Herbert R. Nixon, formerly a laborer in the employ of the North Coast Co-operative Lumber company as a laborer, has begun suit in the circuit court for $3,000 damages and loss of wages resulting from an injury. He was at work at the mill about five miles from Scappoose, he alleges, carrying lumber from one pile to another. In attempting to pull a board from a pile 10 feet high, the complaint states, the entire pile slipped toward him and caught his right foot and leg. The leg was broken in two places above the ankle. He alleges that the accident was the fault of the company and claims $2,825 damages with $175 additional for for loss of wages.

The park board at its session yesterday afternoon decided to confer with the city attorney as to the plan it will adopt in buying sites for public parks. Mayor Lane advised the board that the only satisfactory way is for the commissioners to buy the property in the open. Commissioner Lang maintains that secrecy should be preserved with regard to the intentions of the board. He would not make these known until after the purchases had been made. He said that was the method used in securing the site for the high school and the only successful one to be used in buying any kind of real estate for the public.

A special meeting of the Portland Commercial club has been called to meet in the club parlors, Wednesday evening, October 14, at 8 o'clock, when the question of amending the constitution of the club with reference to life memberships and in several minor particulars will come up for discussion. It is also probable that matters affecting the finances of the club will be brought to the attention of the members at this meeting. The call is signed by President Hodson and Secretary Thompson, and a full attendance of the membership is urged.

The Brooklyn school kindergarten which is conducted by the Mothers' and Teachers' club of that school, under the direction of Miss Aphia Dimick, the principal, has resumed and will continue in the good work which has been carried on for two years. All the expenses of the kindergarten are met by the club, with the occasional assistance of entertainments. Miss Elizabeth Matthews, one of the best known kindergarteners in the city, is in charge of the work, with Miss Hattea and an assistant teacher.

Sunnyside Congregational church, of which J. J. Staub is the pastor, has received a favorable reply from the New York society of church extension and will be able to obtain all the financial assistance needed to erect the proposed new building at East Taylor and East Thirty-second street. The trustees have purchased a quarter block and the plans for the structure are under way. It has been decided, however, to wait until spring before beginning work. The new site is three blocks west of the building which is now occupied.

Court Mount Hood No. 1, F. of A., gave a stag social for its members and visitors last Monday night at the Foresters' hall in the Marquam building. Several vaudeville stunts and local talent furnished the amusement for the evening. Judgment for the defense in the case of Eugene Glanz against the Silverfield company was given by Judge Morrow in the circuit court this morning. Glanz was a fur cutter and claimed he had an agreement with the defendant to work for one year, but was discharged. Soon after bringing suit he returned to the east and no testimony in his behalf was produced, the defense showing that Glanz had accepted a settlement in full before he sued. He had asked for $680 in wages and for $50 return railroad fare to Minneapolis.

New Power Company Getting Busy.

Central Oregon Power Co. has finished the preliminary work in connection with the erection of their large plant to supply power to the Willamette valley, and will start at once upon the active construction of the same. They have been offering for a short time past their interest-bearing bonds to the public and have had a phenomenal sale due no doubt to the fact that the industry is one that everyone wants to invest in, due to its stability and superiority as a dividend producer.

The Oregon Engineering Co., agents and engineers for this company, offer for a short time only a block of these interest-bearing bonds to the public; if you want something that will pay you 10 per cent on your investment you will have to hurry. A hundred dollar investment is just as cheerfully received as one for $10,000. Make no mistakes in cheap stocks when you can buy guaranteed interest-bearing bonds. Write or call and see the agents, 329 Beck building, Portland, Or.

HANDLE TRIPPED HER INTO A LAW SUIT

On the ground that L. Gerlinger, who is the owner of a new building at Second and Alder streets, and William Palmer and Christopher G. Ellison, the contractors for it, are guilty of negligence in allowing the handle of an iron door to obstruct the sidewalk, Myrtle L. James has begun suit in the circuit court asking for $800 damages from each of them. She says she was tripped and fell, sustaining serious injuries about the head.

The obstruction complained of was the handle on a door leading from the sidewalk to the basement. She says the hinges of the handle had become rusty and the handle did not fall into its groove level with the sidewalk, as it should.

EXPRESSMAN SAYS NAME IS DAMAGED

Because he was arrested on a charge of stealing five sacks of sugar from Mason, Ehrman & Co., the charge later being dismissed by Municipal Judge Cameron, W. A. Cecil has begun suit for $2,500 damages for injury to his name and business.

D. Beckett, who swore to the complaint on which the warrant for Cecil's arrest was issued, is made a joint defendant with the company. Cecil recites his arrest and detention at the city jail and says that no witnesses appeared to support the charge against him when the case was called on May 19. He is an expressman and alleges that his business has been damaged by his arrest, as well as his reputation.

Mr. Winchell will spend several days in Portland, and General Agent Charles O. Hunter will leave tonight to meet him in Seattle and confer with him regarding his entertainment while he is here. It is planned to spend one day inspecting the Cazadero line of the O. W. P. when Mr. Winchell will be the guest of President B. S. Josselyn, if Mr. Winchell has time to remain over for the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Frost, formerly of Portland but now of Seattle are visiting in the city for a few days. While here they are staying at Elton Court.

$30,000 GOES TO CHARITY

Public Institutions Profit by Bequests in Mrs. Mason's Will.

Nearly $30,000 is distributed among charitable institutions by the will of Mrs. Hannah Mason, widow of the late Mayor W. S. Mason, which was admitted to probate yesterday. This is practically all of the estate, except that a few small sums and personal effects are bequeathed to friends.

After the smaller bequests are paid the estate is to be divided as follows: St. Vincent's and Good Samaritan hospitals, two sevenths each; Children's Home, First Presbyterian church of Portland and First Presbyterian church of Napa, Cal., one seventh each. Under a codicil to the will $1,000 is given to the Portland Homeopathic hospital and Dispensary association.

Jennie Daywalt is given $500 and the household goods. Sam S. Goldsmith and W. H. Gordon each receive $500 and certain jewelry and personal effects. William D. Fenton is named as executor of the will without bonds.

Mrs. Mason several years ago was worth $150,000, but she turned over the bulk of her estate to her husband when he was caught in the failure of a local bank. Included in the estate at the present time are the family residence at 661 Irving street valued at $10,000, a half interest in 18 lots in Irvington worth $6,000, South Portland property and securities estimated to be worth $8,000 and a quarter section of land placed at $1,500.

ROCK THROWN INTO SELLWOOD CAR

A streetcar conductor was injured by flying glass and several passengers badly frightened Monday evening on a Sellwood car by a rock which had been thrown by some unknown person and which is very similar to the Mount Scott cases of several weeks ago. The rock, which had been thrown with great force, entered the car through an open window and struck the windows in the rear.

Conductor Bradford was severely cut about the face and hands by the splintered glass. Detectives of the city force and representatives of the street railway were put to work on the case at once and this afternoon it was stated that they had a pretty good clue as to the identity of the miscreant

CARMEN TO HAVE PHOTOS OF STARS

Photographs of the star worn by members of the police department have been taken by the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for the information of streetcar conductors, who have been notified to allow no one to ride free except he can produce a star corresponding exactly to that shown in the photograph.

An order was issued several days ago that only policemen in full uniform would be allowed free rides on the streetcars, but the officers who are compelled to ride while going to and from duty talked it over with President Josselyn and the amended order was the result. Special officers and deputy sheriffs must pay fares hereafter, however.

HARRIMAN OFFICES TO BE ENLARGED

Whatever talk there was of "Railroad row" being removed from Third street to Sixth has been quieted for the next few years at least by the plans for enlarging the city offices of the Harriman lines at Third and Washington streets. It is planned to remove H. E. Lounsbury, city freight agent, from the present freight office at 102 Third street to enlarged offices, while a 40-foot counter will be installed. The quarters will be enlarged by taking in the barber shop that at present adjoins the city ticket offices on the Washington street side. This will give the O. R. & N. and the Southern Pacific the largest city quarters of any of the railroads.

A New Departure

The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
