Real Estate and Investments

For sale—Two mining claims, located at Florence, Humboldt county, Nevada. The Gold Bet and Moonanchor, 10 acres of standing timber for mining purposes, running water 100 feet from the claims, located 14 miles southeast of Denio, Oregon, and two claims from the Rain Storm group, which refused $65,000 for theirs. These two claims can be had for $1,000 cash.

For sale—Two fine drug stores in Rocky Ford, Colo., doing fine business; one will sell for $6,000; the other for $4,000 spot cash.

For exchange—30,000 shares of Quincy Ozark Orchard and Fruit Co., par $1, for good business property in Portland or Seattle; must earn 10 per cent or better, free of all incumbrance; bank reference and photographs; orchard has paid 25 per cent first year and 10 per cent last year, in a good year this stock will earn 50 per cent; orchard consists of 20,000 fruit trees—10,000 peach trees (Elbertas, Champion and Salway), 8,000 apple trees (Jonathan and Ben Davis), 2,000 Kieffer pears—a nice little vineyard and small fruits of all kinds. For more particulars about the Orchard Co. write to me.

For exchange—Two mining claims, for any kind of good town property. Claims have a splendid location, 3,000 feet on the main ledge by 600 feet wide. Just about two miles from the smelter, level road straight from the property to the smelter; also any part of 5,000 shares of the First National Mining Co. for town lots, farm land or house and lots.

If you have anything for exchange subject to the above, address
