

BRYAN'S RECORD ABOVE REPROACH

Nebraskan Shows People of Cincinnati That Taft Is Merely Imitator.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Cincinnati, Sept. 25.—In his speeches here last night Mr. Bryan said:

As this is the home of my opponent, I desire to take occasion to express my high opinion of his character and accomplishments. I think that I pay him a higher compliment in assuming that he is able to conduct his own campaign than the president does by contesting with him the leadership of the party in the campaign.

As Mr. Taft referred to my record, it is only fair that I should make a brief reply. Mr. Taft and I have records, and they are necessarily a part of the campaign. In some respects Mr. Taft has been more fortunate than I. He has held appointive offices for nearly half his life, and during a considerable part of the time the office was conspicuous. As a United States judge, governor of the Philippines, and a secretary of war, he has been before the public, and yet who will say that he could have secured the Republican nomination on his record? It was the powerful support of the president that made him the nominee of his party. And the president seems to feel that the exigencies of the case require that the full support of the administration shall be given to Mr. Taft's candidacy.

Mr. Taft says that I favored the free coinage of silver. It is true. He might also have told you that Mr. McKinley voted for free coinage of silver in 1874; that the Republican National convention in 1896 pledged itself to international bimetalism and that Mr. McKinley's first important act after taking the oath of office was to send a commission to Europe to ask other nations to join in restricting bimetalism.

He accuses me of favoring government ownership, but he forgets that both he and President Roosevelt have threatened the railroads with government ownership if they do not consent to effective regulation, and this is substantially the position that I have taken.

Mr. Taft does not stand for a single reform that has not been advocated by Democrats before he took up the work.

CRUISER COLORADO TO SAN FRANCISCO

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Sept. 25.—The armored cruiser Colorado, Captain B. Underwood commanding, steamed out of the harbor yesterday for San Francisco. The Colorado is to go to that city to receive a draft of men to complete the crew and while there the presentation to the ship of a silver service, the gift of the people of the state of Colorado, will take place.

From San Francisco the Colorado is scheduled to go to Honolulu to meet the seven cruises of the Pacific fleet returning from the cruise to Samoa.

STRAUS SNIFFS AT THE COALGATE CASE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Washington, Sept. 25.—Secretary Straus today said he thought an examination should be made of the failure of the National bank of Coalgate, Okla. Straus declared this case furnished the only illustration of the guaranteed bank deposit scheme.

2 SMITHS COST BANK $1,337.36

No. 1 Overdraws but Checks Are Charged Up to No. 2.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Olympia, Wash., Sept. 25.—The fact that it had two "W. H. Smiths" on its books as depositors has cost the Exchange National bank of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, $1,337.36. An attempt by the bank to deduct the amount from a time certificate of deposit for $2,000 issued to one of the Smiths has failed in the supreme court after presentation of the peculiar case to the Spokane superior court.

One W. H. Smith held the certificate of deposit which he transferred to O. M. Sparks, who, after indorsing it, assigned it to the Old National bank of Spokane. When the certificate was presented for payment the Idaho bank discovered that the Smith to whom the certificate had been issued had overdrawn his checking account of $1,337.36, his checks having been charged to the other W. H. Smith who had a current account of $1,000.

Under the laws of Idaho the Exchange bank would be permitted to deduct the overdraft from the certificate of deposit, but prior to its presentation, Sparks, who desired to protect himself as an indorser of the certificate, and learning that Smith was in financial difficulties, telephoned the bank asking if the certificate would be paid upon presentation. Evidence taken at the trial convinced the court that the bank had promised to pay the certificate on presentation. It is held that this was an estoppel against charging up the overdraft against the time deposit.
