

U. OF O. SOPHOMORE MAKE OFFICERS

New Club, the Alpha, Is Organized by Young Men Students.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) University of Oregon, Eugene, Sept. 25.—The sophomore class held its annual election today and the following officers were elected: President, Arthur M. Geary of Portland; vice-president, Ferdinand Henkle of Portland; secretary, Juliet Cross of Oregon City; treasurer, Charles W. Robinson of Oregon City; sergeant at arms, Ferdinand Struck of Hood River.

Mr. Geary is the son of Dr. G. P. Geary, a well-known physician of Portland, and graduated from the Portland academy in 1907. He is very popular at the university and a good student. He is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. The other officers are all popular students.

COLLEGE DAYS ARE USHERED IN AT M'MINNVILLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) McMinnville, Or., Sept. 25.—The opening of McMinnville college was marked by a large registration. With the completion of the music hall the college is prepared to do better work than ever. The faculty this year includes 15 members with several new members. Professor N. E. Thomas is a graduate of Colgate university and a teacher for a number of years in Ohio schools, comes to the chair of Greek and modern languages.

SEASON'S FIRST SOCIAL EVENT AT ASHLAND NORMAL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Ashland, Or., Sept. 25.—The first social event of the season in the school was a reception held at the State normal Wednesday evening, when the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian associations entertained the members of the faculty and their families and the new students.

AT THE THEATRES

Koib and Dill at Heilig. Tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock, the attraction at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, will be the favorite comedians, Koib and Dill and their excellent company in the merry musical comedy, "Lonesome Town."

Seats Now Selling at Heilig. The beautiful musical comedy success, "Coming Thru' the Rye" will be the attraction at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for four nights beginning next Sunday. A special price matinee will be given next Wednesday afternoon.

"A Gilded Fool" at Bungalow. There will be but three more opportunities to see the great "Gilded Fool" comedy. The Baker stock company, with the two popular leading people, Sydney Ayres and the beautiful scene effects and great comedy lines and situations.

Music and Fun at the Baker. "The Royal Chef" at the Baker continues to please large houses, and will be given for the last three times tonight, tomorrow matinee and night. It is a musical cocktail filled with pretty girls, beautiful scenic effects and great comedy lines and situations.

"The Cat and the Fiddle." The first appearance in the west of the big musical extravaganza, "The Cat and the Fiddle," will be at the Baker, opening Sunday matinee. It is one of the big trick scenic productions along the lines of "The Wizard of Oz."

Clemens Brothers at Pantages. One of the most comical acts in vaudeville is that of the Clemens brothers, the European acrobatic musical duo, appearing at the Pantages theatre this week. In fact, every act on the program is going big. "The Grand Old One," presenting the prison scene from "Faust."

Comedy Cyclists at Pantages. Next week the Heiman Trio, world's greatest comedy bicyclists, will be seen for the first time on the Pacific coast at the Pantages theatre. The special added feature will be "The Grand Old One," presenting the prison scene from "Faust."

Great Demand for Seats. "The Girl of the Golden West" is the great Belasco play, in which Blanche Bates starred for two years in New York city and is now being presented by the Baker stock company at the Bungalow only by payment of the largest royalty. Manager Baker ever went from this city.

Special Matinee Tomorrow. A special price matinee will be given at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon when the comedians, Koib and Dill will present their funny musical comedy, "Lonesome Town." Seats at 2:15 o'clock.

Georgia Harper at the Star. Miss Georgia Harper will present at the Star all this week, the four-act comedy drama "Nell Gwynn." The story of the play is interesting as well

Jewish New Year Is Now at Hand. At sundown this evening will begin the celebration of Rosh Hashanah, the first of the holidays of the Jewish New Year. Services will be held at the local synagogues and the festival will be observed by the reformed and orthodox alike, except that the former will observe one day and the latter two days.

HAINES' SPECIAL BLEND. The Best 25c COFFEE In Town. HAINES' TEA STORE. 2nd and Alder Both Phones. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) New York, Sept. 25.—Thomas Dixon Jr., the author and Channing Pollock, who dramatized "The Traitor," together with a company of 40 persons engaged to present the play throughout the south, left New York today on a specially chartered steamer for Norfolk where the place is to have its first presentation next Monday night. A unique feature of the trip will be the dress rehearsal, which will be held aboard the steamer. Much interest is attached to the fact that Mr. Dixon is to make his debut as an actor in the play, being slated for the part of the mountaineer.
