

THOUSANDS AT PACIFIC NATIONAL GROUNDS SEE MORE RECORDS BROKEN IN EXCITING RACES

Section of the Bleachers During the Races on Portland Day at the Country Club.

At last the crowds came. For two days they held back, seemingly little interest being taken in the Pacific National show except by comparatively few people. But they have waked up at last, and yesterday they came by thousands.

All day long they flowed out in a steadily increasing stream to the Country club grounds. Every variety of conveyance was pressed into service. The streetcars, of course, carried the greater number of them, and many more rode out on the O. R. & N. trains. Hundreds more went out in automobiles and more hundreds in carriages. Some even walked. The day was a holiday to some extent, some of the stores closing their doors to allow their employes to attend the show, and hundreds of people went out by families, father with a big basket of lunch over his arm and mother carrying the baby and trying as best she could to keep Johnny and Mabel from getting under the feet of the horses and cattle or running out onto the track while a race was in progress.

Grandstand Crowded.
It is estimated that the crowd totaled about 7,000 people. The grandstand was filled to the limit during the afternoon and there were possibly 1,500 or 2,000 more in the bleachers. But there was lots of room left. Probably 3,000 more could have obtained seats to watch the races. But there were hundreds standing on the west side of the grandstand and hundreds more in the long line of carriages and automobiles lined up along the track inside the potato fields.

It was an enthusiastic audience, ready to cheer at the slightest provocation. It had plenty of opportunities, for several speed records were broken and there were some sensational finishes in some of the heats. In the 2:05 pace for the Rose City purse of $2,500 the western record for the five fastest heats in any one race was splintered by the records made of 2:08 1/2, 2:08 1/2, 2:08 1/2, 2:07 1/2, and 2:08 1/2. College Maid again and for the second time on this track, established a new record when she went around the mile oval to the tune of 2:08 1/2, lopping off a quarter of a second from the record she made last Monday.

Driver Hurl'd Through Air.
Thrills chased one another up and down the spines of the crowd several times during the afternoon, particularly when the accident occurred in the first race. In the second heat of the race Rosa R. was pressing Bonnie Antrim hard for first place. About 60 feet short of the wire she struck her left forefoot on the wheel of Bonnie Antrim's sulky and stumbled, lost her stride and fell. Prior, her driver, being hurled completely over her and rolling, fortunately unhurt, over and over on the track. It looked like a bad accident, and the crowd held its breath for a moment. But the mare was freed from the sulky and got onto her feet, apparently but little the worse for the mishap, and the driver, too, was seen to be uninjured. The crowd cheered both enthusiastically as they arose.

Picking up the Fallen Pacer Rosa R.

J. P. Bolleau replaced Colonel R. L. Hariman as starter, to the great satisfaction of the horsemen and spectators, for he got the horses off in much better shape than they have been started in on other days. Bolleu is also the original hot air dispenser and jolted the drivers, the crowd, the band and everybody else. The crowd liked it and when he called upon it to cheer the band or the horses or anybody or anything else the response was all he could have asked.

It is unfortunate that when the horses come into the stretch in any race everybody has to stand up and consequently nobody can see very well what is happening. They could all see much better if they would remain seated. Their standing up is largely on account of the fact that a lot of men are allowed to stand on the lower front steps of the grand stand, no effort being made by the police or anybody else to compel them to sit down. They, of course, shut off the view from those directly behind them, who, naturally, have to stand up in their turn. So it is a sort of progressive rising until everybody is on his or her feet. A little attention on the part of the police or the management to this thing would make it better for everybody.

Yesterday for the first time the boxes were occupied. Being down in the sun they have not been popular before, but it was some cooler yesterday and there was a big crowd, so they were all filled. The judging of livestock went on nearly all day yesterday and was resumed this morning. There is so large a showing of fancy horses, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry that it will probably take the greater part of the week to conclude the work.

Central Electric Meeting.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—Executive and operating officials of Interurban traction lines in Ohio, New York, Indiana and several other states were present at the meeting of the Central Electric Railway association, which was held at the Claypool hotel in this city today. Among the subjects discussed at the meeting were the mechanical application of wireless or radio telegraphy to railroads, recent development of lightning arresters, railroad track bracing and the electric railway return circuit.

Krebs Gives Testimony.
Fred A. Krebs, implicated in some of the Oregon land fraud cases some time ago and, his clerk were before Judge Wolverson in the United States circuit court this morning giving testimony in substantiating the claim made by the defendant Krebs that the suit against him had not been properly set forth by the government representatives. Mr. Krebs alleges that the subpoenas and several other features of the prosecution had not been properly handled.

HUNDREDS OF WOMEN PATRONIZE SALOONS

Upholding Councilman Baker's declaration that the "four walls" ordinance introduced by Willis was ridiculous the council this morning killed it by a vote of 12 to 2.

Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin in an effort to have the ordinance passed made the startling statement on the council floor that there are 100 saloons in the city which cater to the trade of women and that 1,400 young girls and women nightly patronize the liquor stands. She said she had visited the saloons between the hours of 10 p. m. and 1 a. m. during a period of several months and the figures she gave, she said, are conservative.

The Willis ordinance proposed to eliminate every entrance and exit to the saloons excepting through the front door. It further provided that chairs and tables be taboed and that a full and unobstructed view of the interior be given from the street. Willis indulged in a word tilt in which both made use of the personal epithets variety of remarks and badinage. Baker contended that the ordinance would put the saloons out of business and Willis and his adherents declared that it would only prevent the women from entering places where liquor is sold.

The charges against W. Thibault, proprietor of the Newmarket saloon, investigated by the council, after a lengthy interchange of the usual rapid volleys, were re-referred to the liquor license committee after Councilman Baker had moved to indefinitely postpone consideration of the measure.

Sam Masurovsky, the auctioneer, petitioned for a license but the council refused to grant it by voting down the adoption of the majority report 9 to 5.

GROGERS FIGHT PARCELS POST

(United Press Leaded Wire.)
Bellingham, Wash., Sept. 24.—The State Grocers' association in annual convention here today, passed a resolution condemning the proposed parcels post bill.

The project for the establishment of a minimum retail price on goods by manufacturers was condemned and the practice of wholesalers and manufacturers in buying at retail prices was also condemned.

Another resolution was adopted to instruct the legislative committee to prepare a bill to make the wife jointly liable with the husband for bills incurred for family necessities.

SPENCER MAKES TOO MUCH SPEED IN HARBOR

A complaint charging Captain Charles R. Spencer, owner of the steamer by that name, with having violated the speed rules and regulations on the river according to the laws set down by the war department, was filed in the United States court this morning. A warrant for Captain Spencer was placed in the hands of the United States marshal and will be served upon the owner of the vessel today.

Complaints have been made frequently of late that Captain Spencer himself, when in command of the steamer, had at various times run faster than the law allows and owing to this fact the officials of the coast guard would follow if the vessel was caught. Portland took up the case some time ago in spite of warnings that action against the government authorities is being continued to have run at an unnecessary speed and in a reckless manner, endangering the river traffic in the city. The case will be heard by Judge Wolverson.

NOB HILL REALTY BREAKS A RECORD

Over $200 a front foot is the price that was paid for a lot on Flanders street, between Twentieth and Twenty-first streets, which established a new valuation for Nob Hill property. The lot is 68 by 100 and was sold by Charles Dierke to a Willamette valley capitalist for $14,000. The sale was negotiated through the agency of E. J. Daly.

William Robb has sold to the Hanover Building company a 50 by 100 foot lot on the west side of King street, 150 feet south from Washington street for $10,000. A four-story brick apartment house is to be built on the site as soon as the plans can be drawn and the contract let.

Mrs. Helen A. Young has purchased from John Ecklund a house and lot in Irving's Harbor View addition, consideration $7,500.

R. M. Lombard has closed a deal with George Morris for the purchase of a part of the Stewart donation land claim located just west of Council Crest. The consideration involved was $21,000.
