CLOSING DAY IS PORTLAND'S OWN

Features Galore When Beavers Beat Greeks in Last Game in the North.

- Features of Closing Games. Triple play pulled off by Danzig, Casey and Cooney. Heilmuller's home run in first game which scored two. Groom's masterful pitching, allowing Oakes three hits. Cooney's fielding, which kept scoring down. Twirling of Graney and Nelson in second game. Madden's corking swat which won game in eleventh inning.

Some 3,000 baseball fans assembled at Vaughn park yesterday afternoon to assist in fittingly closing the Pacific coast season in the north. They witnessed a game so full of features...

How It Happened. Here is the way the scoring happened. Groom had allowed the victors but one hit up to the fourth. Hogan was safe at first on Danzig's error in failing to pick up an easy grounder in the fourth. Heilmuller, who followed Hogan, connected with one of Bobby's slants and the sphere went sailing clear of the right field fence. Both Hogan and Heilmuller rambled leisurely home with the only run scored during the afternoon by the southerners.

Cypher Line Is Stopped. The cypher line grows longer for Oakland, pulling up in the 11th. In the home team's half a terrific struggle was on to put a run over. Although Danzig was safe on Smith's error, he reached second on Frambes' sacrifice and took third on McCredie's infield hit which amounted to a safety. The big fellow was shut out at the home plate when he tried to race home on Frambes' grounder to Eagan.

Gold Dust the easy dish-washer

Gold Dust cuts dirt and grease from dishes like magic—it purifies and drives out every bit of dirt or hidden germ which may lurk in them—it makes dish-water that digs.

Just add a teaspoonful of Gold Dust to a dishpan full of hot water; use when Gold Dust is dissolved.

Try it and you will have dishes that are not only spotlessly white, but wholesome and sanitary. Soap-washed dishes are only half clean, and unfit to eat from.

The Gold Dust way of washing dishes is the only way.

PROTESTED GAME TO BE PASSED UPON SOON

Pulliam's Decision May Also Decide Pennant Race in National League. As the case stands, the umpires called it a tie. New York claimed the game. New York declined to play it over and claimed it by forfeit; and an appeal was taken to the directors. There remains a possibility that this game may decide the pennant.

TRIPLE PLAYS OF PORTLAND TEAMS

Stunt Yesterday Recalls Interesting Feats of Similar Nature Here.

Portland's first triple play of the season, which came as a fitting climax to two weeks of sensational hitting and fielding, signaled the last day of baseball in the north this season. Danzig, Casey and Cooney were the three heroes and the play came in the first inning, when Groom had pitched himself into a bad hole. Cook and Truesdale were on first and second bases and Hogan was at bat. Hogan attempted to sacrifice and popped a fly toward first base. It was one of those slow things and looked good to hit terra firma before anybody could get near it. Danzig raced in and by a long scoop just managed to grab the sphere about a foot from the ground. Casey whipped first base and Babe whipped the ball to Pearl. Casey thought quickly and Cooney was there like a ball. A speedy throw to the little shortstop at second was "lapped" for Cook. It was the quickest plays of the season and one of the most prettily executed. The crowd went wild.

One Last Season. If memory serves aright, the closing game of the season saw just such a play pulled off. Ote Johnson, one of the heroes of the Portland team, then fresh from the South Atlantic league, threw it. Ote was on first and pulled down a line drive. There was a man on first and one on third. He stopped on the bag and then heaved the ball to first base to Kennedy, completing a three-out play.

By the way, this was the second triple play of the season, the first taking place in San Francisco last Thursday, with the Angels as the performers. It happened in the third inning. Browning was safe on a single, and Mohler was rapped in the slats. Hildebrand poked the ball at Bernard, and only a fooling third. Bernie stepped on the bag, mauling Browning and then caught Hildebrand at first. Mohler tried to annex third on the throw and Dillon caught him by a perfect peg back to Bernard. However, it was not so cleanly executed as the local one.

There have been very few triple plays pulled off on the local diamond in the memory of the latter-day fans. There was one in the days of Jack Grim but it was as nothing compared to the notable one in the remaining games of the season. They regretted to see them go and also to see young Flynn, the umpire who has been so popular during the past two weeks. They hope he will be retained next season.

Bert Whaling was slipped the blue envelope yesterday. Frambes has proved to be what Manager McCredie desired and the young bushier, who worked so hard to get no longer. Whaling will finish the season with some one of the California teams.

WEST KESLO FORFEITS GAME TO CASTLE ROCK. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Castle Rock, Wash., Sept. 22.—Castle Rock won the deciding game and pennant this afternoon in the Interstate league series, being pitted against West Keslo, with which club it had been tied since last Sunday. In the last half of a 12-inning game Sunday, without a single run on either side, with Castle Rock at bat and a good prospect of scoring, "Farmer Bill" West Keslo's manager, raised a howl about a decision of the umpire and marched his men off the field, whereupon the umpire promptly awarded the game to the nine from this city. So much interest was felt in the final game that people came from all over the county to see it, and the grounds and grandstand were crowded. Great elation is felt here over the result.
