LABOR DISPUTE IS STILL UNSETTLED

The differences between the labor unions and the Y. M. C. A. building committee remain unsettled. J. R. Boules, head of the Northwest Bridge company, which has the contract for the reinforced concrete construction, has agreed to put the cement mixers—the only labor on the building working more than eight hours—a eight-hour basis. This action will not be taken until it is known that the labor representatives will be satisfied with it and will not come back with additional demands for unionizing all the work on the building.

13 INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

Thirteen more indictments were returned by the grand jury yesterday afternoon, making a total of 29 since the work began at the first of the month.
