All Economical Men Are Buying Their Raincoats and Topcoats Here

The new department met with instantaneous favor among the well-groomed men of Portland. We would like to take some of you fellows who are particular about your clothes through the factories where these coats were made—show you how careful the workers must be about every button, every seam—how the cloth is tested in the sun—how they are finished by hand, by men tailors. Then you should appreciate even more than you have (if possible) the importance of this announcement. These coats are from Brokaw Bros. and Hackett Carhartt & Co.; sufficient guarantee of quality and workmanship.

Friday is the Third day of the Four-Day Introductory Sale, and no man with a need in Raincoats or Topcoats should overlook this very unusual offer. 'Tis an instance of remarkable bargainizing on Coats, full of snappy style and originality; superb materials; and with the makers' guarantee, as well as ours back of them.
