OUR STREETS BEFORE ACCEPT CHURCH SERVICES

New Committeemen Will Personally Inspect Every Improvement Made.

Hereafter all streets must be inspected and accepted by the special committee appointed yesterday by Mayor Lane before he will sign the warrants in payment for improvements. The city's chief is responsible for this statement.

P. E. Sullivan, Isaac Sweet and Seneca Smith, the two last being the new members of the street committee, met this morning with the mayor and decided upon the course to adopt. They will make an effort to inspect personally every street improvement.

Mayor Lane said that for some reason very poor work was accepted by the old committee, two of whose members, Messrs. Sabin and Wilson, have resigned. It is the intention of the newly appointed committeemen to ascertain whether the fault lies with the contractor or with the old committee. The third member of the old street committee, D. A. Pattullo, was not present at the meeting of the new committee yesterday afternoon, nor did he participate in the council of four this morning, but he is still retained on the committee and will be asked to assist in the inspection.
