For a thorough canvass of the city and the state at large in support of next year's Pacific National Livestock show, the soliciting committee just appointed by President S. G. Reed will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the convention hall of the Commercial club.

Portland is taking hold of the stock show in a way to make glad the heart of the most ardent booster. The contributions thus far received have been sent in voluntarily. Now the "ill-wait-till-tomorrow" will be visited and requested to delay no longer but to put down their names forthwith for one or more season tickets.

There has been no questioning of the positive benefit of such an exhibition as that held last month, and the fact that a showing was made which attracted the attention of lovers of fine blood in cattle and horses all over the United States is just being realized.

Following are the members of the committee named by President Reed of the Portland Country Club and livestock association:
 J. W. Bailey, chairman; Walter Goss, George Lawrence Jr., George M. Brown, A. M. Cronin, J. P. Jaeger, Charles F. Berg, A. H. Devers, W. H. McMonies, W. L. Crismer, Otto Bryman, Dr. Emmet Drake, A. C. Lohmire, C. C. Colt, R. M. Luders, A. H. Averill, H. H. Newhall, John E. Beall, Robert L. Darrow, C. C. Chapman, W. H. Markell, George W. McMillan, Charles M. Gunn, George W. Kleiser.

Nearly a third of the total number of 2,000 season tickets required to insure the success of next year's big show have been subscribed. Adding in those subscriptions sent The Journal today in all 971 tickets have been taken, costing $4,845. Following are the subscriptions received today by The Journal:

KENNEWICK TO BE DISTRIBUTING POINT FOR BIG POWER COMPANY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Kennewick, Wash., Oct. 2.—A contract has been entered into between the Northern Pacific Irrigation company and the Northwest Light & Water company which is of great import to the city of Kennewick. The contract provides for the installation of a steam power plant as an auxiliary to a transmission line to be built from the enormous water plant of the latter company, situated on the Natchez river, to the city of Kennewick, which is to become the headquarters of the company for the Columbia river district; power will also be transmitted from this city to Pasco.

The Northern Pacific Irrigation company will utilize this power to elevate water from its present canal to the elevated plateau known as the Kennewick Highlands, situated immediately south of and within a distance of one and two miles from this city, overlooking the Columbia river and a vast stretch of country embracing five counties in this state and a portion of Oregon. These lands are comparable only to the famous Rob Hill district, near the city of North Yakima, whose lands are the admiration of every visitor and are perhaps the most valuable fruit lands on the northwest Pacific coast.

Pumps will be installed and pipe lines will be constructed at once. The electric company has already placed its order for the transmission line and the entire project will be completed before the first of April next.

In connection with the irrigation of the Kennewick Highlands the new floors of the Northern Pacific Irrigation company have decided to place 40 acres of section 1, immediately south of Kennewick, just above the present canal, extending from Washington street to the canal bridge on Second street. These lots are to be put upon the market this fall. The Northern Pacific Irrigation company has written Olmstead Brothers landscape architects, to secure their services in laying out this large tract. Olmstead Brothers designed the park

SHERMAN MARCHING THROUGH ILLINOIS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 2.—James S. Sherman, the vice-presidential candidate, arrived here today to attend the big Republican rally and in a speech at the baseball park strongly denounced Bryan's policies and made the charge that the Democratic platform was similar to the Republican. He referred to Bryan in the highest terms of praise and said that Bryan could lay no just claim to the presidency in opposition to him. The other speakers present were: Congressman Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, Governor Deen, Congressman Frank O. Lowden and Congressman James McKinley of Illinois.

CLERK TO M'NEIL'S FOR ROBBING MAIL

Edward H. Pain, a postal clerk running on the Northern Pacific between Dayton and Pasco, Wash., arrested some time ago after an investigation being made by O. C. Riches, postoffice inspector of Portland, has been sentenced to two years at hard labor at McNeil's island. Pain was arrested for rifling the mails. He confessed. He was formerly a soldier. The trial was in Spokane. Pain only got about $100 before he was caught.

Factory Surplus.

The Boston store, First and Salmon streets, inaugurates tomorrow, Saturday, a sale of stupendous magnitude. Five large eastern factories having surpassed their demand, have sold their entire surplus stock to this popular people's store at 35 cents on the dollar. This will enable the Portland public to purchase men's, women's and children's wearing apparel at a saving rarely equaled. See tonight's Journal for full particulars.

Thomas says
 A lady said to me today: "Why do you call your place a Squibb Drug Store? What do you mean by that?" Well, dear public, I told that lady, and I've been trying to tell you, too, for a long time. Edward R. Squibb, from whom we purchase our supplies, is the manufacturer of the purest and highest grade of chemicals and medicines in the entire world. His goods are recognized by all scientific men as the best possible to produce. All of our tinctures, syrups, chemicals and other medicinal preparations are made in the Squibb Laboratory in Brooklyn, N. Y., rather than in our own or in some other. If you have your prescription filled at our store, you get Squibb's goods; and if you don't think that means a whole lot, just ask your doctor. That's why we call our pharmacy a "Squibb Drug Store."
