

SCANDAL AT WAKEN A FIGHT OF RECORDS PLEASANT EXERCISES TO CLOSE THE SEASON

WAKEN A FIGHT OF RECORDS PLEASANT EXERCISES TO CLOSE THE SEASON

Edward F. Swift, one of the heads of Swift & Co. of Chicago, who are constructing the great packing plant on the peninsula, like Portland. He arrived this morning in company with Colonel E. T. Davidson of Toronto, a big land man, and a party of friends. Mr. Swift is on his vacation.

E. F. Swift Says the Portland Plant Will Be Operating Within Year—Is Pleased With Rose City—Winchell Confers With Him.

An inquiry designed to discover property that was owned by Grant Scott shortly before his death, much of which the creditors of the estate allege was illegally conveyed to his mother, Mrs. E. J. Scott, took place before Judge Webster in the county court this morning. Little that was new was developed, but at the conclusion of the hearing the attorneys for the creditors secured an order from the court permitting them to bring an action in circuit court in the name of the administrator, John B. Coffey.

McAyael and Rodby Repel Assault Upon Daughters of E. R. Burton by a Negro Thug Who Scares Whole Neighborhood.

In defense of the two young ladies, McAyael and Rodby had to fight a frenzied negro who broke into the home of E. R. Burton, 292 Everett street, at 11:30 last night, and was only scared away when he saw a policeman coming.

ALVA ADAMS HAS FAITH. Ex-Governor of Colorado Says Haskell Not Proved Guilty.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—Declaring that he would believe Governor Haskell of Oklahoma innocent of the charges made against him by the Democratic national committee, former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado today characterized the former treasurer of the Democratic national committee as a capable man and a strong, incisive speaker.

ROAD GETS ROUGHER FOR HARRY THAW

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Justice Miller refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus to Harry Thaw today, denying the application of attorneys having counselled an illegal operation at first in Seattle and later in this city.

GRAND JURY INDICTS CONDON HOTEL MAN

Condon, Ore., Sept. 24.—The grand jury in Condon today returned an indictment, a true bill against E. C. Rodgers, proprietor of the Hotel Oregon, in which he is found guilty on two counts of selling liquor illegally.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

Creditors Will Sue to Set Aside Deeds Given by Him.

An inquiry designed to discover property that was owned by Grant Scott shortly before his death, much of which the creditors of the estate allege was illegally conveyed to his mother, Mrs. E. J. Scott, took place before Judge Webster in the county court this morning.

McAyael and Rodby Repel Assault Upon Daughters of E. R. Burton by a Negro Thug Who Scares Whole Neighborhood.

In defense of the two young ladies, McAyael and Rodby had to fight a frenzied negro who broke into the home of E. R. Burton, 292 Everett street, at 11:30 last night, and was only scared away when he saw a policeman coming.

ALVA ADAMS HAS FAITH. Ex-Governor of Colorado Says Haskell Not Proved Guilty.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—Declaring that he would believe Governor Haskell of Oklahoma innocent of the charges made against him by the Democratic national committee, former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado today characterized the former treasurer of the Democratic national committee as a capable man and a strong, incisive speaker.

ROAD GETS ROUGHER FOR HARRY THAW

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Justice Miller refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus to Harry Thaw today, denying the application of attorneys having counselled an illegal operation at first in Seattle and later in this city.

GRAND JURY INDICTS CONDON HOTEL MAN

Condon, Ore., Sept. 24.—The grand jury in Condon today returned an indictment, a true bill against E. C. Rodgers, proprietor of the Hotel Oregon, in which he is found guilty on two counts of selling liquor illegally.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

Illinois Man Held Position Alleges Ex-Boss Tried to Application For Gas and Remains of Zeno Lewis Are Shipped in the Steamer Rose City.

The Harrison San Francisco liner Rose City, which left Astoria dock this morning, carried the remains of Zeno Lewis, the older whistler at work in the vessel the night before. Captain E. A. Bernays of the Seaman's Institute sent a floral piece on the steamer on behalf of the seamen in the harbor.

McAyael and Rodby Repel Assault Upon Daughters of E. R. Burton by a Negro Thug Who Scares Whole Neighborhood.

In defense of the two young ladies, McAyael and Rodby had to fight a frenzied negro who broke into the home of E. R. Burton, 292 Everett street, at 11:30 last night, and was only scared away when he saw a policeman coming.

ALVA ADAMS HAS FAITH. Ex-Governor of Colorado Says Haskell Not Proved Guilty.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—Declaring that he would believe Governor Haskell of Oklahoma innocent of the charges made against him by the Democratic national committee, former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado today characterized the former treasurer of the Democratic national committee as a capable man and a strong, incisive speaker.

ROAD GETS ROUGHER FOR HARRY THAW

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Justice Miller refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus to Harry Thaw today, denying the application of attorneys having counselled an illegal operation at first in Seattle and later in this city.

GRAND JURY INDICTS CONDON HOTEL MAN

Condon, Ore., Sept. 24.—The grand jury in Condon today returned an indictment, a true bill against E. C. Rodgers, proprietor of the Hotel Oregon, in which he is found guilty on two counts of selling liquor illegally.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

Illinois Man Held Position Alleges Ex-Boss Tried to Application For Gas and Remains of Zeno Lewis Are Shipped in the Steamer Rose City.

The Harrison San Francisco liner Rose City, which left Astoria dock this morning, carried the remains of Zeno Lewis, the older whistler at work in the vessel the night before. Captain E. A. Bernays of the Seaman's Institute sent a floral piece on the steamer on behalf of the seamen in the harbor.

McAyael and Rodby Repel Assault Upon Daughters of E. R. Burton by a Negro Thug Who Scares Whole Neighborhood.

In defense of the two young ladies, McAyael and Rodby had to fight a frenzied negro who broke into the home of E. R. Burton, 292 Everett street, at 11:30 last night, and was only scared away when he saw a policeman coming.

ALVA ADAMS HAS FAITH. Ex-Governor of Colorado Says Haskell Not Proved Guilty.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—Declaring that he would believe Governor Haskell of Oklahoma innocent of the charges made against him by the Democratic national committee, former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado today characterized the former treasurer of the Democratic national committee as a capable man and a strong, incisive speaker.

ROAD GETS ROUGHER FOR HARRY THAW

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Justice Miller refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus to Harry Thaw today, denying the application of attorneys having counselled an illegal operation at first in Seattle and later in this city.

GRAND JURY INDICTS CONDON HOTEL MAN

Condon, Ore., Sept. 24.—The grand jury in Condon today returned an indictment, a true bill against E. C. Rodgers, proprietor of the Hotel Oregon, in which he is found guilty on two counts of selling liquor illegally.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

Illinois Man Held Position Alleges Ex-Boss Tried to Application For Gas and Remains of Zeno Lewis Are Shipped in the Steamer Rose City.

The Harrison San Francisco liner Rose City, which left Astoria dock this morning, carried the remains of Zeno Lewis, the older whistler at work in the vessel the night before. Captain E. A. Bernays of the Seaman's Institute sent a floral piece on the steamer on behalf of the seamen in the harbor.

McAyael and Rodby Repel Assault Upon Daughters of E. R. Burton by a Negro Thug Who Scares Whole Neighborhood.

In defense of the two young ladies, McAyael and Rodby had to fight a frenzied negro who broke into the home of E. R. Burton, 292 Everett street, at 11:30 last night, and was only scared away when he saw a policeman coming.

ALVA ADAMS HAS FAITH. Ex-Governor of Colorado Says Haskell Not Proved Guilty.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—Declaring that he would believe Governor Haskell of Oklahoma innocent of the charges made against him by the Democratic national committee, former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado today characterized the former treasurer of the Democratic national committee as a capable man and a strong, incisive speaker.

ROAD GETS ROUGHER FOR HARRY THAW

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Justice Miller refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus to Harry Thaw today, denying the application of attorneys having counselled an illegal operation at first in Seattle and later in this city.

GRAND JURY INDICTS CONDON HOTEL MAN

Condon, Ore., Sept. 24.—The grand jury in Condon today returned an indictment, a true bill against E. C. Rodgers, proprietor of the Hotel Oregon, in which he is found guilty on two counts of selling liquor illegally.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

Illinois Man Held Position Alleges Ex-Boss Tried to Application For Gas and Remains of Zeno Lewis Are Shipped in the Steamer Rose City.

The Harrison San Francisco liner Rose City, which left Astoria dock this morning, carried the remains of Zeno Lewis, the older whistler at work in the vessel the night before. Captain E. A. Bernays of the Seaman's Institute sent a floral piece on the steamer on behalf of the seamen in the harbor.

McAyael and Rodby Repel Assault Upon Daughters of E. R. Burton by a Negro Thug Who Scares Whole Neighborhood.

In defense of the two young ladies, McAyael and Rodby had to fight a frenzied negro who broke into the home of E. R. Burton, 292 Everett street, at 11:30 last night, and was only scared away when he saw a policeman coming.

ALVA ADAMS HAS FAITH. Ex-Governor of Colorado Says Haskell Not Proved Guilty.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—Declaring that he would believe Governor Haskell of Oklahoma innocent of the charges made against him by the Democratic national committee, former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado today characterized the former treasurer of the Democratic national committee as a capable man and a strong, incisive speaker.

ROAD GETS ROUGHER FOR HARRY THAW

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Justice Miller refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus to Harry Thaw today, denying the application of attorneys having counselled an illegal operation at first in Seattle and later in this city.

GRAND JURY INDICTS CONDON HOTEL MAN

Condon, Ore., Sept. 24.—The grand jury in Condon today returned an indictment, a true bill against E. C. Rodgers, proprietor of the Hotel Oregon, in which he is found guilty on two counts of selling liquor illegally.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

WRECK IN GERMANY; THIRTEEN KILLED

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Thirteen persons were killed and 49 injured today in a railway collision which is reported to be one of the worst of the kind in the country in years.

DRIVE OUT WIFE ON COLD NIGHT GRANTS TAKE FIRST GAME

Driven into the street at 11 o'clock at night in raw, inclement weather, governing herself and daughter in blankets that she seized on the way, while her husband raged around with a carving knife inside the house—this is the picture of one phase of married life presented by Mrs. Alice Reckard in a complaint for divorce filed in the circuit court today.

BOURNE'S NAME GOES ON REGISTER

Senator Jonathan Bourne's name was the most prominent enrolled on the register of voters at the county clerk's office this morning. As Mr. Bourne had not been in Oregon this year until recently, he had not had opportunity to register before.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR PUTTING IN WOOD

George Younglove believes he has broken the world's record for putting in wood. This morning he completed a job of putting in 20 cords that took him exactly 15 hours. He has been handling wood for the past 20 years and never before attained such speed, although he says he never loaded on a job.

AGED MAN SENT TO WRONG TOWN

Ebenezer Hayes, an octogenarian who was lost, was reported safe yesterday, his relatives getting information in a few hours as the result of the publication of the story of his disappearance in The Journal. He wandered from his home in his daughter, Mrs. Zehner of 205 Cooke avenue, and in some manner got to Sellwood. There he was picked up by a contractor to look for him.

GRAINHANDLER HAS A BAD TUMBLE

Wagner, a grainhandler, slipped off the bridge of his boat, fell into the river between the dock and the steamers. He was precipitated fully 30 feet and would undoubtedly have been killed had he struck the float flying between the dock and the steamer.

POISON DOSE IS FATAL

John St. Germain, who gave the name of John Raymond, after taking a quantity of acetic acid Thursday night, died yesterday afternoon at St. Vincent hospital from the effects of the poison.

OLD MAN DROPS DEAD

John Bender, aged 85, dropped dead while walking down a flight of stairs at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bender, at 1230 East 12th street. He had been a resident of the home for some time. Coroner Norden was notified and a coroner's jury was held.

DRIVE OUT WIFE ON COLD NIGHT GRANTS TAKE FIRST GAME

Driven into the street at 11 o'clock at night in raw, inclement weather, governing herself and daughter in blankets that she seized on the way, while her husband raged around with a carving knife inside the house—this is the picture of one phase of married life presented by Mrs. Alice Reckard in a complaint for divorce filed in the circuit court today.

BOURNE'S NAME GOES ON REGISTER

Senator Jonathan Bourne's name was the most prominent enrolled on the register of voters at the county clerk's office this morning. As Mr. Bourne had not been in Oregon this year until recently, he had not had opportunity to register before.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR PUTTING IN WOOD

George Younglove believes he has broken the world's record for putting in wood. This morning he completed a job of putting in 20 cords that took him exactly 15 hours. He has been handling wood for the past 20 years and never before attained such speed, although he says he never loaded on a job.

AGED MAN SENT TO WRONG TOWN

Ebenezer Hayes, an octogenarian who was lost, was reported safe yesterday, his relatives getting information in a few hours as the result of the publication of the story of his disappearance in The Journal. He wandered from his home in his daughter, Mrs. Zehner of 205 Cooke avenue, and in some manner got to Sellwood. There he was picked up by a contractor to look for him.

GRAINHANDLER HAS A BAD TUMBLE

Wagner, a grainhandler, slipped off the bridge of his boat, fell into the river between the dock and the steamers. He was precipitated fully 30 feet and would undoubtedly have been killed had he struck the float flying between the dock and the steamer.

POISON DOSE IS FATAL

John St. Germain, who gave the name of John Raymond, after taking a quantity of acetic acid Thursday night, died yesterday afternoon at St. Vincent hospital from the effects of the poison.

OLD MAN DROPS DEAD

John Bender, aged 85, dropped dead while walking down a flight of stairs at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bender, at 1230 East 12th street. He had been a resident of the home for some time. Coroner Norden was notified and a coroner's jury was held.

DRIVE OUT WIFE ON COLD NIGHT GRANTS TAKE FIRST GAME

Driven into the street at 11 o'clock at night in raw, inclement weather, governing herself and daughter in blankets that she seized on the way, while her husband raged around with a carving knife inside the house—this is the picture of one phase of married life presented by Mrs. Alice Reckard in a complaint for divorce filed in the circuit court today.

BOURNE'S NAME GOES ON REGISTER

Senator Jonathan Bourne's name was the most prominent enrolled on the register of voters at the county clerk's office this morning. As Mr. Bourne had not been in Oregon this year until recently, he had not had opportunity to register before.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR PUTTING IN WOOD

George Younglove believes he has broken the world's record for putting in wood. This morning he completed a job of putting in 20 cords that took him exactly 15 hours. He has been handling wood for the past 20 years and never before attained such speed, although he says he never loaded on a job.

AGED MAN SENT TO WRONG TOWN

Ebenezer Hayes, an octogenarian who was lost, was reported safe yesterday, his relatives getting information in a few hours as the result of the publication of the story of his disappearance in The Journal. He wandered from his home in his daughter, Mrs. Zehner of 205 Cooke avenue, and in some manner got to Sellwood. There he was picked up by a contractor to look for him.

GRAINHANDLER HAS A BAD TUMBLE

Wagner, a grainhandler, slipped off the bridge of his boat, fell into the river between the dock and the steamers. He was precipitated fully 30 feet and would undoubtedly have been killed had he struck the float flying between the dock and the steamer.

POISON DOSE IS FATAL

John St. Germain, who gave the name of John Raymond, after taking a quantity of acetic acid Thursday night, died yesterday afternoon at St. Vincent hospital from the effects of the poison.

OLD MAN DROPS DEAD

John Bender, aged 85, dropped dead while walking down a flight of stairs at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bender, at 1230 East 12th street. He had been a resident of the home for some time. Coroner Norden was notified and a coroner's jury was held.

DRIVE OUT WIFE ON COLD NIGHT GRANTS TAKE FIRST GAME

Driven into the street at 11 o'clock at night in raw, inclement weather, governing herself and daughter in blankets that she seized on the way, while her husband raged around with a carving knife inside the house—this is the picture of one phase of married life presented by Mrs. Alice Reckard in a complaint for divorce filed in the circuit court today.

BOURNE'S NAME GOES ON REGISTER

Senator Jonathan Bourne's name was the most prominent enrolled on the register of voters at the county clerk's office this morning. As Mr. Bourne had not been in Oregon this year until recently, he had not had opportunity to register before.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR PUTTING IN WOOD

George Younglove believes he has broken the world's record for putting in wood. This morning he completed a job of putting in 20 cords that took him exactly 15 hours. He has been handling wood for the past 20 years and never before attained such speed, although he says he never loaded on a job.

AGED MAN SENT TO WRONG TOWN

Ebenezer Hayes, an octogenarian who was lost, was reported safe yesterday, his relatives getting information in a few hours as the result of the publication of the story of his disappearance in The Journal. He wandered from his home in his daughter, Mrs. Zehner of 205 Cooke avenue, and in some manner got to Sellwood. There he was picked up by a contractor to look for him.

GRAINHANDLER HAS A BAD TUMBLE

Wagner, a grainhandler, slipped off the bridge of his boat, fell into the river between the dock and the steamers. He was precipitated fully 30 feet and would undoubtedly have been killed had he struck the float flying between the dock and the steamer.

POISON DOSE IS FATAL

John St. Germain, who gave the name of John Raymond, after taking a quantity of acetic acid Thursday night, died yesterday afternoon at St. Vincent hospital from the effects of the poison.

OLD MAN DROPS DEAD

John Bender, aged 85, dropped dead while walking down a flight of stairs at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bender, at 1230 East 12th street. He had been a resident of the home for some time. Coroner Norden was notified and a coroner's jury was held.

DRIVE OUT WIFE ON COLD NIGHT GRANTS TAKE FIRST GAME

Driven into the street at 11 o'clock at night in raw, inclement weather, governing herself and daughter in blankets that she seized on the way, while her husband raged around with a carving knife inside the house—this is the picture of one phase of married life presented by Mrs. Alice Reckard in a complaint for divorce filed in the circuit court today.

BOURNE'S NAME GOES ON REGISTER

Senator Jonathan Bourne's name was the most prominent enrolled on the register of voters at the county clerk's office this morning. As Mr. Bourne had not been in Oregon this year until recently, he had not had opportunity to register before.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR PUTTING IN WOOD

George Younglove believes he has broken the world's record for putting in wood. This morning he completed a job of putting in 20 cords that took him exactly 15 hours. He has been handling wood for the past 20 years and never before attained such speed, although he says he never loaded on a job.

AGED MAN SENT TO WRONG TOWN

Ebenezer Hayes, an octogenarian who was lost, was reported safe yesterday, his relatives getting information in a few hours as the result of the publication of the story of his disappearance in The Journal. He wandered from his home in his daughter, Mrs. Zehner of 205 Cooke avenue, and in some manner got to Sellwood. There he was picked up by a contractor to look for him.

GRAINHANDLER HAS A BAD TUMBLE

Wagner, a grainhandler, slipped off the bridge of his boat, fell into the river between the dock and the steamers. He was precipitated fully 30 feet and would undoubtedly have been killed had he struck the float flying between the dock and the steamer.

POISON DOSE IS FATAL

John St. Germain, who gave the name of John Raymond, after taking a quantity of acetic acid Thursday night, died yesterday afternoon at St. Vincent hospital from the effects of the poison.

OLD MAN DROPS DEAD

John Bender, aged 85, dropped dead while walking down a flight of stairs at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bender, at 1230 East 12th street. He had been a resident of the home for some time. Coroner Norden was notified and a coroner's jury was held.

DRIVE OUT WIFE ON COLD NIGHT GRANTS TAKE FIRST GAME

Driven into the street at 11 o'clock at night in raw, inclement weather, governing herself and daughter in blankets that she seized on the way, while her husband raged around with a carving knife inside the house—this is the picture of one phase of married life presented by Mrs. Alice Reckard in a complaint for divorce filed in the circuit court today.

BOURNE'S NAME GOES ON REGISTER

Senator Jonathan Bourne's name was the most prominent enrolled on the register of voters at the county clerk's office this morning. As Mr. Bourne had not been in Oregon this year until recently, he had not had opportunity to register before.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR PUTTING IN WOOD

George Younglove believes he has broken the world's record for putting in wood. This morning he completed a job of putting in 20 cords that took him exactly 15 hours. He has been handling wood for the past 20 years and never before attained such speed, although he says he never loaded on a job.

AGED MAN SENT TO WRONG TOWN