders a suit. Werner Peterson company, tailors, 145 Second street, near Morrison.

Any poor girl needing a friend, help, or advice, can apply or write to Madron, Adjutant J. Peterson, 292 East Fifteenth north, Portland, Or.

Twenty-five to 50 per cent reductions on crockery, cut glass, hand-painted china, etc. Helig China & Glass company, 352 Morrison, near Park.

Steamer Jessie Harkins, for Camas, Washougal and way landings, daily except Sunday. Leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m.

Battle Creek Baths—Ladies days, gentlemen nights, Main 1938, A-1938. Third floor, Oregonian building.

Woman's Exchange, 133 Tenth street, lunch 11:30 to 2; business men's lunch.

Dr. Hayes, optician, 308 Selmon, near Fifth, formerly with A. N. Wright.

D. Chambers & Son, opticians, 321 Morrison street, corner of Sixth.

W. A. Wise and associates, painless dentists, Third and Washington.

S. S. Gillespie has removed his law office to 202 Fenton bldg.

F. W. Baites and Company invite your inquiries for PRINTING. Phones Main 165 Home A 1165. First and Oak.

HEILIG Theatre. 14th and Washington. TONIGHT—EVERY NIGHT THIS WEEK. Special Price Matinee Saturday. KOLB & DILL MUSICAL COMEDY. "LONESOME TOWN".

BUNGALOW THEATRE. Home of the famous Baker Stock company. "A GILDED FOOL".

Baker Theatre. Oregon Theatre Co. (Inc.), Lessee. G. L. BAKER, General Manager. "THE GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST".

THE STAR. Matinee Wed., Sat. and Sun. For the Entire Week of Sept. 20. GEORGIA HARPER.

PANTAGES THEATRE. ADVANCED VAUDEVILLE. Engagement Extraordinary of MILE LOUISE.

THE LYRIC. THE BLUEKALL STOCK COMPANY WILL PRESENT Tennessee's Partner. MAMIE HASLAM IN TITLE ROLE.

NICKELODION. 130 SIXTH STREET. Very latest subjects—changed every day.

BASEBALL. RECREATION PARK. COR. VAUGHAN AND 24TH STS. OAKLAND vs. PORTLAND.

Boiled Linseed Oil. 5 GALLON LOTS... 57c. Raw Linseed Oil. 5 GALLON LOTS... 57c. Pure White Lead. PER 100... $7.50.

Portland Sash & Door Co. 530 FRONT ST. PORTLAND, OR.

COAL. Kemmerer Coal. The Best Wyoming Coal on the Portland Market.

Royal House, San Francisco. Fourth and Howard Sts. All outside rooms, steam heat, hot and cold water. Rates 50c to $2 per day.

Save Money. BOSTON. Come and have free examination. DYE EXTRACT. TEETH FREE.

Boston Dentists. 291 1/2 Morrison St., Portland, Ore. Phone A-2000. Hours: Main 10:00.

A BUSINESS TRAINING AT THE BAKER CITY Business College. MAKES YOUR TIME VALUABLE. $80.00 A MONTH FROM THE START.

Write Better. STUDY PENMANSHIP UNDER A PEN ARTIST. STUDY BOOKKEEPING UNDER AN EXPERT ACCOUNTANT.

Behrke-Daher. THE LEADING BUSINESS COLLEGE. DAY AND NIGHT SESSIONS. SEVENTH AND STARK STS.

MT. ANGEL COLLEGE. MT. ANGEL, ORE. In charge of the Benedictine Fathers. Boarding school for young men and boys.

Going to College? WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. Salem, Oregon. Offers you the Following Courses:

DALLAS COLLEGE. The purposes of this institution are to furnish to young men and women a liberal Christian education.

HILL MILITARY ACADEMY. A boarding and day school for young men and boys. Accredited to Stanford, Berkeley, Cornell, Amherst and all state universities.

THE ALLEN PREPARATORY SCHOOL. Thorough preparation for all eastern and western colleges. Eighth year begins September 21, 1908.

TEETH. Save Money. BOSTON. Come and have free examination. DYE EXTRACT. TEETH FREE.

Be guided by the experience of tens of thousands of women who KNOW—organdies, lawns, dimities and wash silks should be washed with Ivory Soap and none other. Why? Because Ivory Soap, unlike most soaps, is pure. No "free" alkali in it; no coloring matter; no adulterants. Ivory Soap 99 3/4% Per Cent Pure.

Money-Making Ways of Using Want Ads. To Buy or Sell Birds or Poultry. Mothers—what pleasure your child will get from a pet Bird! They are not expensive and cost so little to keep. A few cents invested in a Want Ad and placed on The Journal's Classified page under the heading "Birds and Poultry" will introduce you to those who Sell. Or, maybe some of these very people advertise today what you want, under the above heading. Farmers Sell much of their Poultry through our Classified pages. Parrots and other pet and show Birds are constantly bought and sold in this way. It is interesting just to read this column. Many people make a living simply buying and selling Poultry, such as Turkeys, Chickens, Ducks, by using our little Want Ads. The Journal's Classified page is the place to Buy and Sell Birds or Poultry. EXAMPLES. WANTED—FANCY POULTRY. FIGS. FOR SALE—PETS OF ALL KINDS.

TEETH. Save Money. BOSTON. Come and have free examination. DYE EXTRACT. TEETH FREE.