MORAN IS FAVORED BY FIGHT BETTORS

Hanon Shaves Off Last Pound and Makes Usual Prediction.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 San Francisco, Sept. 29.—Odds on the Hanlon-Moran lightweight fight tomorrow night are today two to one, with the English champion on the long end of the betting. The absence of any Hanlon money until late in the day had with that weight and the morning worked it off. Both fighters discontinue using the gloves yesterday morning and neither one put in an appearance indoors after 10 o'clock this morning.

"I'll whip him in a few rounds," said Moran today, "and you can't see how they figure out these odds against me," said Hanlon, "but I'll show these wise guys."

CARLISLE INDIANS MAY PLAY WITH MULTNOMAH

By Coach Warner.
 If the Carlisle Indians do well upon the gridiron this year, it is hard to see what valid criticisms can be made to belittle their victories, as has been the custom in previous years, and especially last year when such a brilliant record was made.

The only grounds for criticism heretofore have been that Carlisle had no eligibility rules and played men in some instances who were new men, who come from a western Indian school, and who the school have put eligibility rules into force which prevent any player from being upon the team but one year, and placing the players under practically the same rules as are in force in the majority of colleges. By graduation the team will lose five of its best players and will be replaced by a new team, who come from a western Indian school, and who looks to be good enough for a regular team. The old men who are back are: House, fullback; Payne, left half, and House, fullback. None of these men has been upon the team but one year, with the exception of Wauseka, who has played two years, and Little Boy, who has played three years.

The schedule is harder than any other team undertakes, and includes games with Penn State, Syracuse, U. of Pennsylvania, Annopolis, Pennsylvania, Harvard, Minnesota and Louisville, all played upon the home grounds of the opponents, and possibly

LENN HUNTERS FIND UPLAND GAME SHORT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Albany, Or., Sept. 29.—When the open season for upland game begins Thursday next, Linn county's army of hunters, 1,200 strong, will find very little game. Although the open season has been a fairly good one birds are very scarce and at the present time the hunters are waiting for the China pheasant will be a thing of the past.

An interesting report that over two-thirds of the pheasants have been killed off. It is even said that ducks at a time have been brought into Albany and sold.

Linn county's game laws are being shamefully neglected, the hunters state, and they should either be enforced or dispensed with altogether. Over $1,200 has been raised to protect these birds, but there has not been a single arrest in Linn county for hunting out of season although the birds have all been killed off, the sportsmen contend.

OLD RUBY ROBERT WEEPS BECAUSE HE DIDN'T GET TO MEET KETCHEL

(Heart News by Longest Leased Wire.)
 New York, Sept. 29.—It is hard for a once proud fighter to realize that he is a back number. Bob F. Fitzsimmons and Kid McCoy afford the latest proof of this assertion.

Fitz wants a match. Recently he said: "I'm actor sometimes, but I'm going to fight again soon. What a chance! I'm going to get the best of the first. After I see him in Frisco, I would have been willing to guarantee to knock him out in four rounds or get nothing. Yea, I'd knock Ketchel out in four rounds."

Kid McCoy, after his go with Peter Maher a few months ago, got the bug that he was still there, and ever since has been longing to get back into the ring, fighting title and dance the fandangos before the hungry fight fans. When he dropped Maher with that hook, it looked strong that ever, and three weeks ago the kid started to work. He is up at Cooper's gymnasium every afternoon these days, working out with some boys, and within the next two weeks will be seen before one of the local clubs, fighting with one of our blossoming middleweights.

RED HOT GOSSIP FOR RABID FANS

Portland and Oakland open up this afternoon on the diamond across the bay, and there is no reason why the Beavers should not repeat their work of last week against the Greeks. Let the Angels take a slump, and there is still a good chance by consistent work for the Beavers to spurt out with the rag.

That simple little watch incident in which Ote Johnson figured so conspicuously at the ball park Sunday afternoon, only serves to illustrate the fan's love for the earnest hard working ball player. The gift was not made because Johnson is the best player in the team, for he is not. There are a number of better players than Johnson, but none of them possess a greater amount of perseverance or pluck. Johnson plays ball all the time, and when things are breaking bad for the team is never charged with throwing up his hands. More ball players should follow Johnson's example.

Jim Flynn is one umpire who does not fraternize with the ball players. He is never seen mingling with the bunch at the smokehouses, which is in striking contrast to the easy liberties of Perrine and O'Connell. It will be a cold day or night when such a fellow as Flynn will call for Harry Hogan's provincial humor up to 1:30 a. m.

Wendell Barbour Is Elected President—Heavy Increase This Year.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Sept. 29.—The freshman class held its first regular meeting yesterday and elected the following officers: President, Wendell Barbour, Eugene; vice-president, Lucia Campbell, Eugene; secretary, Erma Clifford, Baker City; treasurer, Rex Turner, Salem; sergeant-at-arms, Arthur Wilson, Medford; Exoner, Mr. Barbour is a graduate of Eugene High school, where he held a good position as a student and was very popular. He was a member of last year's baseball team. He is a son of W. C. Barbour, a club member of this city.

Miss Campbell is the daughter of President F. L. Campbell of the University of Oregon, and was also very popular at the Eugene High.

The class now numbers nearly 250 members, which is nearly double last year's freshman class.

GLEE CLUB IS CALLED OUT FOR FIRST TRYOUT

University of Oregon, Eugene, Sept. 29.—Professor Irving M. Glen, who has charge of the Glee club, has posted a notice for a tryout this afternoon. Five candidates for the position of president returned last year, Paine, Prescott and Peal, who graduated last year, and Germans and Anglin.

The place vacated by Germans as student man will probably be filled by Charles Robinson of Oregon City, who was formerly a member of the Williams College Glee club. Arthur Van Dusen, another Portland chithead, will probably be one of the candidates.

A large number of candidates is expected on account of the number of places vacated and some good material will probably be found.

At present the Glee club is without a manager, owing to the fact that Harold Clifford was unable to return to the university this year from every standpoint and will attract even greater prominence in the east next season.

For the out of town sportsmen who ran their dogs at Independence, the field trials at La Conner, Wash., tomorrow and next day, are proving an attraction.

Will Lipman is the new president of the field trials club, being elected at the annual meeting just before the trials in Independence. Paul Houser of Salem was elected first vice-president and Mr. Hirschberg of Independence second vice-president. The treasurer is J. R. Baker and the secretary E. A. Parsons, both of Portland.

Perhaps the greatest interest at Independence was found in the all-age stake where competition was keenest. Spots Rip-Rip, the famous dog owned by D. G. MacDonell of Vancouver, succeeded in winning the $300 prize over the California hunter, owned by Christenson of San Francisco, took second money and third money was split between Silver Lining, owned by Eddie White of Portland, and Glee Boy, entered by MacDonell of Vancouver, owner of the winner.

NEW OFFICERS TO LEAD FIELD CLUB

The Oregon field trials just concluded at Independence are considered the events of the year from a sportsman's standpoint, and local fanciers are now getting back to business. The trials were a most successful one from every standpoint and will attract even greater prominence in the east next season.
