

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Peterson, 214 Maryland avenue, was the scene of a pretty affair Monday evening in honor of the birthday of Miss Sappho Nelson, sister of Mrs. Peterson. The guests were entertained on the lawn, which was decorated with autumn leaves and Japanese lanterns. The evening was spent in games. The prize winners were Miss Bessie Sanderson and Albert Nelson. Mrs. Peterson was assisted by Mrs. Laura Frederickson and Mrs. C. W. O'Brien.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fredrickson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Peterson, Mrs. T. C. Peterson, Mrs. N. Nelson and Mrs. C. Nelson; the Misses Bessie Sanderson, Helen Fisher, Marie Peterson, Paulette Hansen Sophia and Thia Evenson, Minnie and Myrtle Nelson and Esther Peterson; Albert and Andrew Nelson, Leo and Adolph Hansen, Fred Busho, O. Lund, Nels Nelson, Leslie Thoroughman, Michael Nelson, Tony Kandemp and Gruby Peterson.

Mrs. Jane MacMillan Ordway entertained Wednesday for Miss Emma Strout, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. George H. Strout, at 374 Victoria street. Miss Strout has just returned after three

Miss Minnie McKean, Mrs. Alice Farthington, Miss Isabel Lindermann, Mrs. Bacon, Mrs. Le Conte.

The Eta Pi Eta club met Friday evening with Miss Emily Coleman. A number of new names were proposed for membership and were discussed. The club consists of eight girls and is merely a social organization.

WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding was celebrated at St. Lawrence's church at high noon, Monday, when Augustus F. Fleming and Mattie A. Kelly, were married. Rev. Father J. C. Hughes officiating. The elaborate decorations of the church amid a blaze of hundreds of miniature incandescent lights especially arranged, lent a beautiful effect. The bride, charmingly dressed in white silk and lace and carrying a bouquet of Bride roses, was attended by Miss Clara Fleming, a sister of the groom. She was becomingly attired in white and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was attended by Mr. J. Kelly, brother of the bride. After the wedding ceremony, the bridal party, accompanied by the immediate relatives, repaired to the home of the bride's parents on Fifth street, where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served. The young people are well known musical circles. The bride is leader and organist of the choir of the church of St. Lawrence, and the groom is organist of the same choir. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming left for the east and will be visiting with their friends after October 15 at 564 Fourth street.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Winifred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kendall, and Dr. Elmer Miller was celebrated at the Westminster Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white muslin and carried a large bouquet of white carnations. Her bridesmaid, Miss Hazel Coote, the bridesmaid, was in blue and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom, Dr. Elmer Miller, was in a suit of blue and carried a boutonniere of white carnations. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. T. J. Brobst. Just before the ceremony Miss Edith Eastes sang "I Love You Truly" in her usual pleasing manner. Miss Anna Pennington acted as organist. The wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and the immediate relatives. After a trip to the sound they will be at home to their friends in their apartments on Schuyler and Union avenue.

Saturday evening, September 19, Miss May Brooks and Edward M. Jensen, in the presence of relatives and friends, were united in marriage, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Brooks, 106 West avenue, north. The bride was costumed in a lace gown of pink silk, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Her bridesmaid, Miss Laura Jensen, was becomingly gowned in Nile green silk crepe. The bride and groom entered the parlor strains of the Lohengrin march, and after the impressive ring ceremony, Rev. Henry Borden officiated. A sumptuous repast was served. Edwin Goodrich was best man. Among the guests were Mrs. W. R. Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hoyt, of Hillsboro, and the family residence, to Clark P. Deveraux, a business man of Eugene. Rev. P. E. Waters, minister, officiated and a host of friends and relatives were present. Miss Hoyt is a musician and very popular in Hillsboro circles. After a visit to the beach they will take up their residence in Eugene.

Miss Bessie Subotnick, niece of Mr. and Mrs. M. Levin, was married to James Grossman Sunday at the Levin home, 388 First street. Dr. Heller performed the ceremony. A large company attended and Miss Eva Levin, pianist, and Ben Levin, vocalist, entertained them. The bride carried a large bouquet of white carnations and her bridesmaid, Miss Eva Levin, Miss Eva Goldstein, Miss Ray Levin and Miss Lena Brill, carried large bouquets. The house was decorated with roses. Dinner was served after the ceremony. The bride threw the bouquet and Miss R. Cohen caught it. The bride and groom have gone to Los Angeles for their honeymoon.

George H. Clark and Miss Elizabeth Fitchner were married in the Sunday school room of the White Temple, Wednesday, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Dorothy Fichtens and Howard Jenkins acted as best man.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher of the White Temple united in marriage on Wednesday, R. P. Dana and Miss Clara J. Hiedsoe. The wedding took place Sixth street.

Sunday, Ernest Johnson and Miss Bertha Wilson were married at the residence of Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, 201 Eleventh street. Dr. Brougher performing the ceremony.

J. B. Fehrenbacher and Miss Bertha Vincent were married Monday afternoon at the home of Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher of the White Temple. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

COMING EVENTS

The "Jinkott" girls announce their anniversary dancing party to be given at Ringier hall, Friday evening, October 9. Their invitations, which consist of the form of a paddle, are in keeping with their Indian name. The club consists of 16 girls, the greater number of whom attend the East Side high school. The club members are the Misses Lillian Blasen, Miriam Delano, Goldie Guerite Mathiot, Claire Oakes, Rhoda Poage and Margaret Templeton. The patronesses are: Miss Winifred Hayen, Mrs. A. T. Lewis, Mrs. A. M. Oakes, Mrs. S. Grissom and Mrs. J. O. Hall.

Company C, Oregon National guard, will give a series of six dancing parties in the armory this season. The first party will be given Monday, October 15. This party is being looked forward to with great pleasure and the company is making elaborate preparations. Stiles orchestra will furnish the music. Invitations will be sent out this week. Following is the committee: Sergeant L. M. Dole, Sergeant J. C. Dick, Corporal W. W. McKenna, Corporal R. E. Bullis, Corporal J. A. Sommerdine. The patronesses are: Mrs. L. A. Bowman, Mrs. C. T. Smith, Mrs. J. T. Dole, Mrs. J. A. Sommerdine.

The members of the Catholic Young Men's club will entertain the football eleven with a dancing party Thursday evening in the spacious club gymnasium on Morris street. Invitations have been issued. The patronesses are Mrs. T. O'Brien, Mrs. T. J. King, Mrs. M. E. Carter and Mrs. Ward. The committee consists of: Ambrose Willig, Dave Ryan, Raymond Kennedy, George Donerberg, J. Quinlan and Dan Duff.

Winslow Meade circle, No. 7, Ladies of G. A. R. will hold a basket social Monday evening at Ringier hall. The first of the series of social dances of Fifth and Yamhill streets. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends.

The East Side Athletic club girls gave their evening party at Ringier hall Thursday evening and it was one of the best of the series. The social dance of the club was lastly decorated with novel feature was the fan program, an attractive tableau head of an American girl was presented to the fans. In the German partners were chosen by the numbers on the fan and an enjoyable evening was the result. The club will give their next party October 22.

Mount Hood Circle, Women of Woodcraft, will give their opening party Tuesday evening in the east side Woodcraft hall, East Sixth near East Alder. The successful parties of last winter gave the committee encouragement to repeat them this year.

A. O. H. and L. A. division will give a dancing party in W. O. W. hall, 133 Eleventh street, Monday, October 5, 1908. Two large halls, dancing one, the other to be reserved for the ladies wish to play cards. Invitations may be secured from members.

The Corinthian club has issued invitations for its opening party to be given at Ringier's hall Monday, October 5.

Professor Ringier's Masonic Temple dancing classes opens September 30. East side classes September 23.

OUT-OF-TOWN ITEMS

One of the remarkably pretty weddings of the season was that of Miss Lula M. Coleman and Frank L. Jensen, Sunday afternoon at the M. E. church in Cornelius, Or. The church was elaborately decorated in Oregon grape and ferns, and a beautiful bell of roses was suspended over the altar. The bride was beautifully gowned in white crepe de chine, trimmed in Irish lace, and her veil was caught up with orange blossoms and she carried Bride roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Couture, maid of honor of Cornelius, in a handsome dress of blue silk, while the bridesmaid, Miss Helen Olsen, wore a becoming frock of pink silk. The flower girls, the little Misses Mildred and Lona Fliske, in their dainty frocks of white, loosened the ribbon fastenings of the rustic garland before the altar for the bridal party to pass through. Miss Lina Hancock, sister of the bride, sang "Oh, Perfect Love." Leasta McCookery played the Lohengrin wedding march and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. L. Fields. After the wedding a delicious buffet luncheon was served at Alpha hall to about 250 guests. Miss Coleman was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hancock of Cornelius, a daughter of the popular young women of Washington county. Frank L. Jensen is a son of Mrs. Mary K. Watrous and is well known about Forest Grove. Owing to the large circle of friends the wedding was a public one. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen left on the 4:50 train, amid a shower of rice and good wishes. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Cornelius.

Last Tuesday in McMinnville, Miss Effie Leabo became the bride of Frank Dunham. The ceremony was performed at the old Leabo home in the presence of relatives and friends. Rev. John E. Simpson of Portland officiating.

Miss Dunham, with her sisters, has had charge of the Sloan hotel of Forest Grove, one of the oldest taverns in Oregon, for the past year, and has made many friends. Mr. Dunham is in business in Portland, where they will reside, after a short wedding trip.

Miss Eula Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hoyt, of Hillsboro, was married, Thursday afternoon at the family residence, to Clark P. Deveraux, a business man of Eugene. Rev. P. E. Waters, minister, officiated and a host of friends and relatives were present. Miss Hoyt is a musician and very popular in Hillsboro circles. After a visit to the beach they will take up their residence in Eugene.

At the home of Thomas Grewell of Warren, his daughter, Nellie, was married to Alfred Buss, Tuesday, September 15. Rev. Lew Davies officiating.

Sheriff Martin White of Columbia county returned Thursday to St. Helens from a month's visit with his aged mother in Concordia, Kansas.

The Misses Alice L. Quick and Edna Harris and Ernest John of St. Helens went to Corvallis last week to enter the O. A. C.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. John Milton Phelps of Chicago announced two engagements in their family last week—that of their daughter, Miss Opal Austria Phelps, to Silvanus Kingsley of Portland and of their daughter, Miss Virginia Mary Phelps, to Clay Emerson Elliott of Chicago. Both weddings will take place in October.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Landley of Portland are guests at the Stewart in San Francisco.

THE SIMPLE LIFE.

In Summer All Classes Spend Most of Time Out of Doors. From the Ladies' Pictorial. In Finland everybody lives the simple life in summer. They camp out on islands, in the forests, and always somewhere near the water, for everybody swims and bathes. Almost all classes sleep and eat al fresco at this

THE RELIABLE Chicago Dentists

High-Grade Work Positively Without Pain. We are thorough dentists of many years practical experience and we back up every bit of it with our well-known reputation for doing HONEST DENTISTRY. The best Dentistry is none too good for you. Our success is based on high-grade work at reasonable prices.

TEETH WITHOUT PAIN A SPECIALTY. SILVER FILLINGS ..... 50¢ up GOLD FILLINGS ..... $1.00 up I.K. GOLD CROWN ..... $5.00 up GOOD RUBBER PLATES ..... $2.00 up THE BEST RUBBER PLATES ..... $3.00 up NERVOUS PEOPLE. And those afflicted with heart weakness can now have their teeth filled and bridge work applied without the least pain or danger.

13 OFFICES IN UNITED STATES. Chicago Painless Dentists. 225 1/2 WASH. ST., COR. 22ND. Phone Main 2395, A-2344. OFFICE HOURS.

time of year and the town councils of the towns in this progressive and altogether delightful little country provide public fireplaces and public bathing sheds in all places where the working classes go in search of fresh air. But the simple life is by no means dull with the frisky Finns. They combine it with a surprising amount of gaiety. They eat, drink and are very merry in their picturesque little log cabins outside the cities. When they are tired of bathing and splashing, they dance, they sing, they watch fireworks and practice gymnastics; they all become like children and are the very happiest, merriest, most good natured, most easily pleased and most healthy holiday makers in the world.

A Welcome Patter. Each chairman's ear is near the ground. Their watchful eyes intently flash; Each listens for the welcome sound Of feet that run to bring him cash. From the Cleveland Plaindealer.

The government of Bavaria is taking steps looking toward the substitution of electrical power, produced by water falls, for steam on the Bavarian and railroad. Existing falls, without the use of dams, are expected to develop 360,000 horsepower.

We Specialize in Fine Business Stationery

ASK TO SEE SAMPLES OF DISTINCTIVE HEADINGS

Kilham EASTERN OUTFITTING CO. Fifth and Oak

CONCLUSION SALE CONTINUED

Owing to the fact that we are going to discontinue handling all lines of domestics, we will close out our present stock, including Towels, Bedspreads, Blankets, Comforters, Lace Curtains, Etc., at a discount of 33 1/2 and 50 per cent.

Warm Bedding Curtains and Drapes. These cold frosty mornings make one realize the necessity of warm, comfortable bedding. Our sale of Blankets, Sheets, Pillowslips and Comforters comes very apropos. We hope you will take advantage of it. Make the rooms look warm and cozy by adding to their beauty new Curtains, Portiers and Artistic Drapes. Remember the price now is from one-third to one-half less than ever before. This stock is broken, they can't last long.

The "Style Store" Policy

We compel our trade by reason of our standards of workmanship and materials and never allow either of them to lower. Each separate section, whether jewelry, men's clothing, ladies' suits, hats, shoes, novelties, waists or millinery, has the concentrated skill and workmanship of an expert who is in constant attendance and will aid you in selection or show you the newest ideas in each line.

A Millinery Connoisseur. It is a great comfort to the average woman to find a saleswoman who takes one's own personality into consideration. At the "Style Store" the milliner in charge is a connoisseur in her line, who studies the contour of one's face and shows the hats best suited to bring out its natural beauty. See her before selecting your new Fall hat.

Kilham EASTERN OUTFITTING CO. The Store Where Your Credit Is Good COR. WASHINGTON AND TENTH

110 Carloads of Furniture

Were received by us last year. These were straight carloads, too. We expect to beat the record this year. This is more than all the other dealers received, except only one. Buying right enables us to sell goods for less than others. ONE CARLOAD UNLOADED LAST WEEK. Two more on the way. This is our regular monthly contract.

Steel Range Like Cut $16.25

REGULAR PRICE $25.00. Who ever heard of a genuine Steel Range in these later days, with a high warming closet, 16-inch oven, and beautifully nickel-plated, for $16.25? THIS IS COST PRICE when bought in carload lots.

Stewart Steel Ranges

14-INCH OVEN ... $33.50 18-INCH OVEN ... $41.00
16-INCH OVEN ... $37.50 20-INCH OVEN ... $45.00

All can be fitted with Gas Plates and Oven Thermometers at a slight advance. Malleable Ranges Up to $75

Stewart Heater. Like cut, cast lining inside. A very attractive heater. Priced from $10.50 to $16.50. Small Air-Tight Heaters ..... $1.50

Stewart Coal and Wood Heater. A popular-priced heater, but of the best materials. They do not take up much room. Prices from $8.50 Up. We have a complete line.

Stocks the largest, affording a selection of all grades of goods. Henry Jennings & Sons Morrison and Second Streets. Best and finest lines of furniture to be seen in America.

Mrs. Richard Watson Williams, who was Miss Frances French of Albany.

years' study of music in a conservatory at Charleston, S. C. At Mrs. Ordway's afternoon the guests were entertained with music and readings. As a special compliment to the hostess Mrs. E. H. Johnson recited "Wyllie, Ordway, latest poem, 'Oregon.'" The color scheme of pink prevailed in both decorations and refreshments. Miss Elizabeth Hoben, Miss Josephine Hoben, Miss Charlotte Flinn and Miss Viola Ortschid assisted the hostess in serving.

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the entertaining of the Lilliput Stock company, by Mrs. W. L. Philip, at her home, 380 Benton street. The house was tastefully decorated with trailing vines and La France roses. Games and music were enjoyed the greater part of the afternoon until the dining-room was thrown open for supper. An impromptu program of songs, recitations and dancing followed. The afternoon closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and three hearty cheers for the hostess. Those present were, Vivian Waller, George Philip, Josephine Burns Hoben, Rose Philip, Virginia Brown, Nita Philip, Olof Wingstad, Percival Brown, Dorothy Connolly, Catherine Southard, Chester Wingstad, Helen Southard, Richard Doty, Mildred Southard, Mrs. Connolly, and Mrs. Philip.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepard of 14 East Thirteenth North entertained last Tuesday evening in honor of their daughter Willa Shepard's seventeenth birthday. Games were enjoyed during the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Edward Hunsaker, William Holden, Oscar Lapham, David Good, Lucille Shepherd, Lea Beale, Cyrus Wylie, Herbert Gearing, Beuna Lynds, Gertrude Wylie, Roxanna Wommelsdorf, Bernice Wommelsdorf, Beulah Cauthorn, Leslie White, Ethel Packles, Eva Cable, Percy Eckhart, Clarence Miller, Lillian Veatch, Vivian Makelm, Lester Keenen, Walter Shepard, Wilford Ruge, Irene Wentz, Gladys Gage.

As the Rev. R. M. Jones intends going east for some time, his numerous Welsh friends in Portland surprised him and the family Thursday night. They came in a body and elected Rev. D. A. Thomas of Mississippi honorary chairman. Mrs. Burrell's guests were entertained quite informally, and the pleasure of the day was shared by Miss Tyler, Mrs. Fred Lindermann, Mrs. D. W. Cornelius, Eureka council No. 204 Knights and Ladies of Security gave a five hundred party Monday evening at their hall in the Auditorium building. The first prizes were won by F. M. Kern and Mrs. W. C. Laurens and second prizes by Ernest Yeisler and Mrs. Thedson. The next offering will be October 19.

Mrs. E. F. Burrell of Alameda entertained recently with a delightful gathering of friends who were asked to meet Miss Maud Tyler of Portland, who is visiting friends in Alameda. Mrs. Burrell's guests were entertained quite informally, and the pleasure of the day was shared by Miss Tyler, Mrs. Fred Lindermann, Mrs. D. W. Cornelius,

WEDDING AND CALLING CARDS WASHINGTON'S 304-305-306 BET 4th-5th BUCHANAN BLDG WASHINGTON ST